This Information Memorandum should be read and construed with any supplemental Information Memorandum, any Final Terms and with any other document incorporated by reference.

The Issuer has not authorised the making or provision of any representation or information regarding the Issuer and the companies whose accounts are consolidated with those of the Issuer (together, the “Consumer Group”) or the Notes other than as contained or incorporated by reference in this Information Memorandum, in the Dealer Agreement (as defined herein), in any other document prepared in connection with the Programme or in any Final Terms or as approved for such purpose by the Issuer. Any such representation or information should not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Issuer, the Arranger, the Dealers or any of them.

The information contained in the Information Memorandum or any Final Terms is not and should not be construed as a recommendation by the Arranger, the Dealers or the Issuer that any recipient should purchase Notes. Each such recipient must make and shall be deemed to have made its own independent assessment and investigation of the financial condition, affairs and creditworthiness of the Issuer and of the Programme as it may deem necessary and must base any investment decision upon such independent assessment and investigation and not on the Information Memorandum or any Final Terms.

Neither the Arranger nor any Dealer undertakes to review the business or financial condition or affairs of the Issuer during the life of the Programme, nor undertakes to advise any recipient of the Information Memorandum or any Final Terms of any information or change in such information coming to the Arranger’s or any Dealer’s attention.

Neither the Arranger nor any of the Dealers accepts any liability in relation to this Information Memorandum or any Final Terms or its or their distribution by any other person. This Information Memorandum does not, and is not intended to, constitute (nor will any Final Terms constitute, or be intended to constitute) an offer or invitation to any person to purchase Notes. The distribution of this Information Memorandum and any Final Terms and the offering for sale of Notes or any interest in such Notes or any rights in respect of such Notes, in certain jurisdictions, may be restricted by law. Persons obtaining this Information Memorandum, any Final Terms or any Notes or any interest in such Notes or any rights in respect of such Notes are required by the Issuer, the Arranger and the Dealers to inform themselves about and to observe any such restrictions. In particular, but without limitation, such persons are required to comply with the restrictions on offers or sales of Notes and on distribution of this Information Memorandum and other information in relation to the Notes and the Issuer set out under “Subscription and Sale” below.

THE NOTES HAVE NOT BEEN AND WILL NOT BE REGISTERED UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT OR UNDER THE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY STATE OR OTHER JURISDICTION OF THE UNITED STATES AND MAY NOT BE OFFERED, SOLD OR DELIVERED WITHIN THE UNITED STATES OR TO, OR FOR THE ACCOUNT OR BENEFIT OF, U.S. PERSONS (AS DEFINED IN REGULATION S UNDER THE SECURITIES ACT (“REGULATION S”)) (“U.S. PERSONS”) UNLESS AN EXEMPTION FROM THE REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS OF THE SECURITIES ACT IS AVAILABLE AND IN ACCORDANCE WITH ALL APPLICABLE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY STATE OF THE UNITED STATES AND ANY OTHER JURISDICTION.

The Notes have not been approved or disapproved by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission or any other securities commission or other regulatory authority in the United States, nor have the foregoing authorities approved this Information Memorandum or confirmed the accuracy or determined the adequacy of the information contained in this Information Memorandum. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense in the United States.

The Issuer has undertaken, in connection with the admission to listing of the Notes on the Official List and the admission to trading of the Notes on the regulated market of Euronext Dublin, that if there shall occur any adverse change in the business or financial position of the Issuer or any change in the terms and conditions of the Notes, that is material in the context of the issuance of Notes under the Programme, the Issuer will prepare or procure the preparation of an amendment or supplement to this Information Memorandum or, as the case may be, publish a new Information Memorandum, for use in connection with any subsequent issue by the Issuer of Notes to be admitted to the Official List and to trading on the regulated market of Euronext Dublin. Any such supplement to this Information Memorandum will be subject to the approval of Euronext Dublin prior to its publication.

This Information Memorandum describes certain Spanish tax implications and tax information procedures in connection with an investment in the Notes (see “Risk Factors – Risks in Relation to the Notes – Risks in Relation to Spanish Taxation”, “Taxation – Taxation in Spain” and Exhibit 1). Holders of Notes (the “Holders”) must seek their own advice to ensure that they comply with all procedures to ensure correct tax treatment of their Notes.

This Information Memorandum contains references to the ratings of the Programme. Where a Series of Notes is rated, such rating will be disclosed in the Final Terms and will not necessarily be the same as the rating assigned to the Programme by Moody's Investors Service España, S.A. (“Moody's”), Fitch Ratings Ireland Limited (“Fitch”) or S&P Global Ratings Europe Limited (“S&P Global”). A rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, modification or withdrawal at any time by the relevant rating agency.

Certain of the Dealers and their affiliates have engaged, and may in the future engage, in investment banking and/or commercial banking transactions with, and may perform services for, the Issuer and their affiliates in the ordinary course of business. In addition, in the ordinary course of their business activities, the Dealers and their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers. Such investments and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of the Issuer or Issuer's affiliates. Certain of the Dealers or their affiliates that have a lending relationship with the Issuer routinely hedge their credit exposure to the Issuer consistent with their customary risk management policies. Typically, such Dealers and their affiliates would hedge such exposure by entering into transactions which consist of either the purchase of credit default swaps or the creation of short positions in securities, including potentially the Notes issued under the Programme. Any such short positions could adversely affect future trading prices of Notes issued under the Programme. The Dealers and their affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or financial instruments and may hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments.

PROHIBITION OF SALES TO EEA RETAIL INVESTORS – the Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the EEA. For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, “MiFID II”); or (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive 2016/97 (as amended, the “Insurance Distribution Directive”), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II.

MiFID II Product Governance / Target Market

Solely for the purposes of the Issuer's product approval process in respect of a particular Note issue, the target market assessment in respect of any of the Notes to be issued of this Programme has led to the conclusion that (i) the target market for the Notes is eligible counterparties and professional clients only, each as specified in MiFID II; and (ii) all channels for distribution of the Notes to eligible counterparties and professional clients are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a “distributor”) should take into consideration the Issuer's target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the Issuer's target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

Solely by virtue of appointment as Arranger or Dealer, as applicable, on this Programme, neither the Arranger nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of EU Delegated Directive 2017/593.

PROHIBITION OF SALES TO UK RETAIL INVESTORS – the Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the United Kingdom (“UK”). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2 of Regulation (EU) No. 2017/565 as it forms part of UK domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (“EUWA”); or

(ii) a customer within the meaning of the provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (the “FSMA”) and any rules or regulations made under the FSMA to implement the Insurance Distribution Directive, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) No. 600/2014 as it forms part of UK domestic law by virtue of the EUWA.

UK MiFIR Product Governance / Target Market

The Final Terms in respect of any Notes may include, if applicable, a legend entitled “UK MiFIR Product Governance” which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a “distributor”) should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to the FCA Handbook Product Intervention and Product Governance Sourcebook (the “UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules”) is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

Solely by virtue of appointment as Arranger or Dealer, as applicable, on this Programme, neither the Arranger nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules.

Amounts payable under the Notes may be calculated or otherwise determined by reference to a reference rate or an index or a combination of indices and amounts payable on the Notes issued under the Programme may in certain circumstances be determined in part by reference to such reference rates or indices. Any such reference rate may constitute a benchmark for the purpose of Regulation (EU) No. 2016/1011 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (the “UK Benchmarks Regulation”) or Regulation (EU) No. 2016/1011 (the “EU Benchmarks Regulation”), as applicable. If any such reference rate does constitute a benchmark, the Notes will indicate whether or not the benchmark is provided by an administrator included in the FCA’s register of administrators and benchmarks under Article 36 (Register of administrators and benchmarks) of the UK Benchmarks Regulation (the “FCA Register”) or ESMA’s register of administrators and benchmarks under Article 36 (Register of administrators and benchmarks) of the EU Benchmarks Regulation (the “ESMA Register”). Not every reference rate will fall within the scope of the UK Benchmarks Regulation or the EU Benchmarks Regulation. Transitional provisions in the UK Benchmarks Regulation and the EU Benchmarks Regulation may have the result that the administrator of a particular benchmark is not required to appear in the FCA Register or the ESMA Register, as applicable, at the date of the relevant terms (or, if located outside the UK or EU (as applicable), recognition, endorsement or equivalence). The registration status of any administrator under the UK Benchmarks Regulation or the EU Benchmarks Regulation is a matter of public record and, save where required by the applicable law, the Issuers do not intend to update the applicable terms to reflect any change in the registration status of the administrator.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in the Notes may involve a high degree of risk. In purchasing Notes, investors assume the risk that the Issuer may be unable to make all payments due in respect of the Notes. There are a wide range of factors which individually or together could result in the Issuer becoming unable to make all payments due in respect of the Notes. It is not possible to identify all such factors, as the Issuer may not be aware of all relevant factors and certain factors which they currently deem not to be material may become material as a result of the occurrence of events outside the Issuer's control. The Issuer has identified in this Information Memorandum a number of factors which could materially adversely affect its businesses and ability to make payments due under the Notes and are classified by categories. In each category the most material risk factors are mentioned first.

In addition, factors which are material for the purpose of assessing the market risk associated with Notes issued under the Programme are detailed below. The factors discussed below regarding the risks of acquiring or holding any Notes are not exhaustive, and additional risks and uncertainties that are not presently known to the Issuer or that the Issuer currently believes to be immaterial could also have a material impact on the Notes.

Prospective investors should also read the detailed information set out elsewhere in this Information Memorandum and reach their own views prior to making any investment decision.

1. Macro-Economic and Political Risks

The growth, asset quality and profitability of the Consumer Group, among others, may be adversely affected by a slowdown in one or more of the economies in which the Consumer Group operates, as well as volatile macroeconomic and political conditions.

A slowdown or recession of one or more of the economies in which the Consumer Group operates, could lead major financial institutions, including some of the world's largest global commercial banks, investment banks, mortgage lenders, mortgage guarantors and insurance companies to experience significant difficulties, including runs on deposits, the need for government aid or assistance or the need to reduce or cease providing funding to borrowers (including to other financial institutions).

Volatile conditions in the global financial markets could also have a material adverse effect on the Consumer Group, including on the ability of the Consumer Group to access capital and liquidity on financial terms acceptable to the Consumer Group, if at all. If capital markets financing ceases to become available, or becomes excessively expensive, the Consumer Group may be forced to raise the rates it pays on deposits to attract more customers and become unable to maintain certain liability maturities. Any such increase in capital markets funding availability or costs or in deposit rates could have a material adverse effect on its interest margins and liquidity.

In particular, the Consumer Group faces, among others, the following risks related to the economic downturn and volatile conditions:

- (i) Reduced demand for its products and services.
- (ii) Increased regulation of its industry. Compliance with such regulation would likely continue to increase the Consumer Group's costs and may affect the pricing for its products and services, increase its conduct and regulatory risks related to non-compliance and limit its ability to pursue business opportunities.
- (iii) The process the Consumer Group uses to estimate losses inherent to its credit exposure requires complex judgements, including forecasts of economic conditions and how these economic conditions might impair the ability of its borrowers to repay their loans. The degree of uncertainty concerning economic conditions may adversely affect the accuracy of its estimates, which may, in turn, impact the reliability of the process and the sufficiency of its loan loss allowances.
- (iv) Inability of the Consumer Group's borrowers to timely or fully comply with their existing obligations. Macroeconomic shocks may negatively impact the household income of the Consumer Group's retail customers and may adversely affect the recoverability of its retail loans, resulting in increased loan losses.
- (v) The value and liquidity of the Consumer Group's portfolio of investment securities may be adversely affected.

The recoverability of the loan portfolios of the Consumer Group and its ability to increase the amount of loans outstanding and its results of operations and financial condition in general, are dependent to a significant extent on the level of economic activity in continental Europe. See risk factor 'The credit quality of the loan portfolio of the Consumer Group may deteriorate and the Consumer Group's loan loss reserves could be insufficient to cover its loan losses, which could have a material adverse effect on the Consumer Group'.

The balance as at December 31, 2024 of the "Foreign Public Debt" account corresponds mainly to Italian bonds acquired by: Santander Consumer Finance, S.A, for 1,176,401 thousand euros; Santander Consumer Bank AG for 982,118 thousand euros; Santander Consumer Bank S.p.A. for 301,496 thousand euros; and Santander Consumer Bank GmbH. for 194,705 thousand euros. In addition, the account includes Swedish, Finnish and Danish bonds purchased by Santander Consumer Bank AS for 244,218 thousand euros, 79,739 thousand euros, and 66,614 thousand euros respectively.

Recessionary conditions in the economies of Europe in which the Consumer Group operates, would likely have a significant adverse impact on its loan portfolio and sovereign debt holdings and, as a result, on its financial condition, cash flows and results of operations.

The revenues of the Consumer Group are also subject to risk of deterioration from unfavourable political and diplomatic developments, social instability, international conflicts, and changes in governmental policies, including expropriation, nationalization, international ownership legislation, sanctions, interest-rate caps, fiscal and monetary policies globally.

In 2024 attributable profit amounted to 803,624 million euros (-20 % with respect to 2023). Operating expenses were 0.9% lower than in 2023, reflecting effective control over inflationary pressures and business growth (such as the renewal of the Stellantis agreement, the acquisition of MCE Bank in 2023, and additional acquisitions completed in 2024). The efficiency ratio (cost to income) stood at 45.65% (+59 bps). Loan loss provisions were 51.1% higher than the previous year due to the normalization of the credit quality and a very low comparison base. Cost of credit reached 0.87% compared to 0.59% in the previous year with an NPL ratio of 2.62% (+47bps). Finally, coverage stood at 78.78%. As such, the Consumer Group continued to prove that it can maintain high profitability and streamlined efficiency.

In particular, the main regions where the Consumer Group operates are subject to the following macroeconomic and political conditions, which could have a material adverse effect on its business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects:

- After a period of persistent high inflation throughout the world, particularly in Europe and the United States, during 2023 and 2024 inflation slowly converged towards central banks' objectives allowing interest rates cuts during the second half of 2024. A return to a period of high inflation could result in higher operating costs, a decrease in the purchasing power of families with the consequent increase in delinquencies in the Consumer Group's credit portfolios, and lower economic growth derived from the tightening of monetary and fiscal policies aimed at containing inflation, among other risks, any of which could have a material adverse effect on the Consumer Group's operations, financial condition and prospects.
- Among the risks that could negatively affect the economies and financial markets of the regions where the Consumer Group operates and lead to a slowdown of the global economy, recession, inflationary pressures and/or stagflation are (i) the continuance or escalation of the wars in Ukraine and the Middle East; (ii) increases in the prices of energy and other commodities; (iii) the breakdown of global supply chains; and (iv) the return to tight monetary and fiscal policies, including by rising interest costs.
- Scenarios of political tensions and instability throughout the world stemming from a variety of factors, such as heightened polarisation and political fragmentation, may lead to shifting and unpredictable outcomes in political elections, legislative and policy-making efforts, social conditions and the global economy and to the progressive erosion of the rule of law in certain long-standing democracies. Furthermore, increasing public debt levels together with high interest costs may not be sustainable, and could lead certain countries to have higher sovereign risk premia and sovereign debt crises. A deterioration of the global economic, political, social and financial environment in Europe could have a material adverse impact on the financial sector, affecting the Consumer Group's operating results, financial position and prospects.

- In particular, the risk of returning in Europe to a fragile and volatile environment, heightened political tensions or recession could be aggravated if, among others, (i) the German economy falls into recession due to reduced competitiveness of its industrial sector, (ii) the policies implemented to provide emergency assistance and support to Ukraine, to alleviate the consequences of the war in the EU countries and to contain inflation do not succeed, (iii) the reforms aimed at improving the labour market, productivity and competitiveness fail, (iv) the banking union and other measures of European integration do not take hold, or (v) anti- European groups become more widespread.
- The new presidential administration in the United States has increased and may continue increasing trade tariffs that could significantly reshape international trade relations and supply chains, potentially resulting in lower growth globally. Growing protectionism and trade tensions, such as the tensions between the United States and China in recent years, could intensify, which could have a negative impact on the economies of the countries where the Consumer Group operates, and impact its operating results, financial condition and prospects.
- Uncertain economic outlook for China could negatively affect the world economy which would also impact the Consumer Group's operating results, financial condition and prospects.

The UK's withdrawal from the European Union could continue to have a material adverse effect on the UK- based operations, financial condition and prospects of the Consumer Group.

On 31 January 2020, the UK ceased to be a member of the EU (“Brexit”), on withdrawal terms that established a transition period until 31 December 2020. During the transition period, the UK continued to be treated as an EU member state and applicable EU legislation continued to be in force. A trade deal was agreed between the UK and the EU prior to the end of the transition period and the new regulations came into force on 1 January 2021.

The trade deal, however, did not include agreements on certain areas, such as financial services and data adequacy. The wider impact of the UK's withdrawal from the EU on financial markets through market fragmentation, reduced access to finance and funding, and lack of access to certain financial market infrastructure, may affect the operations, financial condition and prospects of the Consumer Group and those of its customers.

In 2021, the EU Commission adopted an adequacy decision for the UK, allowing for the continued flow of personal data between the EU and the UK without additional safeguards or permissions. This decision came with an expiry date of 27 June 2025, although it has now been proposed to extend the adequacy decision until 27 December 2025, pending approval by the European Data Protection Board. As of the date of this Information Memorandum, it has not been revoked. If the EU Commission's adequacy decision for the UK is not renewed, this could impact personal data flows from entities in the EU to Santander UK in the UK. In the event this occurs, it may result in additional costs to Santander UK in order to facilitate those data flows, to the extent those data flows are impacted, with the UK being subject to EU transfer rules as a non-adequate jurisdiction.

The continuing impact of Brexit on the wider UK economy could have a material adverse effect on the Consumer Group's operations, financial conditions and prospects.

2. Risks relating to the Issuer and the Consumer Group Business

Legal, regulatory and compliance risks to the business model of the Consumer Group

The Consumer Group is exposed to the risk of loss from legal and regulatory proceedings.

The Consumer Group faces risk of loss from legal and regulatory proceedings, including tax proceedings, that could subject it to monetary judgements, regulatory enforcement actions, fines and penalties. The current regulatory and tax enforcement environment in the jurisdictions in which the Consumer Group operates reflects an increased supervisory focus on enforcement, combined with uncertainty about the evolution of the regulatory regime, and may lead to material operational and compliance costs.

The Consumer Group is from time to time subject to regulatory investigations and civil and tax claims, and party to certain legal proceedings incidental to the normal course of its business, including, among others, in connection with conflicts of interest, lending securities and derivatives activities, relationships with its employees and other commercial or tax matters. In view of the inherent difficulty of predicting the outcome of legal matters, particularly where the claimants seek very large or indeterminate damages, or where the cases present novel legal theories, involve a large number of parties or are in the early stages of investigation or discovery, or have common elements but require assessment of circumstances on a case-by-case basis, the Consumer Group cannot state with certainty what the eventual outcome of these pending matters will be or what the eventual loss, fines or penalties related to each pending matter may be, such as for instance, in relation to the recent judgements rendered by the Spanish Supreme Court concerning revolving credit cards.

For example, the Issuer holds a 40% equity interest in Santander Consumer Bank S.A. (Poland), which is accounted for using the equity method in its consolidated financial statements as at 31 December 2024 and 31 December 2023. Consequently, the Issuer is exposed to legal risks related to the Swiss franc (CHF) mortgage portfolio of Santander Consumer Bank S.A. (Poland) and is exposed to significant litigation in connection with CHF indexed and CHF denominated loans in which it is facing claims that those loans or clauses included in them are abusive:

On 3 October 2019, the Court of Justice of the European Union (“CJEU”) resolved a preliminary ruling in relation to legal proceedings instituted against a bank unrelated to the Consumer Group, declaring abusive certain clauses in the loan contracts indexed to CHF. The CJEU left in the hands of the Polish courts the decision regarding whether the contract can subsist without the abusive clause, for which they must in turn decide if the effects of the cancellation of the contract are detrimental to the consumer. In case of subsistence of the contract, the court may only integrate it with supplementary provisions of national law and decide, according to them, the applicable rate.

In June 2023, the CJEU issued the judgement C-520/21, which states that the provisions of Directive 93/13/EEC must be interpreted as the consumer has the right to seek compensation from the credit institution going beyond reimbursement of the monthly instalments paid and the expenses paid provided that the objectives of Directive 93/13 and the principle of proportionality are observed, and the credit institution is not entitled to seek compensation from the consumer going beyond reimbursement of the capital paid together with the payment of default interest at the statutory rate from the date on which notice is served.

On 25 April 2024, the Polish Supreme Court issued a resolution regarding the CHF indexed and CHF denominated loans, in which it considered contract invalidation to be the primary consequence of finding abusive contractual clauses. At the same time, nine judges of the Polish Supreme Court declined to participate in the resolution raising questions of a constitutional nature and six judges submitted dissenting opinions mainly on issues related to the maintenance of the agreement after the elimination of abusive clauses

Santander Bank Polska, S.A. and Santander Consumer Bank Poland estimate legal risk using a model which considers different possible outcomes and regularly monitor court rulings on foreign currency loans to verify changes in case law practice, including the impact of the aforementioned Polish Supreme Court resolution on this case law. The Consumer Group is reaching settlements with customers who have taken legal action as well as with those who have not yet decided to file a lawsuit. The model used to calculate provisions for legal risks reflects such settlement scenarios.

As of 31 December 2024, Santander Consumer Bank Poland presents a portfolio of mortgages denominated in or indexed to CHF for an approximate amount of PLN 1,168 million (€273 million). On the same date, there is a provision in the amount of PLN 1,408 million (€329 million) to cover the CHF mortgage portfolio.

Provisions for other proceedings of a legal nature mainly include a class action brought by the Austrian Chamber of Labour in connection with fees collected by Santander Consumer Bank GmbH. Several expert opinions were obtained from a law firm regarding the implementation of the judgement and the bank's compensation obligations towards existing customers. An increase on the provisions arising from this action cannot be disregarded.

Provisions for other operational risks mainly include provisions for the risks arising from the business operations of the Group companies, corresponding to the most significant amounts as of 31 December 2024 to those registered with Santander Consumer Finance, S.A. for an amount of 29,820 thousand euros (30,604 thousand euros as of 31 December 2023), and Santander Consumer Bank, A.G. (Germany) for an amount of 6,116 thousand euros (8,079 thousand euros as of December 31, 2023). Santander Consumer Bank, GmbH (Austria) for an amount of 5,958 thousand euros 31 December 2023.

Provisions for restructuring include only expenses arising from restructuring processes carried out by the various entities of the Consumer Group. During 2023, and 2024 the Group has carried out different restructuring processes in some companies to adapt the business to current market conditions in these geographies. In these cases, the Group companies offer their employees the possibility of ceasing through offers of early retirement and incentive discounts. As at 31 December 2024, the outstanding balance for this item is mainly held by Santander Consumer Bank, A.G. (Germany), amounting to 30,475 thousand euros (9,600 thousand euros as of 31 December 2023); Santander Consumer Bank S.P.A. (Italy), amounting to 6,554 thousand euros (9,371 thousand euros as of 31 December 2023), and Compagnie Generale de Credit Aux particuliers - Credipar S.A. (France), amounting to 1,532 thousand euros (1,745 thousand euros as of 31 December 2023).

The Consumer Group's general policy consists of recording provisions for processes of a tax and legal nature in which the risk of loss is assessed as probable and no provisions are recorded when the risk of loss is possible or remote. The amounts to be provisioned are calculated in accordance with the best estimate of the amount necessary to settle the corresponding claim, based, among other things, on an individualized analysis of the facts and legal opinions of internal and external advisors or taking into consideration the historical average figure. of losses derived from claims of this nature. The final date for the outflow of resources that incorporate economic benefits for the Consumer Group depends on each of the obligations. In some cases, the obligations do not have a fixed settlement term and, in other cases, they depend on ongoing legal processes.

The Consumer Group is subject to extensive regulation and regulatory and governmental oversight which could adversely affect its business, operations and financial condition.

As a financial institution, the Consumer Group is subject to extensive regulation, which materially affects its businesses. In Spain and the other jurisdictions where the Consumer Group operates, there is continuing political, competitive and regulatory scrutiny of the banking industry, including banking practices, products, services and pricing policies. Political involvement in the regulatory process, in the behaviour and governance of the banking sector and in the major financial institutions in which the local governments have a direct financial interest and, in their products, and services, and the prices and other terms they apply to them, is likely to continue. Therefore, the statutes, regulations and policies to which the Consumer Group is subject may be therefore changed at any time. In addition, the interpretation and the application by regulators of the laws and regulations to which the Consumer Group is subject, may also change from time to time. Extensive legislation and regulation affecting the financial services industry has recently been adopted in regions that directly or indirectly affect the Consumer Group's business, including Spain, the European Union, and other jurisdictions, and further regulations are in the process of being implemented. The manner in which those laws and related regulations are applied to the operations of financial institutions is continuously evolving. Moreover, to the extent these regulations are implemented inconsistently in the various jurisdictions in which the Consumer Group operates, it may face higher compliance costs. Any legislative or regulatory actions and any required changes to its business operations resulting from such legislation and regulations, as well as any deficiencies in its compliance with such legislation and regulation, could result in significant loss of revenue, limit its ability to pursue business opportunities in which the Consumer Group might otherwise consider engaging and limit the Consumer Group's ability to provide certain products and services, affect the value of assets that it holds, require the Consumer Group to increase its prices and therefore reduce demand for its products, impose additional compliance and other costs on the Consumer Group or otherwise adversely affect its businesses.

In particular, legislative or regulatory actions resulting in enhanced prudential standards, in particular with respect to capital and liquidity, could impose a significant regulatory burden on the Issuer or on its Issuer subsidiaries and could limit the Issuer's subsidiaries' ability to distribute capital and liquidity to the Issuer, thereby negatively impacting the Issuer. Future liquidity standards could require the Issuer to maintain a greater proportion of its assets in highly-liquid but lower-yielding financial instruments, which would negatively affect its net interest margin. Moreover, the regulatory and supervisory authorities periodically review the Issuer's allowance for its loan losses.

Such regulators and supervisors may recommend the Issuer to increase its allowance for loan losses or to recognise further losses. Any such additional provisions for loan losses, as recommended by these regulatory and supervisory agencies, whose views may differ from those of the Issuer's management, could have an adverse effect on the Issuer's earnings and financial condition. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that future changes in regulations or in their interpretation or application will not adversely affect the Consumer Group.

The wide range of regulations, actions and proposals which most significantly affect the Consumer Group, or which could most significantly affect the Consumer Group in the future, relate to capital requirements, funding and liquidity, and development of a fiscal and banking union in the EU, which are discussed in further detail below. These and other regulatory reforms adopted or proposed in the wake of the financial crisis have increased and may continue to materially increase the Consumer Group's operating costs and negatively impact its business model. Furthermore, regulatory authorities have substantial discretion in how to regulate banks, and this discretion, and the means available to the regulators, have been increasing during recent years. Regulation may be imposed on an ad hoc basis by governments and regulators in response to a crisis.

In addition, on 18 April 2023, the European Commission adopted a legislative package proposal to adjust and strengthen the European Union's existing bank crisis management and deposit insurance framework (the "CMDI Proposal"). The package implies the review of the BRRD and SRM Regulation frameworks as well as a separate legislative proposal to amend Directive 2014/49/EU, of 16 April, on deposit guarantee schemes ("Directive 2014/49"), all with the aim of preserving financial stability, protecting taxpayers' money and providing better protection for depositors (including new rules that foresee that all deposits relative to ordinary unsecured claims are preferred). However, the CMDI Proposal is subject to further discussion by the European Parliament and the Council and, as of the date of this Information Memorandum, there is a high degree of uncertainty with regards to the proposed adjustments and when they will be finally implemented in the European Union. Therefore, the exact impact of these adjustments and the potential effects on the Issuer cannot be assessed yet.

In addition, the volume, granularity, frequency and scale of regulatory and other reporting requirements necessitate a clear data strategy to enable consistent data aggregation, reporting and management. Inadequate management information systems or processes, including those relating to risk data aggregation and risk reporting, could lead to a failure to meet regulatory reporting requirements or other internal or external information demands and the Consumer Group may face supervisory measures as a result. The main regulations and regulatory and governmental oversight that can adversely impact the Consumer Group include but are not limited to the items below.

Increasingly stricter capital regulations and potential requirements could have an impact on the functioning of the Consumer Group and its businesses.

Increasingly onerous capital requirements constitute one of the Issuer's main regulatory challenges. Increasing capital requirements may adversely affect the Issuer's profitability and create regulatory risk associated with the possibility of failure to maintain required capital levels.

In 2011, the framework known as Basel III, which is a full set of reform measures to strengthen the regulation, supervision and risk management of the banking sector, was introduced (see "Regulation—Capital, liquidity and funding requirements"). This aimed to boost the banking sector's ability to absorb impacts caused by financial and economic stress, improve risk management and corporate governance, and improve banking transparency and disclosures. Concerning capital, Basel III redefines available capital at financial institutions (including new deductions and raising the requirements for eligible equity Notes), tightens the minimum capital requirements, compels financial institutions to operate permanently with surplus capital (capital "buffers"), and includes new requirements for the risks considered.

The amendments to the solvency requirements of credit institutions and various transparency regulations, from the practical standpoint, grant priority to high-quality capital (Common Equity Tier 1 or "CET1"), introducing stricter eligibility criteria and more stringent ratios, in a bid to guarantee higher standards of capital adequacy in the financial sector.

The ECB is required under Council Regulation (EU) No 1024/2013 of 15 October 2013 conferring specific tasks on the ECB concerning policies relating to the prudential supervision of credit institutions to carry out a supervisory review and evaluation process (the “SREP”) at least on an annual basis.

In connection with this, the Issuer was informed by the ECB on 10 December 2024 of its decision regarding prudential minimum capital requirements as of 1 January 2025, following the results of SREP (the “2024 SREP Decision”). The 2024 SREP Decision required the Issuer to maintain a CET1 capital ratio of at least 8.54% on a consolidated basis. This 8.54% CET1 capital requirement includes: the minimum Pillar 1 requirement (4.5%); the Pillar 2 requirement (0.84%); the capital conservation buffer (2.5%); and the counter-cyclical buffer (around 0.70%).

As of December 2024, the Issuer’s total capital ratio was 17.17% on a consolidated basis (fully loaded) and the Issuer’s CET1 capital ratio was 12.71% on a consolidated basis (fully loaded) (data calculated without using the IFRS 9 transitional arrangements, since the Issuer incorporated the full day-1 impact on IFRS9 adoption).

In May 2025, the Single Resolution Board (“SRB”) communicated the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities (“MREL”) for the Issuer at a subconsolidated level. This MREL requirement has been set at 20.20% of total risk exposure amount (“TREA”) and 5.92% of leverage ratio requirement (“LRE”), that shall be met at all times from the notification date. In addition, it should be noted that CET1 used to meet MREL-TREA cannot be used to meet the CBR (Article 128 CRDV). CBR is the Combined Buffer Requirement (CCB, CCyB and systemic buffers).

The Issuer is part of the resolution group headed by Banco Santander, S.A., which is the resolution entity of the resolution group to which the Issuer belongs. In this regard, there can be no assurance that the application of the existing regulatory requirements, standards or recommendations will not require the Issuer to issue additional securities that qualify as own funds or eligible liabilities, to maintain a greater proportion of its assets in highly-liquid but lower-yielding financial instruments, to liquidate assets, to curtail business or to take any other actions, any of which may have a material adverse effect on the Consumer Group’s business, results of operations and/or financial position.

Any failure by the Consumer Group to maintain its Pillar 1 minimum regulatory capital ratios and any Pillar 2 additional capital requirements could result in administrative actions or sanctions (including restrictions on Discretionary Payments, as defined in section “Regulation – EU fiscal and banking union”), which, in turn, may have a material adverse impact on the Consumer Group’s results of operations.

Moreover, it should not be disregarded that new and more demanding additional regulatory requirements, standards or recommendations may be applied in the future.

All the applicable regulations and the approval of any other regulatory requirements could have an adverse effect on the Consumer Group’s activities and operations. Therefore, these regulations could have a material adverse effect on the Consumer Group’s business, results of operations and/or financial position.

See “Regulation—Capital, liquidity and funding requirements” for additional information.

The Consumer Group is subject to potential action by any of its regulators or supervisors, particularly in response to customer complaints.

As noted above, the business and operations of the Consumer Group are subject to increasingly significant rules and regulations that are required to conduct banking and financial services business. These apply to business operations, affect financial returns, include reserve and reporting requirements, and prudential and conduct of business regulations. These requirements are set by the relevant central banks and regulatory authorities that authorize, regulate and supervise the Consumer Group in the jurisdictions in which it operates.

In their supervisory roles, the regulators seek to maintain the safety and soundness of financial institutions with the aim of strengthening the protection of customers and the financial system. The supervisors’ continuing supervision of financial institutions is conducted through a variety of regulatory tools, including the collection of information by way of prudential returns, reports obtained from skilled persons, visits to firms and regular meetings with management to discuss issues such as performance, risk management and strategy. In general, these regulators have a more outcome-focused regulatory approach that involves more proactive enforcement and more punitive penalties for infringement. As a result, the Consumer Group faces increased supervisory scrutiny (resulting in increasing internal compliance costs and supervision fees), and in the event of a breach of its regulatory obligations the Consumer Group is likely to face more stringent regulatory fines. Some of the regulators have been focusing intently on consumer protection and on conduct risk and could continue to do so. This has included a focus on the design and operation of products, the behaviour of customers and the operation of markets. Such a focus could result, for example, in usury regulation that could restrict the ability of the Consumer Group to charge certain levels of interest in credit transactions or in regulation that would prevent the Consumer Group from bundling products that it offers to its customers. Some of the laws in the relevant jurisdictions in which the Consumer Group operates, give the regulators the power to make temporary product intervention rules either to improve a firm's systems and controls in relation to product design, product management and implementation, or to address problems identified with financial products. These problems may potentially cause significant detriment to consumers because of certain product features or governance flaws or distribution strategies. Such rules may prevent institutions from entering into product agreements with customers until such problems have been solved. Some of the regulatory regimes in the relevant jurisdictions in which the Consumer Group operates, requires the Consumer Group to be in compliance across all aspects of its business, including the training, authorisation and supervision of personnel, systems, processes and documentation. If it fails to comply with the relevant regulations, there would be a risk of an adverse impact on its business from sanctions, fines or other actions imposed by the regulatory authorities. Customers of financial services institutions, including Consumer Group's customers, may seek redress if they consider that they have suffered loss as a result of the mis-selling of a particular product, or through incorrect application of the terms and conditions of a particular product. Given the inherent unpredictability of litigation and the evolution of judgements by the relevant authorities, it is possible that an adverse outcome in some matters could harm the reputation of the Consumer Group or have a material adverse effect on its operating results, financial condition and prospects arising from any penalties imposed or compensation awarded, together with the costs of defending such an action, thereby reducing its profitability.

The Consumer Group is subject to review by tax authorities, and an incorrect interpretation of tax laws and regulations by the Consumer Group may have a material adverse effect on it.

The preparation of the tax returns of the Consumer Group requires the use of estimates and interpretations of complex tax laws and regulations and is subject to review by tax authorities. The Consumer Group is subject to the income tax laws of Spain and the other jurisdictions in which it operates. These tax laws are complex and subject to different interpretations by the taxpayer and relevant governmental tax authorities, which are sometimes subject to prolonged evaluation periods until a final resolution is reached. In establishing a provision for income tax expense and filing returns, the Consumer Group must make judgements and interpretations about the application of these inherently complex tax laws. If the judgement, estimates and assumptions the Consumer Group uses in preparing its tax returns are subsequently found to be incorrect, there could be a material adverse effect on Consumer Group's results of operations. In some jurisdictions, the interpretations of the tax authorities are unpredictable and frequently involve litigation, which introduces further uncertainty and risk as to tax expense.

The Consumer Group may not be able to detect or prevent money laundering and other financial crime activities fully or on a timely basis, which could expose it to additional liability and could have a material adverse effect on it.

The Consumer Group is required to comply with applicable anti-money laundering ("AML"), anti-terrorism, anti-bribery and corruption, sanctions and other laws and regulations applicable to it. These laws and regulations require the Consumer Group, among other things, to conduct full customer due diligence (including sanctions and politically-exposed person screening), keep its customer, account and transaction information up to date and have implemented financial crime policies and procedures detailing what is required from those responsible. The Consumer Group is also required to conduct AML training for its employees and to report suspicious transactions and activity to appropriate law enforcement following full investigation by Consumer Group's local AML team.

Financial crime has become the subject of enhanced regulatory scrutiny and supervision by regulators globally. AML, antiterrorism, anti-bribery and corruption and sanctions laws and regulations are increasingly complex and detailed. Key standard-setting and regulatory bodies continue to provide guidelines to strengthen the interaction and cooperation between prudential and AML or combating the financing of terrorism ("CFT") supervisors. Compliance with these laws and regulations requires automated systems, sophisticated monitoring and skilled compliance personnel.

The Consumer Group maintains updated policies and procedures aimed at detecting and preventing the use of its banking network for money laundering and other financial crime related activities. However, emerging technologies, such as cryptocurrencies and innovative payment methods, could limit the Consumer Group's ability to track the movement of funds. The ability of the Consumer Group to comply with the legal requirements depends on its capacity to maintain detection and reporting capabilities and reduce variation in control processes and oversight accountability. These require implementation and embedding within its business effective controls and monitoring, which in turn requires on-going changes to systems and operational activities. Financial crime is continually evolving and, as noted, is subject to increasingly stringent regulatory oversight and focus. This requires proactive and adaptable responses from the Consumer Group so that the Consumer Group is able to deter threats and criminality effectively.

If the Consumer Group is unable to fully comply with applicable laws, regulations and expectations, regulators and relevant law enforcement agencies have the ability and authority to impose significant fines and other penalties on the Consumer Group, including requiring a complete review of its business systems, day-to-day supervision by external consultants and ultimately the revocation of Consumer Group's banking license.

The reputational damage to the business of the Consumer Group and global brand would be severe if it were found to have breached AML, anti-terrorism, anti-bribery and corruption or sanctions requirements. Its reputation could also suffer if the Consumer Group is unable to protect its customers' bank products and services from being used by criminals for illegal or improper purposes.

Any such risks could have a material adverse effect on the Consumer Group's operating results, financial condition and prospects.

Changes in taxes and other assessments may adversely affect the Consumer Group.

The legislatures and tax authorities in the tax jurisdictions in which the Consumer Group operates regularly enact reforms to the tax and other assessment regimes to which it and its customers are subject to. Such reforms include changes in tax rates and, occasionally, enactment of temporary taxes, the proceeds of which are earmarked for designated governmental purposes.

The effects of these changes and any other changes that result from the enactment of additional tax reforms cannot be quantified and there can be no assurance that any such reforms would not have an adverse effect upon the business of the Consumer Group.

Liquidity and Funding Risks

Liquidity and Funding Risks are inherent in the Consumer Group's business and could have a material adverse effect on the Consumer Group.

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Consumer Group either does not have available sufficient financial resources to meet its obligations as they fall due or can secure them only at excessive cost. This risk is inherent in any retail and commercial banking business and can be heightened by a number of enterprise-specific factors, including over-reliance on a particular source of funding, changes in credit ratings or market-wide phenomena such as market dislocation. While the Consumer Group has in place liquidity management processes to identify, assess, mitigate and control these risks, unforeseen systemic market factors make it difficult to eliminate completely these risks. Constraints in the supply of liquidity, including in inter-bank lending, could materially and adversely affect the cost of funding the Consumer Group's business, and extreme liquidity constraints may affect the Consumer Group's current operations and its ability to fulfil regulatory liquidity requirements, as well as limit growth possibilities.

The Consumer Group's cost of obtaining funding is directly related to prevailing interest rates and to its credit spreads. Credit spreads are defined as the excess return offered by corporate bonds, in this case those of the Consumer Group, compared to Treasury bonds of the same maturity. Increases in interest rates and/or in the Consumer Group's credit spreads can significantly increase the cost of its funding. For example, throughout 2022 and 2023 the ECB, the Bank of England, the Federal Reserve and other central banks increased interest rates to contain inflation and it was not until mid-2024 that they started to decrease interest rates. Credit spreads are market-driven and may be influenced by market perceptions of the Consumer Group's creditworthiness. Changes to interest rates and the Consumer Group's credit spreads occur continuously and may be unpredictable and highly volatile.

The Consumer Group relies, and will continue to rely on retail deposits as one of the main sources to fund lending activities. The ongoing availability of this type of funding is directly related to its solvency and to the success of its policies, and it is also sensitive to a variety of factors beyond the Consumer Group's control, such as general economic conditions and the confidence of retail depositors in the economy and in the financial services industry, and the availability and extent of deposit guarantees, as well as competition for deposits with other banks or neobanks with other products, such as mutual funds. Any of these factors could lead to significant withdrawals of retail deposits in a short period of time, thereby reducing the Consumer Group's ability to access retail deposit funding on appropriate terms, or at all, in the future. If these circumstances were to arise, this could have a material adverse effect on the Consumer Group's operating results, financial condition, and prospects.

The Consumer Group anticipates that its customers will continue, in the near future, to make deposits (particularly demand deposits and short-term time deposits), and the Consumer Group intends to maintain its emphasis on the use of banking deposits as a source of funds. The short-term nature of some deposits could cause liquidity problems for the Consumer Group in the future if deposits are not made in the volumes that the Consumer Group expects or are not renewed. If a substantial number of its depositors withdraw their demand deposits or do not roll over their time deposits upon maturity, the Consumer Group may be materially and adversely affected.

The Consumer Group continues acquiring a solid base of retail customer deposits that allows the Consumer Group to strengthen its funding sources, providing flexibility in case of facing financing difficulties. Before 2012 customer deposits was a residual funding source (in terms of geographies), located only in Germany and Poland. From 2013, the Consumer Group started a global deposits project to acquire retail customer deposits with an efficient model and at low cost, increasing its presence in other European countries and widening its geographic diversification.

Central banks took extraordinary measures to increase liquidity in the financial markets as a response to the financial crisis and the Covid-19 crisis. Such facilities are still in place and have been progressively reduced to amounts that are not material for SCF (€ 3.1Bn as of 31 March 2024) and the plan envisages amortisation to occur primarily within September 2024, with €0.4Bn left to be amortised in December 2024.

Additionally, the activities of the Consumer Group could be adversely impacted by liquidity tensions arising from generalised drawdowns of committed credit lines by the customers of the Consumer Group.

The Issuer cannot assure that in the event of a sudden or unexpected shortage of funds in the banking system, the Consumer Group will be able to maintain levels of funding without incurring high funding costs, a reduction in the term of funding Notes or the liquidation of certain assets. If this were to happen, the Consumer Group could be materially adversely affected.

Finally, the implementation of internationally accepted liquidity ratios might require changes in business practices that affect the profitability of the Consumer Group. The liquidity coverage ratio ("LCR") measures the Consumer Group's liquidity risk profile, ensuring that it has encumbered high-quality assets that can be easily and immediately liquid in the financial markets, to cover expected net cash outflows over a 30-day liquidity stress period, without being susceptible to a significant loss of value. At 31 December 2024, the LCR ratio of the Consumer Group was 263%. The net stable funding ratio ("NSFR") provides a sustainable maturity structure of assets and liabilities such that banks maintain a stable funding profile in relation to their activities. At the end of 2024, the NSFR ratio of the Consumer Group stood at 116%.

Credit, market and liquidity risk may have an adverse effect on the credit ratings of the Consumer Group and its cost of funds. Any downgrade in the credit rating of the Consumer Group would likely increase its cost of funding, require the Consumer Group to post additional collateral or take other actions under some of its derivative and other contracts and adversely affect its interest margins and results of operations.

Credit ratings affect the cost and other terms upon which the Consumer Group is able to obtain funding. Rating agencies regularly evaluate the Consumer Group, and their ratings of its debt are based on internal methodologies dependent on a number of factors, including its financial strength and conditions affecting the financial services industry. In addition, due to the methodology of the main rating agencies, the Consumer Group's credit rating is affected by the rating of Spanish sovereign debt. The Consumer Group credit rating is in most cases above Spain's sovereign debt rating; however, if Spain's rating is downgraded, the Consumer Group's credit rating would also likely be downgraded by an equivalent amount.

Any downgrade in the Consumer Group's debt credit ratings would likely increase its borrowing costs and require the Consumer Group to post additional collateral or take other actions under some of its derivative and other contracts and could limit its access to capital markets and adversely affect the Consumer Group's commercial business. For example, a ratings downgrade could adversely affect the Consumer Group's ability to sell or market some of its products, engage in certain longer-term and derivatives transactions and retain its customers, particularly customers who need a minimum rating threshold in order to invest. In addition, under the terms of certain of the Consumer Group's derivative contracts and other financial commitments, it may be required to maintain a minimum credit rating or terminate such contracts or require the posting of collateral. Any of these results of a ratings downgrade could reduce the Consumer Group's liquidity and have an adverse effect on the Consumer Group, including its operating results and financial condition.

The Issuer has the following ratings by the following major rating agencies:

Rating agency	Long term	Short term	Last report date	Outlook
Fitch	A (Senior A+)	F1	14 February 2025	Stable
Moody's	A2	P1	3 December 2024	Positive
S&P	A	A-1	1 December 2023	Stable

While certain potential impacts of these downgrades are contractual and quantifiable, the full consequences of a credit rating downgrade are inherently uncertain, as they depend upon numerous dynamic, complex and inter-related factors and assumptions, including market conditions at the time of any downgrade, whether any downgrade of the Consumer Group's long-term credit rating precipitates downgrades to the Consumer Group's short-term credit rating, and assumptions about the potential behaviours of various customers, investors and counterparties. Actual outflows could be higher or lower than the preceding hypothetical examples, depending upon certain factors including which credit rating agency downgrades the Consumer Group's credit rating, any management or restructuring actions that could be taken to reduce cash outflows and the potential liquidity impact from loss of unsecured funding (such as from money market funds) or loss of secured funding capacity. Although unsecured and secured funding stresses are included in the Consumer Group's stress testing scenarios and a portion of the Consumer Group's total liquid assets is held against these risks, a credit rating downgrade could still have a material adverse effect on the Consumer Group.

In addition, if the Consumer Group were required to cancel its derivatives contracts with certain counterparties and were unable to replace such contracts, the Consumer Group's market risk profile could be altered.

There can be no assurance that the rating agencies will maintain the current ratings or outlooks. In general, the future evolution of the Consumer Group's ratings is linked, to a large extent, to the potential impact of macroeconomic outlook (including as a result of the continuance or escalation of the wars in Ukraine and the Middle East and other potential adverse crisis scenario), on the asset quality, profitability and capital of the Consumer Group. Failure to maintain favourable ratings and outlooks could increase the Consumer Group's cost of funding and adversely affect interest margins, which could have a material adverse effect on the Consumer Group.

Credit risk

The development of non-performing assets and the cost of credit reflect the impact of the worsening economic environment, mitigated by prudent risk management, which has generally kept these figures lower than those of our competitors in recent years. As a result, Santander Consumer Finance maintains an adequate level of coverage to face the expected loss of the credit quality of the loan portfolios it manages.

Risks arising from changes in credit quality and the recoverability of loans and amounts due from counterparties are inherent to a wide range of the businesses of the Consumer Group.

Non-performing or low credit quality loans have in the past negatively impacted its results of operations and could do so in the future. In particular, the amount of its reported non-performing loans ("NPL") may increase in the future as a result of growth in the Consumer Group's total loan portfolio, including as a result of loan portfolios that the Consumer Group may acquire in the future (the credit quality of which may turn out to be worse than it had anticipated), or factors beyond the Consumer Group's control, such as adverse changes in the credit quality of the Consumer Group's borrowers and counterparties or a general deterioration in economic conditions in the regions where the Consumer Group operates or in global economic and political conditions, including as a result of the continuance or escalation of the wars in Ukraine and in the Middle East.

The loan loss reserves of the Consumer Group are based on its current assessment and expectations concerning various factors affecting the quality of its loan portfolio. These factors include, among others, the financial condition of the borrowers of the Consumer Group, repayment capabilities and repayment intentions, the realizable value of any collateral, the prospects for support from any guarantor, government macroeconomic policies, interest rates and the legal and regulatory environment. Because many of these factors are beyond the Consumer Group's control and there is no infallible method for predicting loan and credit losses, the Consumer Group cannot assure that the Consumer Group's current or future loan loss reserves will be sufficient to cover actual losses. If its assessment of and expectations concerning the above-mentioned factors differ from actual developments, if the quality of its total loan portfolio deteriorates, for any reason, or if the future actual losses exceed its estimates of expected losses, The Consumer Group may be required to increase its loan loss reserves, which may adversely affect the Consumer Group.

Additionally, in calculating the Consumer Group's loan loss reserves, the Consumer Group employs qualitative tools and statistical models which may not be reliable in all circumstances, and which are dependent upon data that may not be complete. For further details regarding the risk management policies of the Consumer Group, see risk factor entitled 'Failure to successfully implement and continue to improve the risk management policies of the Consumer Group, procedures and methods, including its credit risk management system, could materially and adversely affect it, and the Consumer Group may be exposed to unidentified or unanticipated risks'.

The loan portfolio of the Consumer Group is concentrated in continental Europe, particularly in Germany, Spain and Nordics (Norway, Sweden, Finland and Denmark). On 31 December 2024, Germany Group & Austria accounted for the 37.79% of the Consumer Group's total loan portfolio, Spain¹ & Portugal accounted for the 13.33% and Nordics accounted for 13.13%. Accordingly, the recoverability of these loan portfolios in particular, and the Consumer Group's ability to increase the amount of loans outstanding and the Consumer Group's results of operations and financial condition in general, are dependent to a significant extent on the level of economic activity in continental Europe.

As of December 2024, the default rate was 2.62%, based on controlled risk, the measures applied in the units and the Santander Consumer Finance risk appetite. Doubtful loans (3,195 million euros) are distributed by units as follows: Nordics represents 16% of the total, Spain and Portugal 22%, Germany and Austria 41%, France 7% and Italy 9%. Regarding the type of portfolio, Auto represents 49% of the total, Direct 34%, Cards 6%, Stock Finance 2%, Mortgages 1%, Durables 3% and others 5%. Despite the slightly positive economic growth outlook in Europe, driven by declining inflation and interest rates from mid-year onwards, the non-performing loan ratio has closed slightly above the December 2023 data (47 basis points)

At 31 December 2024, the geographic spread of the Consumer Group's total customer loans and advances (€121,482 million) portfolio was as follows:

	2024 Financial year (audited)	% of total activity	2023 Financial year (audited)	Variation 2024/2023
	(millions of euro)	(%)	(millions of euro)	(%)

¹ Since 31 December 2021, the Spanish business incorporated the branches in the Netherlands, Belgium, Greece and Portugal.

As a result, if the economies of Europe in which the Consumer Group operates fall into recession, this could have a material adverse effect on the Banco Santander Group's loan portfolio and, consequently, its financial position, cash flow and operating profit.

The value of the collateral securing the loans of the Consumer Group may not be sufficient, and the Consumer Group may be unable to realise the full value of the collateral securing its loan portfolio.

The value of the collateral securing the loan portfolio of the Consumer Group may fluctuate or decline due to factors beyond the Consumer Group's control, including as a result of macroeconomic factors affecting Europe or the continuance or escalation of the wars in Ukraine and the Middle East. The value of the collateral securing its loan portfolio may be adversely affected by force majeure events, such as natural disasters, which could impair the asset quality of the Consumer Group's loan portfolio and have an adverse impact on the economy of the affected region. The Consumer Group may also not have sufficiently recent information on the value of collateral, which may result in an inaccurate assessment for impairment losses of the Consumer Group's loans secured by such collateral. If any of the above were to occur, the Consumer Group may need to make additional provisions to cover actual impairment losses of its loans, which may materially and adversely affect the Consumer Group's results of operations and financial condition.

The Consumer Group's loans and advances to customers which have collateral are likely to be affected by an individual or widespread decrease in the value of these guarantees.

The Consumer Group is subject to counterparty risk in its banking business.

The Consumer Group is exposed to counterparty risk in addition to credit risks associated with lending activities. Counterparty risk may arise from, for example, investing in securities of third parties, entering into derivative contracts under which counterparties have obligations to make payments to the Consumer Group or executing securities, futures, currency or commodity trades from proprietary trading activities that fail to settle at the required time due to non-delivery by the counterparty or systems failure by clearing agents, clearing houses or other financial intermediaries.

The Consumer Group routinely transacts with counterparties in the financial services industry, including brokers and dealers, commercial banks, investment banks, mutual funds, hedge funds and other institutional clients. Defaults by, and even rumours or questions about the solvency of, certain financial institutions and the financial services industry generally have led to market-wide liquidity problems and could lead to losses or defaults by other institutions. Many of the routine transactions the Consumer Group enters into expose it to significant credit risk in the event of default by one of its significant counterparties.

Market risk

The Consumer Group's financial results are constantly exposed to market risk. The Consumer Group is subject to fluctuations in interest rates and other market variables, which may materially and adversely affect the Consumer Group and its profitability.

Even though the Consumer Group does not have direct exposures to Russian, Ukrainian or Middle Eastern geographies, the impact of wars and sanctions on global markets, macroeconomic conditions globally, and other potential future geopolitical tensions, may materially and adversely affect the Consumer Group and its banking book, given the high market volatility and the potential adverse scenarios over the interest rates and inflation. The current global tariff turbulence may also lead to market volatility and negatively impact future GDP growth worldwide, which could trigger rate changes by central banks and affect the operating results, financial condition and prospects of the Units where the Consumer Group operates.

Although the Consumer Group has no trading book and the market risk exposures have structural purposes, changes in market interest rates could affect the interest rates received on interest earning assets in a different manner to that paid on interest bearing liabilities. This difference could result in an increase in interest expenses relative to interest income leading to a reduction in its net interest income. Rising interest rates may also bring about an increase in the non-performing loan portfolio.

Market risk includes unpredictable risks related to periods in which the market does not efficiently manage its prices, for example in market disruptions or shocks.

Interest rates are sensitive to many factors beyond the Consumer Group control, including increased regulation of the financial sector, monetary policies, domestic and international economic and political conditions and other factors.

Variations in the interest income / (charges) and the Economic Value of the Consumer Group.

At the end of December 2024, risk on net interest income over a one year period, measured as sensitivity to parallel changes in the worst-case scenario of ± 100 basis points, was concentrated on the euro's curve with €54.9 million, which represents 1.9% of the net interest income budgeted, and it is far from the management limit in place.

The risk on economic value of equity of the Consumer Group, measured as sensitivity to parallel changes in the worst-case scenario of ± 100 basis points, was concentrated on the euro's curve with €288 million, which represents 2.53% of CET1, and it is far from the management limit in place.

Other business risks

The Consumer Group may have to recognise goodwill impairments recognised for its acquired businesses.

The Consumer Group has made business acquisitions in recent years and may make further acquisitions in the future. It is possible that the goodwill which has been attributed, or may be attributed, to these businesses may have to be written down if the Consumer Group's valuation assumptions are required to be reassessed as a result of any deterioration in their underlying profitability, asset quality and other relevant matters. Impairment testing in respect of goodwill is performed annually, or more frequently if there are impairment indicators present, and comprises a comparison of the carrying amount of the cash-generating unit with its recoverable amount.

The Consumer Group depends in part upon dividends and other funds from subsidiaries.

Some of the Consumer Group's operations are conducted through its subsidiaries. As a result, the Consumer Group's ability to pay dividends, to the extent it decides to do so, depends in part on the ability of its subsidiaries to generate earnings and to pay dividends to the Consumer Group. Payment of dividends, distributions and advances by the Consumer Group's subsidiaries will be contingent upon their earnings and business considerations and is or may be limited by legal, regulatory and contractual restrictions. Additionally, the Consumer Group's right to receive any assets of any of its subsidiaries as an equity holder of such subsidiaries upon their liquidation or reorganisation, will be effectively subordinated to the claims of the Consumer Group's subsidiaries' creditors, including trade creditors, including trade creditors. The Consumer Group also has to comply with increased capital requirements, which could result in the imposition of restrictions or prohibitions on discretionary payments including the payment of dividends and other distributions to the Consumer Group by its subsidiaries.

During 2024, Santander Consumer has paid dividends for EUR 499.96 million (EUR 607.5 million in 2023).

Increased competition, including from non-traditional providers of banking services such as financial technology providers, and industry consolidation may adversely affect the Consumer Group's operational results.

The Consumer Group faces substantial competition in all parts of its business, including in payments, in originating loans and in attracting deposits. The competition in originating loans comes principally from other domestic and foreign banks, mortgage banking companies, consumer finance companies, insurance companies and other lenders and purchasers of loans.

In addition, there has been a trend towards consolidation in the banking industry, which has created larger and stronger banks with which the Consumer Group must now compete. There can be no assurance that this increased competition will not adversely affect its growth prospects, and therefore its operations. The Consumer Group also face competition from non-bank competitors, such as brokerage companies, department stores (for some credit products), leasing and factoring companies, mutual fund and pension fund management companies and insurance companies.

Non-traditional providers of banking services, such as internet-based e-commerce providers, mobile telephone companies and internet search engines, may offer and/or increase their offerings of financial products and services directly to customers. These non-traditional providers of banking services currently have an advantage over traditional providers because they are not subject to banking regulation. Several of these competitors may have long operating histories, large customer bases, strong brand recognition and significant financial, marketing and other resources. They may adopt more aggressive pricing and rates and devote more resources to technology, infrastructure and marketing.

Moreover, the widespread adoption of new technologies, including distributed ledger, AI and/or biometrics, to provide services such as cryptocurrencies and payments, could require substantial expenditures to modify or adapt its existing products and services as it continues to grow the Consumer Group's internet and mobile banking capabilities and could entail new direct risks (including financial and non-financial risks) and indirect risks related to loss of business opportunities. Its customers may choose to conduct business or offer products in areas that may be considered speculative or risky. Further growth of such new technologies and mobile banking platforms may necessitate changes to its retail distribution strategy, which may include restructuring its work force and reforming its retail distribution channel. Its failure to implement such changes to its distribution strategy swiftly and effectively could have an adverse effect on the Consumer Group's competitive position.

In particular, the Consumer Group has the challenge of competing in an environment in which customer relations are based on access to digital data and interactions. This access is increasingly dominated by digital platforms, which are already eroding the Consumer Group's results in very significant markets such as payments. These platforms can use their advantage to access data to compete with the Consumer Group in other markets and may reduce the Consumer Group's operations and margins in its core businesses, such as loans or wealth management. The alliances that its competitors are beginning to engage with Bigtechs may make it more difficult to compete successfully with them and could have an adverse effect on the Consumer Group.

Increasing competition could also require that the Consumer Group increases its rates offered on deposits or lower the rates the Consumer Group charge on loans, which could also have a material adverse effect on the Consumer Group, including its profitability. It may also negatively affect the Consumer Group's business results and prospects by, among other things, limiting its ability to increase its customer base and expand its operations and increasing competition for investment opportunities.

If the Consumer Group customer service levels were perceived by the market to be materially below those of its competitor financial institutions, it could lose existing and potential business. If the Consumer Group is not successful in retaining and strengthening customer relationships with manufacturers, dealers and retailers, as well as end consumers, the Consumer Group may lose market share, incur losses on some or all of its activities or fail to attract new deposits or retain existing deposits, which could have a material adverse effect on its operating results, financial condition and prospects.

The Consumer Group's recent and future acquisitions may not be successful and may be disruptive to the Consumer Group's business.

The Consumer Group has historically acquired controlling interests in various companies and has engaged in other strategic partnerships. In addition, the Consumer Group may consider other strategic acquisitions and partnerships from time to time. There can be no assurances that the Consumer Group will be successful in its plans regarding the operation of past or future acquisitions and strategic partnerships.

The Consumer Group can give no assurance that its acquisition and partnership activities will perform in accordance with the Consumer Group's expectations. The Consumer Group bases its assessment of potential acquisitions and partnerships on limited and potentially inexact information and on assumptions with respect to operations, profitability and other matters that may prove to be incorrect. In addition, it is possible that the integration process of the Consumer Group's recent (and any future) acquisitions could take longer or be more costly than anticipated or could result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of each Consumer Group company's ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect the ability of each company within the Consumer Group to maintain relationships with clients, customers or employees. If the Consumer Group takes longer than anticipated or is not able to integrate the aforementioned businesses, the anticipated benefits of the Consumer Group's recent acquisitions may not be realised fully or at all or may take longer than expected to realise.

The Consumer Group business could be negatively impacted if it is unsuccessful in developing and maintaining relationships with automobile dealerships, manufacturers and other retailers.

The Consumer Group ability to acquire loans is reliant on its relationships with automotive dealers. In particular, its automotive finance operations depend in large part upon its ability to establish and maintain relationships with reputable automotive dealers that originate loans at the point-of-sale, which the Consumer Group subsequently purchase. Although the Consumer Group typically have exclusive relationships with automotive manufacturers, its captive finance agreements with these manufacturers typically have terms of only three to five years, and the Consumer Group cannot guarantee that it will be able to renew these agreements at the end of their terms or that any future captive finance agreements will contain similar exclusivity terms.

An important part of its consumer and card business relies on establishing and maintaining cooperation agreements with retailers. While the Consumer Group have been serving a majority of its retailers for many years, and while a majority of its cooperation agreements with its retailers are exclusive, there can be no assurance that the Consumer Group will be able to maintain its relationships with all its current retailers.

Negative changes in the business of the manufacturers or retailers with which the Issuer has strategic relationships could adversely affect the business of the Consumer Group.

A significant adverse change in automotive manufacturers' business, including (i) significant adverse changes in their respective liquidity position and access to the capital markets, (ii) the production or sale of their vehicles (including the effects of any product recalls), (iii) the quality or resale value of their vehicles, (iv) the use of marketing incentives, (v) their relationships with their key suppliers, or (vi) their respective relationships with labour unions and other factors impacting automotive manufacturers or their employees could have a material adverse effect on our profitability and financial condition. As a result of the recent economic downturn and contraction of credit to both dealers and their customers, there was an increase in dealership closures and our existing dealer base experienced decreased sales and loan volume in the past and may experience decreased sales and loan volume in the future, which may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, and financial condition.

There is no assurance that the global automotive market, or our other automotive manufacturer partners' share of that market, will not suffer downturns in the future, and any negative impact could in turn have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, and financial position. Similarly, our ability to generate new loans and the interest and fees and other income associated with them is dependent upon sales of merchandise and services by our retail partners. Our retail partners' sales may decrease or may not increase as the Consumer Group anticipates for various reasons, some of which are in the retail partners' control and some of which are not. For example, retail partner sales may be adversely affected by macroeconomic conditions having a national, regional or more local effect on consumer spending, business conditions affecting a particular partner or industry, or catastrophes affecting broad or more discrete geographic areas. If our retail partners' sales decline for any reason, it generally results in lower credit sales, and therefore lower loan volume and associated interest and fees and other income for the Consumer Group from their customers. In addition, if a retail partner closes some or all of its stores or becomes subject to a voluntary or involuntary bankruptcy proceeding (or if there is a perception that it may become subject to a bankruptcy proceeding), its customers who have used our financing products may have less incentive to pay their outstanding balances to the Consumer Group, which could result in higher charge-off rates than anticipated and our costs for servicing its customers' accounts may increase. Moreover, if the financial condition of a retail partner deteriorates significantly or a partner becomes subject to a bankruptcy proceeding, the Consumer Group may not be able to recover for customer returns, customer payments made in partner stores or other amounts due to the Issuer from the retail partner. A decrease in sales by our retail partners for any reason or a bankruptcy proceeding involving any of them could have a material adverse impact on our business and results of operations.

If the Consumer Group is unable to manage the growth of its operations or to integrate successfully its inorganic growth, this could have an adverse impact on its profitability.

The Consumer Group allocates management and planning resources to develop strategic plans, priorities, policies and targets, including for organic growth, and to identify potential acquisitions, divestitures and areas for restructuring its businesses. The execution of these initiatives is subject not only to external factors but also to decisions, including those that alter or redefine its business practices, operational frameworks, strategic objectives, corporate priorities, internal policies, and procedural guidelines. The Consumer Group cannot provide assurance that it will, in all cases, be able to deliver our strategic plans, priorities, policies and targets.

Furthermore, in order to grow and remain competitive, the Consumer Group will need to adapt to changes to meet the demands and expectations of regulators, its clients, shareholders and other stakeholders, including in relation to matters of public policy, regardless of whether there is a legal requirement to do so. The Consumer Group cannot guarantee that it will be able to implement changes to any of its strategic plans, priorities, policies and targets, in a timely and appropriate manner, or that it will be able to accurately predict trends, initiatives and business practices of financial institutions. It is also possible that regulators, its clients, shareholders and other stakeholders might not be satisfied or even disagree with its strategic plans, priorities, policies and targets, or the speed of their adoption, implementation, evolution and consequences.

From time to time, the Consumer Group evaluates acquisition and partnership opportunities that it believes offer additional value to its shareholders and are consistent with its business strategy. However, the Consumer Group may not be able to identify suitable acquisition or partnership candidates, and its ability to benefit from any such acquisitions and partnerships will depend in part on its successful integration of those businesses. Any such integration entails significant risks such as unforeseen difficulties in integrating operations and systems, unexpected liabilities or contingencies relating to the acquired businesses, including legal claims and delivery and execution risks. The Consumer Group can give no assurances that its expectations with regards to integration and synergies will materialize. In addition, any acquisition or venture could result in inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies. Moreover, the success of any acquisition or venture will, at least in part, be subject to a number of political, economic and other factors that are beyond our control. Any of these factors, individually or collectively, could have a material adverse effect on the Consumer Group.

The challenges that may arise from its decisions include:

- managing efficiently the operations and employees of expanding businesses;
- maintaining or growing its existing customer base;
- assessing the value, strengths and weaknesses of investment or acquisition candidates, including local regulation that can reduce or eliminate expected synergies;
- financing strategic investments or acquisitions;
- aligning its current information technology systems adequately with those of an enlarged group;
- applying its risk management policy effectively to an enlarged group;
- managing a growing number of entities without over-committing management or losing key personnel; and
- meeting the expectations of regulators and its clients, shareholders and other stakeholders.

Moreover, the success of the acquisition or venture will at least in part be subject to a number of political, economic and other factors that are beyond the control of the Consumer Group. Any of these factors, individually or collectively, could have a material adverse effect on the Consumer Group.

Any failure to manage growth effectively, an inability to successfully adapt to changing conditions or to execute successfully any of its strategic actions, or any changes in its business practices, operational framework, strategic objectives, corporate priorities, internal policies and procedural guidelines could have a material adverse effect on its operating results, financial condition and prospects.

Future changes in the Consumer Group relationship with the Santander Parent may adversely affect its operations.

The Santander Parent, directly and through wholly owned subsidiaries, owns 100% of the Consumer Group common stock. The Consumer Group relies on its relationship with the Santander Parent for several competitive advantages including relationships with manufacturers and regulatory best practices. The Santander Parent applies certain standardised banking policies, procedures and standards across its affiliated entities, including with respect to internal audit credit approval, governance risk management, and compensation practices. The Consumer Group currently follow certain of these the Santander Parent policies and may in the future become subject to additional policies, procedures and standards of the Santander Parent, which could result in changes to its practices. In addition, its credit ratings are affected by those of the Santander Parent, so if the Santander Parent were to suffer credit ratings downgrades or other adverse financial developments, the Consumer Group could be indirectly negatively impacted.

The Consumer Group may not effectively manage the risks associated with the replacement or reform of benchmark market indices.

Interest rate, equity, foreign exchange rate and other types of indices which are deemed to be “benchmarks”, including those in widespread and long-standing use, have been the subject of ongoing international, national and other regulatory scrutiny and initiatives and proposals for reform. Some of these reforms are already effective while others are still to be implemented or are under consideration. These reforms may cause benchmarks to perform differently than in the past, or to disappear entirely, or have other consequences, which cannot be fully anticipated.

Any of the benchmark reforms which have been proposed or implemented, or the general increased regulatory scrutiny of benchmarks, could also increase the costs and risks derived of complying with regulations or requirements relating to them. Such factors may have the effect of discouraging market participants from continuing to administer or contribute to certain benchmarks, trigger changes in the rules or methodologies used in certain benchmarks or lead to the disappearance of certain benchmarks.

Various regulators, industry bodies and other market participants in the US and other countries have worked to develop, introduce and encourage the use of alternative rates to replace certain benchmarks. A transition away from the widespread use of certain benchmarks to alternative rates has begun and will continue over the course of the next few years. There is no assurance that these new rates will be accepted or widely used by market participants, or that the characteristics of any of these new rates will be similar to, or produce the economic equivalent of, the benchmarks that they seek to replace. If a particular benchmark were to be discontinued and an alternative rate has not been successfully introduced to replace that benchmark, this could result in widespread dislocation in the financial markets, engender volatility in the pricing of securities, derivatives and other instruments, and suppress capital markets activities, all of which could have adverse effects on Consumer Group's results of operations. In addition, the transition of a particular benchmark to a replacement rate could affect hedge accounting relationships between financial instruments linked to that benchmark and any related derivatives, which could adversely affect Consumer Group's results.

On 5 March 2021, the United Kingdom Financial Conduct Authority ("FCA") announced the cessation or loss of representativeness of the London Interbank Offered Rate ("LIBOR") benchmark settings immediately after 31 December 2021, for all sterling, euro, Swiss franc and Japanese yen settings, and the 1-week and 2-month US dollar settings; and immediately after 30 June 2023, for the remaining US dollar settings. The Working Groups of all impacted currencies have been working on designating a Risk-Free Rate as the replacement rate for LIBOR: the Sterling Overnight Index Average ("SONIA", published by the Bank of England) for GBP LIBOR, the Swiss Average Rate Overnight ("SARON", published by SIX Swiss Exchange) for CHF LIBOR, the Tokyo Overnight Average Rate ("TONA", published by the Bank of Japan) for JPY LIBOR and the Secured Overnight Financing Rate ("SOFR", published by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York) for USD LIBOR. According to the transition schedule, the vast majority of transactions referenced to any LIBOR settings with a cessation date after December 31, 2021, have already been migrated to their respective Risk-Free Rates.

Furthermore, the European Money Market Institute (the "EMMI") announced the discontinuation of the EONIA after 3 January 2022 and the Working Group on Euro Risk-Free Rates recommended the €STR (published by the ECB) plus a spread of 8.5 basis points as the replacement convention for EONIA-linked transactions. Similar to LIBOR, transactions referenced to EONIA were migrated to €STR as of the discontinuation date.

These and other reforms may cause benchmarks to perform differently than in the past, or to disappear entirely, or have other consequences which cannot be fully anticipated which introduces a number of risks for the Consumer Group.

Investors should be aware that the market is continuing to develop such alternative reference rates and further changes or recommendations may be introduced. In particular, on 11 May 2021, the working group on euro risk-free rates as an alternative to the Euro Interbank Offered Rate ("EURIBOR") issued its recommendations on EURIBOR fallback trigger events and on €STR-based EURIBOR fallback rates.

These risks include (i) legal risks arising from potential changes required to documentation for new and existing transactions; (ii) risk management, financial and accounting risks arising from market risk models and from valuation, hedging, discontinuation and recognition of financial instruments linked to benchmark rates; (iii) business risk of a decrease in revenues of products linked to indices that will be replaced; (iv) pricing risks arising from how changes to benchmark indices could impact pricing mechanisms on some instruments; (v) operational risks arising from the potential requirement to adapt IT systems, trade reporting infrastructure and operational processes; (vi) conduct risks arising from the potential impact of communication with customers and engagement during the transition period and (vii) litigation risks regarding the existing products of the Consumer Group and services, which could adversely impact its profitability.

The replacement benchmarks and their transition path have been defined, but the mechanisms for implementation are under development. Accordingly, it is not currently possible to determine whether, or to what extent, any such changes would affect the Consumer Group but could, amongst other things, increase operating costs and affect the validity of existing contracts and the valuation of the Consumer Group's assets, which in turn could have a material adverse effect on the business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects of the Consumer Group. The Consumer Group may also be adversely affected if the change restricts its ability to provide products and services or if it necessitates the development of additional IT systems.

Risk Management

Failure to successfully implement and continue to improve the risk management policies, procedures and methods of the Consumer Group, including its credit risk management system, could materially and adversely affect the Consumer Group, and it may be exposed to unidentified or unanticipated risks.

The management of risk is an integral part of the activities of the Consumer Group. The Consumer Group seeks to monitor and manage its risk exposure through a variety of separate but complementary financial, credit, market, operational, compliance and legal reporting systems, among others. While the Consumer Group employs a broad and diversified set of risk monitoring and risk mitigation techniques, such techniques and strategies may not be fully effective in mitigating its risk exposure in all economic market environments or against all types of risk, including risks that it may fail to identify or anticipate.

Some of the qualitative tools and metrics of the Consumer Group for managing risk are based upon its use of observed historical market behaviour. The Consumer Group applies statistical and other tools to these observations to arrive at quantifications of its risk exposures. These qualitative tools and metrics may fail to predict future risk exposures. These risk exposures could, for example, arise from factors the Consumer Group did not anticipate or correctly evaluate in its statistical models. This would limit its ability to manage its risks. The losses of the Consumer Group thus could be significantly greater than the historical measures indicate. In addition, its quantified modelling does not take all risks into account.

The Consumer Group's more qualitative approach to managing those risks could prove insufficient, exposing it to material unanticipated losses. The Consumer Group could face adverse consequences as a result of decisions, which may lead to actions by management, based on models that are poorly developed, implemented or used, or as a result of the modelled outcome being misunderstood or the use of such information for purposes for which it was not designed or if the data and inputs of the models were incorrect or insufficient. If existing or potential customers or counterparties believe the risk management of the Consumer Group is inadequate, they could take their business elsewhere or seek to limit their transactions with it. Any of these factors could have a material adverse effect on the reputation, operating results, financial condition and prospects of the Consumer Group.

As a retail bank, one of the main types of risks inherent to the business of the Consumer Group is credit risk. For example, an important feature of its credit risk management system is to employ an internal credit rating to assess the particular risk profile of a customer. As this process involves detailed analyses of the customer, considering both quantitative and qualitative factors, it is subject to human or IT systems errors. In exercising their judgement on current or future credit risk behaviour of the customers of the Consumer Group, its employees may not always be able to assign an accurate credit rating, which may result in its exposure to higher credit risks than indicated by the Consumer Group's risk rating system.

Some of the models and other analytical and judgement-based estimations the Consumer Group uses in managing risks are subject to review by, and require the approval of, regulators. If models do not comply with all their expectations, regulators may require the Consumer Group to make changes to such models, may approve them with additional capital requirements or it may be precluded from using them. Any of these possible situations could limit the ability of the Consumer Group to expand its businesses or have a material impact on its financial results.

Failure to effectively implement, consistently monitor or continuously refine the credit risk management system of the Consumer Group may result in an increase in the level of non-performing loans and a higher risk exposure for the Consumer Group, which could have a material adverse effect on it.

The board of directors of the Consumer Group is responsible for the approval of the Consumer Group's general policies and strategies, and in particular for the general risk policy, and for defining the risk appetite. In addition to the executive committee, which maintains a special focus on risk, the board has a specific risk supervision, regulation and compliance committee.

Technology Risks

Any failure to effectively improve or upgrade the information technology infrastructure and management information systems of the Consumer Group in a timely manner or any failure to successfully implement new or modified, privacy, cybersecurity and privacy regulations could have a material adverse effect on the Consumer Group.

The ability of the Consumer Group to remain competitive depends in part on its ability to upgrade its information technology on a timely and cost-effective basis. It must continually make significant investments in, and improvements to, the information technology infrastructure of the Consumer Group in order to meet the needs of its customers. The Consumer Group cannot assure that in the future it will be able to maintain the level of capital expenditures necessary to support the continuous improvement and upgrading of its information technology infrastructure and management information systems and networks. To the extent that the Consumer Group is dependent upon any particular technology or technological solution, it may be harmed if such technology or technological solution becomes non-compliant with existing industry standards, fails to meet or exceed the capabilities of its competitors' equivalent technologies or technological solutions, becomes increasingly expensive to service, retain and update, becomes subject to third party claims of intellectual property infringement, misappropriation or other violation, or malfunctions or functions in a way the Consumer Group did not anticipate. Additionally, new technologies and technological solutions, such as artificial intelligence ("AI"), are continually being released. As such, it is difficult to predict the problems the Consumer Group may encounter in improving its technology functionality. There is no assurance that the Consumer Group will be able to successfully adopt new technology as critical systems and applications become obsolete and better ones become available. Any failure to effectively improve or upgrade the information technology infrastructure and management information systems and networks in a timely and cost-efficient manner could have a material adverse effect on the Consumer Group.

In addition, several new and proposed laws (such as, for example, Regulation (EU) 2022/2554 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 14 December 2022 on digital operational resilience for the financial sector), directives and regulations are defining how to manage cybersecurity and data protection risks, including with respect to the data breach reporting requirements and supervisory processes, among others. These regulations are quite fragmented in terms of definitions, scope and applicability. A failure to successfully implement all or some of these new local, state, national and international regulations, which in some cases have severe sanctions regimes, could have a material adverse effect on the Consumer Group.

Risks relating to data collection, processing and storage systems and security are inherent in the business of the Consumer Group.

Like other financial institutions, the Consumer Group receives, manages, processes, holds and transmits proprietary and sensitive or confidential information, including personal information of customers and employees in the conduct of its banking operations, as well as a large number of assets. Accordingly, the business of the Consumer Group depends on its ability to process a large number of transactions efficiently and accurately, and on its ability to rely on its digital technologies, computer and email services, software and networks, as well as on the secure processing, storage and transmission of confidential or sensitive personal data and other information using the computer systems and networks of the Consumer Group or those of its third party vendors. The proper and secure functioning of its financial controls, accounting and other data collection and processing systems is critical to its business and to its ability to compete effectively. Cyberattacks, data breaches, data losses and other security incidents, including fraudulent withdrawal of money, can result from, among other things, inadequate personnel, inadequate or failed internal control processes and systems, or from external events or actors that interrupt normal business operations. The Consumer Group also faces the risk that the design of its cybersecurity controls and procedures prove to be inadequate or are circumvented such that its data and/or client records are incomplete, not recoverable or not securely stored. Any material disruption or slowdown of the systems of the Consumer Group could cause information, including data related to customer requests, to be lost or to be delivered to its clients with delays or errors, which could reduce demand for its services and products, could produce customer claims and could materially and adversely affect the Consumer Group.

Although the Consumer Group works with its clients, vendors, service providers, counterparties and other third parties to develop secure data and information processing, storage and transmission capabilities to prevent against information security risk, the Consumer Group routinely manages personal, confidential and proprietary information by electronic means, and it may be the target of attempted cyber-attacks or subject to other information security incidents or breaches. This was especially applicable in the response to the Covid-19 pandemic and the shift the Consumer Group had experienced in having a significant part of its employees working from their homes for the time being, as its employees access its secure networks through their home networks. If the Consumer Group cannot maintain effective and secure electronic data and information, management and processing systems or if it fails to maintain complete physical and electronic records, this could result in disruptions to its operations, claims from customers, regulators, employees and other parties, violations of applicable privacy and other laws, regulatory sanctions and serious reputational and financial harm to the Consumer Group.

The Consumer Group takes protective measures and continuously monitor and develop its systems to protect its technology infrastructure, data and information from misappropriation or corruption, but its third-party vendors' systems, software and networks nevertheless may be vulnerable to disruptions and failures caused by unauthorised access or misuse, computer viruses, disability devices, phishing attacks or other malicious code, fire, power loss, telecommunications failures, employee misconduct, human error, computer hackers, and other events that could have a security impact on the Consumer Group. An interception, loss, misuse or mishandling of personal, confidential or proprietary information sent to or received from a client, employee, vendor, service provider, counterparty or other third party could result in legal liability, regulatory action, reputational harm and financial loss. There can be no absolute assurance that the Consumer Group will not suffer material losses from operational risks in the future, including those relating to any security breaches.

The Consumer Group has seen in recent years computer systems of companies and organizations being increasingly targeted, and the techniques used to obtain unauthorised, improper or illegal access to information technology systems have become increasingly complex and sophisticated. Furthermore, such techniques change frequently and are often not recognised or detected until after they have been launched and can originate from a wide variety of sources, including not only cyber criminals, but also activists and rogue states. The Consumer Group has been and continue to be subject to a range of cyber-attacks, such as denial of service, malware and phishing. Cyber-attacks could give rise to the loss of significant amounts of customer data and other sensitive information, as well as significant levels of liquid assets (including cash). In addition, cyber-attacks could disrupt the electronic systems of the Consumer Group used to service its customers. As attempted attacks continue to evolve in scope and sophistication, the Consumer Group may incur significant costs in order to modify or enhance its protective measures against such attacks, or to investigate or remediate any vulnerability or resulting breach, or in communicating cyber-attacks to its customers or other affected individuals. If the Consumer Group fails to effectively manage its cybersecurity risk, including by failing to update its systems and processes in response to new threats, this could harm its reputation and adversely affect its operating results, financial condition and prospects, including through the payment of customer compensation or other damages, litigation expenses, regulatory penalties and fines and/or through the loss of assets. In addition, the Consumer Group may also be impacted by cyber-attacks against national critical infrastructures of the countries where it operates, such as telecommunications networks. The information technology systems of the Consumer Group are dependent upon such national critical infrastructure and any cyber-attack against such critical infrastructure could negatively affect its ability to service its customers. As the Consumer Group does not operate such national critical infrastructure, it has limited ability to protect its information technology systems from the adverse effects of such a cyber-attack.

Although the Consumer Group has procedures and controls in place to safeguard personal and other confidential or sensitive information in its possession, unauthorised access or disclosures the Consumer Group could be subject to legal actions and administrative sanctions, as well as damages and reputational harm that could materially and adversely affect the operating results, financial condition and prospects of the Consumer Group. Further, its business is exposed to risk from employees' potential non-compliance with policies, misconduct, negligence or fraud, which could result in regulatory sanctions and serious reputational and financial harm. It is not always possible to deter or prevent employee misconduct, and the precautions that the Consumer Group takes to detect and prevent this activity may not always be effective. In addition, the Consumer Group may be required to report events related to information security issues, events where customer information may be compromised, unauthorised access to its systems and other security breaches, to the relevant regulatory authorities.

General risks

Risks relating to the industry of the Consumer Group

Climate change can create transition risks, physical risks, and other risks that could adversely affect the Consumer Group.

Climate change may imply three primary drivers of financial risk that could adversely affect the Consumer Group:

- Transition risks associated with the move to a low-carbon economy, both at idiosyncratic and systemic levels, such as through policy, regulatory and technological changes.

- Physical risks related to extreme weather impacts and longer-term trends, which could result in financial losses that could impair asset values and the creditworthiness of its customers.
- Liability risks derived from parties who may suffer losses from the effects of climate change and may seek compensation from those they hold responsible such as state entities, regulators, investors and lenders.

These primary drivers could materialise, among others, in the following financial risks:

- Credit risks: Physical climate change could lead to increased credit exposure and companies with business models not aligned with the transition to a low-carbon economy may face a higher risk of reduced corporate earnings and business disruption due to new regulations or market shifts.
- Residual value risk: Transition risk may lead to more volatility or a decrease in the value of leased assets due to changes in regulation, technology, or user sentiment. Additionally, Residual Value Risk is a type of risk that has become increasingly relevant and for which Santander Consumer Finance is strengthening its management and control. This specific risk is defined as the Risk of Loss an entity may have if at any time during the life of a car contract (loan, lease, etc.) the customer has the option or obligation to return the vehicle as full and final settlement, due to uncertainty about the sale price of the vehicle made at that time.
- Market risks: Market changes in the most carbon-intensive sectors could affect energy and commodity prices, corporate bonds, equities and certain derivatives contracts. Increasing frequency of severe weather events could affect macroeconomic conditions, weakening fundamental factors such as economic growth, employment and inflation.
- Operational risks: Severe weather events could directly impact business continuity and operations both of customers and the Consumer Group.
- Reputational risk could also arise from shifting sentiment among customers and increasing attention and scrutiny from other stakeholders (investors, regulators, etc.) on its response to climate change.
- Strategic (business model) risk: Transition risk may lead to a decrease in auto sales and therefore in the auto loan market due to changes in regulation, user sentiment or pressure from private car substitutes.

Any of the conditions described above could have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Consumer Group.

The financial problems faced by its customers could adversely affect the Consumer Group.

Market turmoil and economic recession could materially and adversely affect the liquidity, credit ratings, businesses and/or financial conditions of the borrowers of the Consumer Group, which could in turn increase its non-performing loan ratios, impair its loan and other financial assets and result in decreased demand for borrowings in general. In addition, the customers of the Consumer Group may further significantly decrease their risk tolerance to non-deposit investments, which would adversely affect its fee and commission income. Any of the conditions described above could have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of operations of the Consumer Group.

The ability of the Consumer Group to maintain its competitive position depends, in part, on the success of new products and services the Consumer Group offers to its clients and on its ability to offer products and services that meet the customers' needs during the whole life cycle of the products or services, and the Consumer Group may not be able to manage various risks it faces as it expands its range of products and services that could have a material adverse effect on the Consumer Group.

The success of the operations and profitability of the Consumer Group depend, in part, on the success of new products and services it offers to its clients and on its ability to offer products and services that meet the customers' needs. However, clients' needs or desires may change over time, and such changes may render the products and services of the Consumer Group obsolete, outdated or unattractive and it may not be able to develop new products that meet its clients' changing needs. The success of the Consumer Group is also dependent on its ability to anticipate and leverage new and existing technologies that may have an impact on products and services in the banking industry. Technological changes may further intensify and complicate the competitive landscape and influence client behaviour. If the Consumer Group cannot respond in a timely fashion to the changing needs of its clients, including as a result of an ageing population, it may lose them, which could in turn materially and adversely affect the Consumer Group. In addition, the cost of developing products is likely to affect its results of operations.

The Consumer Group faces the challenge of simplifying range of its products and services, and, at the same time, being able to satisfy the needs of its clients by offering new products and services. The development of these new products and services exposes it to new and potentially increasingly complex risks, such as the conduct risk in the relationship with customers, and development expenses. The employees and risk management systems of the Consumer Group, as well as its experience and that of its partners may not be sufficient to enable the Consumer Group to properly manage such risks. Any or all of these factors, individually or collectively, could have a material adverse effect on the Consumer Group.

While the Consumer Group has successfully increased its customer service levels in recent years, should these levels ever be perceived by the market to be materially below those of its competitor financial institutions, the Consumer Group could lose existing and potential business. If the Consumer Group is not successful in retaining and strengthening customer relationships, it may lose market share, incur losses on some or all of its activities or fail to attract new deposits or retain existing deposits, which could have a material adverse effect on its operating results, financial condition and prospects.

The Consumer Group relies on recruiting, retaining and developing appropriate senior management and skilled personnel.

The continued success of the Consumer Group depends in part on the continued service of key members of its senior executive team and other key employees. The ability to continue to attract, train, motivate and retain highly qualified and talented professionals is a key element of the strategy of the Consumer Group. The successful implementation of this strategy and culture depends on the availability of skilled and appropriate management, both at the Consumer Group's head office and in each of its business units. If the Consumer Group or one of its business units or other functions fails to staff its operations appropriately, or loses one or more of its key senior executives or other key employees and fails to replace them in a satisfactory and timely manner, its business, financial condition and results of operations, including control and operational risks, may be adversely affected.

In addition, the financial industry has and may continue to experience more stringent regulation of employee compensation, which could have an adverse effect on the ability of the Consumer Group to hire or retain the most qualified employees. If the Consumer Group fails or is unable to attract and appropriately train, motivate and retain qualified professionals, its business may also be adversely affected.

The Consumer Group relies on third parties and affiliates for important products and services.

Third party vendors and certain affiliated companies provide key components to the business infrastructure of the Consumer Group such as loan and deposit servicing systems, back office and business process support, information technology production and support, Internet connections and network access. Relying on these third parties and affiliated companies can be a source of operational and regulatory risk to the Consumer Group, including with respect to security breaches affecting such parties. The Consumer Group is also subject to risk with respect to security breaches affecting the vendors and other parties that interact with these service providers. As the interconnectivity of the Consumer Group with these third parties and affiliated companies increases, the Consumer Group increasingly faces the risk of operational failure with respect to their systems. The Consumer Group may be required to take steps to protect the integrity of its operational systems, thereby increasing its operational costs and potentially decreasing customer satisfaction. In addition, any problems caused by these third parties or affiliated companies, including as a result of them not providing the Consumer Group their services for any reason, or performing their services poorly, could adversely affect its ability to deliver products and services to customers and otherwise conduct its business, which could lead to reputational damage and regulatory investigations and intervention. Replacing these third-party vendors could also entail significant delays and expense. Further, the operational and regulatory risk that the Consumer Group faces as a result of these arrangements may be increased to the extent that it restructures such arrangements. Any restructuring could involve significant expense to the Consumer Group and entail significant delivery and execution risk which could have a material adverse effect on its business, operations and financial condition.

Damage to the reputation of the Consumer Group, or more widely the Banco Santander Group, could cause harm to its business prospects.

Maintaining a positive reputation is critical to protect the Consumer Group's brand, attract and retain customers, investors and employees and conduct business transactions with counterparties. Damage to the reputation of the Consumer Group, or more widely the Banco Santander Group, can therefore cause significant harm to its business and prospects. Harm to such reputation can arise from numerous sources, including, among others, employee misconduct, including the possibility of fraud perpetrated by the employees of the Consumer Group, litigation or regulatory enforcement, failure to deliver minimum standards of service and quality, dealing with sectors that are not well perceived by the public (weapons industries or embargoed countries, for example), dealing with customers in sanctions lists, rating downgrades, significant variations in the share price of the Consumer Group throughout the year, compliance failures, unethical behaviour, and the activities of customers and counterparties, including activities that negatively affect the environment. Further, negative publicity regarding the Consumer Group may result in harm to its prospects. Actions by the financial services industry generally or by certain members of, or individuals in, the industry can also affect the reputation of the Consumer Group. For example, the role played by financial services firms in the financial crisis and the seeming shift towards increasing regulatory supervision and enforcement has caused public perception of the Consumer Group and others in the financial services industry to decline.

The Consumer Group could suffer significant reputational harm if it fails to identify and manage potential conflicts of interest properly. The failure, or perceived failure, to adequately address conflicts of interest could affect the willingness of clients to deal with the Consumer Group or could give rise to litigation or enforcement actions against the Consumer Group. Therefore, there can be no assurance that conflicts of interest will not arise in the future that could cause the Consumer Group a material harm.

The Consumer Group may be the subject of misinformation and misrepresentations deliberately propagated to harm its reputation or for other deceitful purposes, or by profiteering short sellers seeking to gain an illegal market advantage by spreading false information about the Consumer Group. There can be no assurance that it will effectively neutralize and contain a false information that may be propagated regarding the Consumer Group, which could have an adverse effect on its operating results, financial condition and prospects.

Financial reporting and control risks

Changes in accounting standards could impact reported earnings.

The accounting standard setters and other regulatory bodies periodically change the financial accounting and reporting standards that govern the preparation of the consolidated financial statements of the Consumer Group. These changes can materially impact how the Consumer Group records and reports its financial condition and results of operations, as well as affect the calculation of its capital ratios. In some cases, the Consumer Group could be required to apply a new or revised standard retroactively, resulting in the restatement of prior period financial statements.

3. Risks relating to the Notes

General risks relating to the Notes

In any winding up of the Issuer, Holders may not be entitled to receive the currency of issue of the Notes

Should Holders be entitled to any amount with respect to the Notes in any winding-up of the Issuer, Holders might not be entitled in those proceedings to a recovery in the currency of issue of the Notes and might be entitled only to a recovery in euro or any other lawful currency of Spain or such other jurisdiction in which the Issuer may then be incorporated.

If an investor holds Notes which are not denominated in the investor's home currency, that investor will be exposed to movements in exchange rates adversely affecting the value of its holding. In addition, the imposition of exchange controls in relation to any Notes could result in an investor not receiving payments on those Notes

The Issuer will pay principal and interest on the Notes in the Specified Currency. This presents certain risks relating to currency conversions if an investor's financial activities are denominated principally in a currency or currency unit (the "Investor's Currency") other than the Specified Currency. These include the risk that exchange rates may significantly change (including changes due to devaluation of the Specified Currency or revaluation of the Investor's Currency) and the risk that authorities with jurisdiction over the Investor's Currency and/or the Specified Currency may impose or modify exchange controls. An appreciation in the value of the Investor's Currency relative to the Specified Currency would decrease (i) the Investor's Currency-equivalent yield on the Notes, (ii) the Investor's Currency-equivalent value of the principal payable on the Notes and (iii) the Investor's Currency-equivalent market value of the Notes.

Government and monetary authorities may impose (as some have done in the past) exchange controls that could adversely affect an applicable exchange rate or the ability of the Issuer to make payments in respect of the Notes. As a result, investors may receive less interest or principal than expected, or no interest or principal.

The Notes may be redeemed prior to maturity at the option of the Issuer or for taxation reasons

The Issuer may, at its option, redeem all, but not some only, of the Notes, at any time at their early redemption amount, together with accrued but unpaid interest up to (but excluding) the date of redemption, for taxation reasons as further described in Condition 4.

Early redemption features is likely to limit the market value of the Notes. During any period when the Issuer may redeem Notes, the market value of those Notes generally will not rise substantially above the price at which they can be redeemed. This also may be true prior to any redemption period or at any time where there is any actual increase in the likelihood that the Issuer will be able to redeem the Notes early.

It is not possible to predict whether or not a circumstance giving rise to the right to redeem Notes early for taxation reasons will occur and so lead to the circumstances in which the Issuer is able to elect to redeem the Notes, and if so whether or not the Issuer will elect to exercise such option to redeem the Notes or any prior consent of the competent authority, if required, will be given. The Issuer may be expected to redeem the Notes when its cost of borrowing is lower than the interest rate on the Notes. At those times, an investor may not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds at an effective interest rate as high as the interest rate on the Notes being redeemed and may only be able to do so at a significantly lower rate. Potential investors should consider reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

Suitability

Prospective investors should determine whether an investment in the Notes is appropriate in their particular circumstances and should consult with their legal, business and tax advisers to determine the consequences of an investment in the Notes and to arrive at their own evaluations of the investment.

Each potential investor in any of the Notes should determine the suitability of such investment in light of its own circumstances. In particular, each potential investor may wish to consider, either on its own or with the help of its financial and professional advisers, whether it:

- (i) has sufficient knowledge and expertise to make a meaningful evaluation of the relevant Notes, the merits and risks of investing in the Notes and the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Information Memorandum, taking into account that the Notes may only be a suitable investment for professional or institutional investors;
- (ii) has access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of its particular financial situation, an investment in the Notes and the impact the Notes will have on its overall investment portfolio;
- (iii) has sufficient financial resources and liquidity to bear all of the risks of an investment in the Notes, including where the currency for payments in respect of the Notes is different from the potential investor's currency;
- (iv) understands thoroughly the terms of the Notes, including the provisions relating to their status, and is familiar with the behaviour of financial markets; and
- (v) is able to evaluate possible scenarios for economic, interest rate and other factors that may affect its investment and its ability to bear applicable risks.

A potential investor should not invest in the Notes unless it has the knowledge and expertise (either alone or with its financial and professional advisers) to evaluate how the Notes will perform under changing conditions, the resulting effects on the market value of the Notes and the impact of this investment on the potential investor's overall investment portfolio.

The investment activities of certain investors are subject to legal investment laws and regulations, or review or regulation by certain authorities. Each prospective investor should consult its advisers to determine whether and to what extent (i) relevant Notes are legal investments for it, (ii) the relevant Notes can be used as collateral for various types of borrowing and (iii) other restrictions apply to the purchase of any Notes. Financial institutions should consult their legal advisors or the appropriate regulators to determine the appropriate treatment of Notes under any applicable risk-based capital or similar rules. Neither the Issuer, the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates has or assumes responsibility for the lawfulness of the acquisition of the Notes by a prospective investor of the relevant Notes, whether under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or the jurisdiction in which it operates (if different), or for compliance by that prospective investor with any law, regulation or regulatory policy applicable to it.

The trading market for debt securities may be volatile and may be adversely impacted by many events

The trading market for debt securities issued by banks is influenced by economic and market conditions and, to varying degrees, interest rates, currency exchange rates and inflation rates in other Western and industrialised countries. There can be no assurance that events in Spain, the UK, Europe, the United States or elsewhere will not cause market volatility or that such volatility will not adversely affect the price of the Notes or that economic and market conditions will not have any other adverse effect.

The terms of the Notes contain very limited covenants and there are no restrictions on the amount or type of further securities or indebtedness which the Issuer may incur

There is no negative pledge in respect of the Notes and the terms and conditions place no restrictions on the amount or type of debt that the Issuer may issue that ranks senior to the Notes, or on the amount or type of securities it may issue that rank pari passu with the Notes. The issue of any such debt or securities may reduce the amount recoverable by Holders upon liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Issuer and may limit the ability of the Issuer to meet its obligations in respect of the Notes, and result in a Holder losing all or some of its investment in the Notes.

In addition, the Notes do not require the Issuer to comply with financial ratios or otherwise limit its ability or that of its subsidiaries to incur additional debt, nor do they limit the Issuer's ability to use cash to make investments or acquisitions, or the ability of the Issuer or its subsidiaries to pay dividends, repurchase shares or otherwise distribute cash to shareholders. Such actions could potentially affect the Issuer's ability to service its debt obligations, including those under the Notes.

Potential conflicts of interest between the investor and the Determination Agent

Potential conflicts of interest may arise between the Determination Agent, as this term is defined in the Final Terms, if any, for a Tranche of Notes and the Holders (including where a Dealer acts as a determination agent), including with respect to certain discretionary determinations and judgements that such Determination Agent may make pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Notes that may influence the amount receivable upon redemption of the Notes.

Global Notes held in a clearing system

Because the Global Notes are held by or on behalf of Euroclear Bank SA/NV ("Euroclear") and/or Clearstream Banking S.A. ("Clearstream, Luxembourg") and possibly other clearing systems, investors will have to rely on their procedures for transfer, payment and communication with the Issuer.

Notes issued under the Programme may be represented by one or more Global Notes. If the relevant Final Terms specify that the New Global Note form is not applicable, such Global Note will be deposited with a common depositary for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg or shall be deposited with such other clearing system, or to the order of such other Clearing System's nominee. If the relevant Final Terms specify that the New Global Note form is applicable, such Global Note will be deposited with a common safekeeper for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg. Except in the circumstances described in the relevant Global Note, investors will not be entitled to receive definitive Notes. Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other clearing system will maintain records of the holdings of their participants. In turn, such participants and their clients will maintain records of the ultimate holders of beneficial interests in the Global Notes. While the Notes are represented by one or more Global Notes, investors will be able to trade their beneficial interests only through Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other clearing system on whose behalf such Global Notes are held.

While the Notes are represented by one or more Global Notes, the Issuer will discharge its payment obligations under such Notes by making payments to the common depositary (in the case of Global Notes which are not in the New Global Note form) or, as the case may be, the common service provider (in the case of Global Notes in the New Global Note form) for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other clearing system for distribution to their account holders for onward transmission to the Beneficial Owners. A Holder of a beneficial interest in a Global Note must rely on the procedures of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other clearing system and their relevant participants, to receive payments under their relevant Notes. The Issuer has no responsibility or liability for the records relating to, or payments made in respect of, beneficial interests in the Global Notes.

Holders of beneficial interests in the Global Notes will not have a direct right to vote in respect of the relevant Notes. Instead, such Holders will be permitted to act only to the extent that they are enabled by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg to appoint appropriate proxies. Similarly, holders of beneficial interests in the Global Notes will not have a direct right under the Global Notes to take enforcement action against the Issuer in the event of a default under the relevant Notes but will have to rely upon their rights under the Deed of Covenant dated 13 June 2025 (the “Deed of Covenant”).

Credit ratings may not reflect all risks

One or more independent credit rating agencies may assign credit ratings to the Notes, the Programme or the Issuer. The credit ratings may not reflect the potential impact of all risks related to structure, market, additional factors discussed above, and other factors that may affect the value of the Notes. A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be revised or withdrawn by the rating agency at any time.

In general, European regulated investors are restricted under the Regulation (EC) No. 1060/2009 (as amended) (“CRA Regulation”) from using credit ratings for regulatory purposes, unless such ratings are issued by a credit rating agency established in the EU and registered under the CRA Regulation (and such registration has not been withdrawn or suspended). Such general restriction will also apply in the case of credit ratings issued by non-EU credit rating agencies, unless the relevant credit ratings are endorsed by an EU-registered or UK-registered credit rating agency or the relevant non-EU rating agency is certified in accordance with the CRA Regulation (and such endorsement action or certification, as the case may be, has not been withdrawn or suspended). Certain information with respect to the credit rating agencies and ratings will be disclosed in the relevant Final Terms.

Legal investment considerations may restrict certain investments

The investment activities of certain investors are subject to legal investment laws and regulations, or review or regulation by certain authorities. Each prospective investor should consult its legal advisers to determine whether and to what extent (i) relevant Notes are legal investments for it, (ii) the relevant Notes can be used as collateral for various types of borrowing and (iii) other restrictions apply to the purchase of any Notes. Financial institutions should consult their legal advisors or the appropriate regulators to determine the appropriate treatment of Notes under any applicable risk-based capital or similar rules. Neither the Issuer, the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates has or assumes responsibility for the lawfulness of the acquisition of the Notes by a prospective investor of the relevant Notes, whether under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or the jurisdiction in which it operates (if different), or for compliance by that prospective investor with any law, regulation or regulatory policy applicable to it.

Taxation in Spain

The Issuer is required to receive certain information relating to the Notes. If such information is not received by the Issuer it will be required to apply Spanish withholding tax to any payment of interest in respect of the relevant Notes, or income arising from the payment of Notes issued below par.

Under Spanish Law 10/2014 and Royal Decree 1065/2007 (as amended among others by Royal Decree 1145/2011 of 29 July) (“Royal Decree 1065/2007”), as amended, payments of income in respect of the Notes will be made without withholding tax in Spain provided that the Issue and Paying Agent provides to the Issuer at the relevant time a certificate in the Spanish language substantially in the form set out in Exhibit 1, attached hereto.

This information must be provided by the Issue and Paying Agent to the Issuer before the close of business on the Business Day (as defined in the Notes) immediately preceding the date on which any payment of interest, principal or of any amounts in respect of the early redemption of the Notes (each a “Payment Date”) is due.

The Issuer and the Issue and Paying Agent have arranged certain procedures to facilitate the collection of information concerning the Notes. If, despite these procedures, the relevant information is not received by the Issuer on each Payment Date, the Issuer will instruct the Issue and Paying Agent to withhold tax at the then-applicable rate (as at the date of this Information Memorandum 19%) from any payment in respect of the relevant Notes. The Issuer will not pay any additional amounts with respect to any such withholding.

The Issue and Paying Agency Agreement provides that the Issue and Paying Agent will, to the extent applicable, comply with the relevant procedures to facilitate the collection of information concerning the Notes. See section titled “Taxation – Taxation in Spain—Information about the Notes in Connection with Payments”.

The procedures may be modified, amended or supplemented to, among other reasons, reflect a change in applicable Spanish law, regulation, ruling or interpretation thereof. None of the Issuer or the Dealers assumes any responsibility therefor.

Royal Decree 1065/2007 of 27 July, as amended, provides that any payment of interest made under securities originally registered in a non-Spanish clearing and settlement entity recognised by Spanish legislation or by the legislation of another OECD country will be made with no withholding or deduction from Spanish taxes provided that the relevant information about the Notes is received by the Issuer. In the opinion of the Issuer, payments in respect of the Notes will be made without deduction or withholding of taxes in Spain provided that the relevant information about the Notes is submitted by the Issue and Paying Agent to them, notwithstanding the information obligations of the Issuer under general provisions of Spanish tax legislation, by virtue of which identification of Spanish investors may be provided to the Spanish tax authorities.

Notwithstanding the above, in the case of Notes held by Spanish resident individuals (and, under certain circumstances, by Spanish entities subject to Corporate Income Tax) and deposited with a Spanish resident entity acting as depositary or custodian, payments in respect of such Notes may be subject to withholding by such depositary or custodian at the current rate of 19%.

If the Spanish tax authorities maintain a different opinion as to the application by the Issuer of withholding to payments made to Spanish residents (individuals and entities subject to Corporate Income Tax), the Issuer will be bound by that opinion and, with immediate effect, will make the appropriate withholding and the Issuer will not, as a result, pay additional amounts.

The value of and return on any Notes linked to a benchmark may be adversely affected by ongoing national and international regulatory reform in relation to benchmarks

Reference rates and indices such as EURIBOR and other interest rate or other types of rates and indices which are deemed to be “benchmarks” (each a “Benchmark” and together, the “Benchmarks”), to which the interest on securities may be linked, have become the subject of regulatory scrutiny and recent national and international regulatory guidance and proposals for reform aimed at supporting the transition to robust benchmarks. Most reforms have now reached their planned conclusion (including the transition away from London InterBank Offered Rate (“LIBOR”)), and “benchmarks” remain subject to ongoing monitoring.

The EU Benchmarks Regulation and the UK Benchmarks Regulation apply to the provision of Benchmarks, the contribution of input data to a Benchmark and the use of a Benchmark within the EU and the UK, respectively. The EU Benchmarks Regulation and the UK Benchmarks Regulation among other things, (i) require Benchmark administrators to be authorised or registered (or, if non-EU-based or UK-based, as applicable, to be subject to an equivalent regime or otherwise recognised or endorsed) and (ii) prevent certain uses by EU and UK supervised entities, as applicable, such as the Issuer of Benchmarks of administrators that are not authorised or registered (or, if non-EU based or UK-based, as applicable, not deemed equivalent or recognised or endorsed).

The EU Benchmarks Regulation and/or the UK Benchmarks Regulation, as applicable, could have a material impact on any Notes linked to or referencing a benchmark in particular, if the methodology or other terms of the benchmark are changed in order to comply with the requirements of the EU Benchmarks Regulation and/or the UK Benchmarks Regulation, as applicable. Such changes could, among other things, have the effect of reducing, increasing or otherwise affecting the volatility of the published rate or level of the relevant benchmark.

More broadly, any of the international or national reforms, or the general increased regulatory scrutiny of Benchmarks, could increase the costs and risks of administering or otherwise participating in the setting of a Benchmark and complying with any such regulations or requirements. Such factors may have the following effects on certain Benchmarks including EURIBOR: (i) discourage market participants from continuing to administer or contribute to the Benchmark; (ii) trigger changes in the rules or methodologies used in the Benchmark or (iii) lead to the disappearance of the Benchmark. Any of the above changes or any other consequential changes as a result of international or national reforms or other initiatives or investigations, could have a material adverse effect on the value of, and return on, any Notes linked to or referencing to a Benchmark.

If a Benchmark Event (as defined in paragraph 15 of section “Forms of Notes” of this Information Memorandum) (which, amongst other events, includes the permanent discontinuation of an Original Reference Rate) occurs, the Issuer shall use its reasonable endeavours to appoint an Independent Adviser. After consulting with the Independent Adviser, the Issuer shall endeavour to determine a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate to be used in place of the Original Reference Rate. The use of any such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate to determine the Rate of Interest will result in Notes linked to or referencing the Original Reference Rate performing differently (which may include payment of a lower Rate of Interest) than they would do if the Original Reference Rate were to continue to apply in its current form.

Furthermore, if a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate for the Original Reference Rate is determined by the Issuer, the terms and conditions of the Notes provide that the Issuer may vary the terms and conditions, as necessary to ensure the proper operation of such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate, without any requirement for consent or approval of the Holders.

If a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate is determined by the Issuer, the terms and conditions of the Notes also provide that an Adjustment Spread may be determined by the Issuer and applied to such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate. However, it may not be possible to determine or apply an Adjustment Spread and even if an Adjustment Spread is applied, such Adjustment Spread may not be effective to reduce or eliminate economic prejudice to Holders. If no Adjustment Spread can be determined, a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate may nonetheless be used to determine the Rate of Interest. The use of any Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (including with the application of an Adjustment Spread) will still result in Notes linked to or referencing the Original Reference Rate performing differently (which may include payment of a lower Rate of Interest) than they would if the Original Reference Rate were to continue to apply in its current form.

The Issuer may not be able to determine a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Notes.

Where the Issuer is unable to appoint an Independent Adviser in a timely manner, or is unable to determine a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate before the next Interest Determination Date, the Rate of Interest for the next succeeding Interest Period will be the Rate of Interest applicable in respect of the last preceding Interest Period before the occurrence of the Benchmark Event, or, where the Benchmark Event occurs before the first Interest Payment Date, the Rate of Interest will be the Initial Rate of Interest.

Where the Issuer has been unable to appoint an Independent Adviser or has failed to determine a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate in respect of any given Interest Period, as the case may be, it will continue to attempt to appoint an Independent Adviser in a timely manner before the next succeeding Interest Determination Date and/or to determine a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate to apply in respect of the next succeeding and any subsequent Interest Periods, as necessary.

Applying the Initial Rate of Interest, or the Rate of Interest applicable as at the last preceding Interest Determination Date before the occurrence of the Benchmark Event, will result in Notes linked to or referencing the relevant benchmark performing differently (which may include payment of a lower Rate of Interest) than they would do if the relevant benchmark were to continue to apply, or if a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate could be determined.

If the Issuer is unable to appoint an Independent Adviser or, fails to determine a Successor Rate or Alternative Rate for the life of the relevant Notes, the Initial Rate of Interest or the Rate of Interest applicable in respect of the last preceding Interest Period before the occurrence of the Benchmark Event, will continue to apply to maturity.

To the extent that no Successor Rate or Alternative Rate is adopted and the Determination Agent is unable to determine a rate in relation to any Interest Period, the terms and conditions of the Notes provide that the rate will be that which was last determined in relation to the Notes in respect of a preceding Interest Period, which results in the Notes becoming, in effect, Fixed Rate Notes.

Where ISDA Determination is specified as the manner in which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, in respect of Floating Rate Notes, the terms and conditions of the Notes provide that the Rate of Interest in respect of the Notes shall be determined by reference to the relevant Floating Rate Option in the 2006 or 2021 ISDA Definitions, as applicable, published by the International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc. Where the Floating Rate Option specified is an “IBOR” Floating Rate Option, the Rate of Interest may be determined by reference to the relevant screen rate or the rate determined on the basis of quotations from certain banks. If the relevant IBOR is permanently discontinued and the relevant screen rate or quotations from banks (as applicable) are not available, the operation of these provisions may lead to uncertainty as to the Rate of Interest that would be applicable, and may, adversely affect the value of, and return on the Floating Rate Notes.

Investors should consult their own independent advisers and make their own assessment about the potential risks imposed by the EU Benchmarks Regulation reforms in making any investment decision with respect to any Notes linked to or referencing a Benchmark.

The market continues to develop in relation to €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR and TONA as reference rates for Floating Rates Notes.

Where the relevant Final Terms for a Series of Floating Rate Notes identifies that the Rate of Interest for such Notes will be determined by reference to €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA the Rate of Interest will be determined by reference to Compounded Daily SONIA, Weighted Average SONIA, Compounded Daily €STR, SARON, SOFR or TONA (including on the basis of the SOFR Index published on the NY Federal Reserve's Website) or SOFR Arithmetic Mean. In each case such rate will differ from the relevant EURIBOR rate in a number of material respects, including (without limitation) that a compounded daily rate or weighted average rate is a backwards-looking, risk-free overnight rate, and a single daily rate is a risk-free overnight non-term rate, whereas EURIBOR are expressed on the basis of a forward-looking term and include a risk-element based on inter-bank lending. As such, investors should be aware that EURIBOR, €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR and TONA may behave materially differently as interest reference rates for Notes issued under the Programme.

The market continues to develop in relation to €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR and TONA as reference rates in the capital markets and their adoption as alternatives to the relevant interbank offered rates. In addition, market participants and relevant working groups are exploring alternative reference rates based on €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA, including term €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR and TONA reference rates (which seek to measure the market's forward expectation of an average €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA rate over a designated term). The development of €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR and TONA as interest reference rates for the Eurobond markets, as well as continued development of €STR, SARON, SONIA SOFR and TONA based rates for such market and the market infrastructure for adopting such rates, could result in reduced liquidity or increased volatility or could otherwise affect the market price of the Notes.

The use of €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA as reference rates for Eurobonds continues to develop both in terms of the substance of the calculation and in the development and adoption of market infrastructure for the issuance and trading of bonds referencing €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA. Publication of such reference rates has a limited history. The future performance of €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA may therefore be difficult to predict based on the limited historical performance. The level of €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA during the term of the Notes may bear little or no relation to the historical level of €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA. Prior observed patterns, if any, in the behaviour of market variables and their relation to €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA such as correlations, may change in the future.

The market or a significant part thereof may adopt an application of €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA that differs significantly from that set out in the terms and conditions as applicable to the Notes. Furthermore, the Issuer may, in future, issue Notes referencing €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA that differ materially in terms of interest determination when compared with the Notes. In addition, the manner of adoption or application of €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA reference rates in the Eurobond markets may differ materially compared with the application and adoption of €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA in other markets, such as the derivatives and loan markets. Investors should carefully consider how any mismatch between the adoption of €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA reference rates across these markets may impact any hedging or other financial arrangements which they may put in place in connection with any acquisition, holding or disposal of Notes referencing any such rate.

Furthermore, the Rate of Interest on Notes which reference €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA is only capable of being determined immediately prior to the relevant Interest Payment Date. It may be difficult for investors to estimate reliably the amount of interest which will be payable on the Notes, and some investors may be unable or unwilling to trade such Notes without changes to their IT systems, both of which factors could adversely impact the liquidity of the Notes. Further, in contrast to EURIBOR-based Notes, if the Notes become due and payable or are redeemed early on a date which is not an Interest Payment Date, the final Rate of Interest payable in respect of the Notes shall be determined by reference to a shortened period ending immediately prior to the date on which the Notes become due and payable.

To the extent the €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA rate is not published, the applicable rate to be used to calculate the Interest Rate on Notes referencing €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA, as applicable, will be determined using the fallback provisions set out in the terms and conditions, some of which apply specifically to Notes referencing €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA and are distinct to those applying to other types of Notes. Any of these fallback provisions may result in interest payments that are lower than, or do not otherwise correlate over time with, the payments that would have been made on the Notes if the relevant €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA rate had been so published in its current form. In addition, use of the fallback provisions may result in the effective application of a fixed rate of interest to the Notes.

The administrator of €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA may make changes that could change the value of €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA discontinue STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA.

The European Central Bank (or a successor) as administrator of €STR, SIX Swiss Exchange AG (or a successor) as administrator of SARON, the Bank of England (or a successor), as administrator of SONIA, and the Federal Reserve Bank of New York (or a successor), as administrator of SOFR and the Bank of Japan (or a successor) as administrator of TONA, may make methodological or other changes that could change the value of €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA, respectively, including changes related to the method by which €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA is calculated, eligibility criteria applicable to the transactions used to calculate €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA, or timing related to the publication of €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA. In addition, the administrator may alter, discontinue or suspend calculation or dissemination of €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA (in which case the fallback methods of determining the interest rate on the Notes will apply). The administrators have no obligation to consider the interests of Holders when calculating, adjusting, converting, revising or discontinuing €STR, SARON, SONIA, SOFR or TONA.

Any failure of SOFR to gain market acceptance could adversely affect holders of Notes that pay a floating rate of interest referencing SOFR.

Holders of Notes that pay a floating rate of interest that references SOFR are exposed to the risk that such rate may not be widely accepted in the market. The risk of this occurring is mitigated by the fact that SOFR was developed for use in certain U.S. dollar derivatives and other financial contracts as an alternative to LIBOR in part because it is considered to be a good representation of general funding conditions in the overnight U.S. Treasury repo market. However, as a rate based on transactions secured by U.S. Treasury securities, it does not measure bank-specific credit risk and, as a result, is less likely to correlate with the unsecured short-term funding costs of banks. This may mean that market participants would not consider SOFR to be a suitable substitute or successor for all of the purposes for which LIBOR historically has been used (including, without limitation, as a representation of the unsecured short-term funding costs of banks), which may, in turn, lessen its market acceptance. Any failure of SOFR to gain or maintain market acceptance could adversely affect the return on, value of and market for Instruments that pay a floating rate of interest referencing SOFR.

Notes issued at a substantial discount or premium

The market values of securities issued at a substantial discount or premium from their principal amount tend to fluctuate more in relation to general changes in interest rates than do prices for conventional interest-bearing securities. Generally, the longer the remaining term of the securities, the greater the price volatility as compared to conventional interest-bearing securities with comparable maturities. Generally, the longer the remaining term of the securities, the greater the price volatility as compared to conventional interest-bearing securities with comparable maturities.

There are restrictions on the ability to resell Notes

The Notes have not been registered under the Securities Act, any state securities laws or the laws of any other jurisdiction. Absent such registration, the Notes may be offered or sold only in transactions that are not subject to, or that are exempt from, the registration requirement of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws.

There is no active trading market for the Notes

Notes issued under the Programme will be new securities which may not be widely distributed and for which there is currently no active trading market (unless in the case of any particular Tranche, such Tranche is to be consolidated with and form a single series with a Tranche of Notes which is already issued). In addition, the ability of the Dealers to make a market in the Notes may be impacted by changes in regulatory requirements applicable to the marketing, holding and trading of, and issuing quotations with respect to, the Notes. If the Notes are traded after their initial issuance, they may trade at a discount to their initial offering price, depending upon prevailing interest rates, the market for similar securities, general economic conditions and the financial condition of the Issuer. Although applications have been made for the Notes issued under the Programme to be admitted to listing on the Regulated Market of Euronext Dublin, there is no assurance that such applications will be accepted, that any particular Tranche of Notes will be so admitted or that an active trading market will develop. Accordingly, there is no assurance as to the development or liquidity of any trading market for any particular Tranche of Notes.

The taking of actions under Law 11/2015, which partially implements BRRD, and/or the SRM Regulation could materially affect the value of any Notes

The European Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive (Directive 2014/59/EU) (“BRRD”) (which has been implemented in Spain through Law 11/2015, of 18 June, on the Recovery and Resolution of Credit Institutions and Investment Firms (“Law 11/2015”) and Royal Decree 1012/2015, of 6 November, implementing Law 11/2015 (“Royal Decree 1012/2015”) is designed to provide authorities with tools to intervene in an unsound or failing institution so as to ensure the continuity of the institution's critical financial and economic functions, while minimising the impact of an institution's failure on the economy and financial system. The BRRD further provides that any extraordinary public financial support through additional financial stabilisation tools is only to be used by a Member State as a last resort, after having assessed the resolution tools set out below to the maximum extent possible while maintaining financial stability.

As provided in the BRRD, Law 11/2015 contains four resolution tools and powers which may be used alone or in combination where the Relevant Resolution Authority considers that (a) an institution is failing or likely to fail, (b) there is no reasonable prospect that any alternative private sector measures would prevent the failure of such institution within a reasonable timeframe, and (c) a resolution action is in the public interest.

The four resolution tools are: (i) sale of business - which enables resolution authorities to direct the sale of the institution or the whole or part of its business on commercial terms; (ii) bridge institution – which enables resolution authorities to transfer all or part of the business of the institution to a "bridge institution" (an entity created for this purpose that is wholly or partially in public control); (iii) asset separation - which enables resolution authorities to transfer impaired or problem assets to one or more publicly owned asset management vehicles to allow them to be managed with a view to maximising their value through eventual sale or orderly wind-down (this can be used together with another resolution tool only); and (iv) bail-in - which gives resolution authorities the power to write down (including to zero) certain claims of unsecured creditors of a failing institution and to convert certain unsecured debt to equity (the general bail-in tool), which equity could also be subject to any application of the relevant resolution tools. In accordance with Article 20 of Law 11/2015, an institution will be considered as failing or likely to fail in any of the following circumstances: (i) it is, or is likely in the near future to be, in significant breach of its solvency or any other requirements for maintaining its authorisation; (ii) its assets are, or are likely in the near future to be, less than its liabilities; (iii) it is, or is likely in the near future to be, unable to pay its debts as they fall due; or (iv) it requires extraordinary public financial support (except in limited circumstances). The determination that an institution is failing or likely to fail may depend on a number of factors which may be outside of that institution's control.

Paragraph 22 of Part A of section “Forms of the Notes” provides for the contractual recognition by the holders of the Notes (the “Holders”) of the conversion or write down upon bail-in.

In accordance with Article 48 of Law 11/2015 (and subject to any exclusions that may be applied by the Relevant Resolution Authority under Article 43 of Law 11/2015), in the case of any application of the bail-in tool, the sequence of any resulting write-down or conversion by the Relevant Resolution Authority shall be as follows: (i) CET1 instruments; (ii) the principal amount of Additional Tier 1 capital instruments; (iii) the principal amount of Tier 2 capital instruments; (iv) the principal amount of other subordinated claims (créditos subordinados) that do not qualify as Additional Tier 1 capital or Tier 2 capital instruments; and (v) the principal or outstanding amount of the eligible liabilities (pasivos admisibles) prescribed in Article 41 of Law 11/2015 (which would include the Notes). Any application of the bail-in tool under BRRD shall be in accordance with the hierarchy of claims in normal insolvency proceedings (unless otherwise provided in applicable banking regulations).

In addition to the Spanish Bail-in Power (as defined in paragraph 22 of Part A of section “Forms of Notes”), the BRRD, Article 38 of Law 11/2015 and Regulation (EU) No. 806/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 15 July 2014 (the “SRM Regulation”) provide for the Relevant Resolution Authority to have the further power to convert into equity or permanently write-down (including to zero) capital instruments and certain internal eligible liabilities at the point of non-viability of an institution or a group of which the institution forms part (“Non-Viability Loss Absorption” of an institution or a group). The point of non-viability of an institution is the point at which the FROB (the Steering Committee of the Spanish banking resolution authority or Fondo de Resolución Ordenada Bancaria), the Single Resolution Board established pursuant to the SRM Regulation and/or any other authority entitled to exercise or participate in the exercise of bail-in power from time to time (each, a “Relevant Resolution Authority”) as appropriate, determines that the institution meets the conditions for resolution or that it will no longer be viable unless the relevant capital instruments are written down or converted into equity or that extraordinary public support is to be provided and without such support the Relevant Resolution Authority determines that the institution would no longer be viable. The point of non-viability of a group is the point at which the group infringes or there are objective elements to support a determination that the group, in the near future, will infringe its consolidated solvency requirements in a way that would justify action by the Relevant Resolution Authority in accordance with Article 38.3 of Law 11/2015. Non-Viability Loss Absorption may be imposed prior to or in combination with any exercise of the Spanish Bail-in Power or any other resolution tool or power (where the conditions for resolution referred to above are met).

Under Article 281 of Royal Decree 1/2020, of 5 May, approving the revised text of the Bankruptcy Law (as amended, the “Insolvency Law”) read in conjunction with Additional Provision 14.3 of Law 11/2015, the Issuer will meet subordinated claims after payment in full of unsubordinated claims, but before distributions to shareholders, in the following order and pro-rata within each class: (i) late or incorrect claims; (ii) contractually subordinated liabilities in respect of principal (except for those under instruments of the Issuer that qualify as Additional Tier 1 or Tier 2 capital) (iii) interests; (iv) fines; (v) claims of creditors which are specially related to the Issuer (if applicable) as provided for under the Insolvency Law; (vi) detrimental claims against the Issuer where a Spanish Court has determined that the relevant creditor has acted in bad faith (rescisión concursal); (vii) claims arising from contracts with reciprocal obligations as referred to in Articles 156 to 158 and 160 to 167 of the Insolvency Law, wherever the court rules, prior to the administrators’ report of insolvency (administración concursal) that the creditor repeatedly impedes the fulfilment of the contract against the interest of the insolvency, (viii) subordinated obligations (créditos subordinados) of the Issuer under instruments that qualify as Tier 2 capital, and (ix) subordinated obligations (créditos subordinados) of the Issuer under of instruments that qualify as Additional Tier 1 capital.

The powers set out in the BRRD, as implemented in Spain through Law 11/2015 and the SRM Regulation will impact how credit institutions and investment firms are managed as well as, in certain circumstances, the rights of creditors. Holders of Notes may be subject to write-down or conversion into equity on any application of the bail-in tool. The exercise of powers under the BRRD or any suggestion of such exercise could, therefore, materially adversely affect the rights of Holders, the price or value of their investment in any Notes and/or the ability of the Issuer to satisfy their obligations under any Notes. Accordingly, the impact of such application on Holders will depend on the ranking of the relevant Notes in accordance with such hierarchy, including any priority given to other creditors such as depositors. In this respect, as indicated in “The Consumer Group is subject to extensive regulation and regulatory and governmental oversight which could adversely affect its business, operations and financial condition” above, the CMDI Proposal provides for a general depositor preference in insolvency. If the CMDI Proposal is implemented in its current form, this would mean that the Notes will rank junior to the claims of all depositors, including deposits of large corporates and other deposits that are currently excluded from such privileged claims. Any such general depositor preference would also impact upon any application of the Spanish Bail-in Power, as such application is to be carried out in the order of the hierarchy of claims in normal insolvency proceedings. Accordingly, this would mean that following any such amendment of the insolvency laws of Spain to establish a general depositor preference, any resulting write-down or conversion of the Notes by the Relevant Resolution Authority would be carried out before any write-down or conversion of the claims of depositors such as those of large corporates that, with the current bail-in regime, would have been written-down or converted alongside the Senior Notes. By removing the requirement for such deposits to be written-down or converted in this manner, one of the stated objectives of this proposed amendment is to reduce the likelihood of deposits generally needing to be included in any such write-down or conversion upon any application of the Spanish Bail-in Power and improve the process for the application of the Spanish Bail-in Power. However, this may have the corresponding impact of increasing the likelihood of any write-down or conversion of the Notes. Nevertheless, the exact impact of the CMDI Proposal is not known yet given it is still in the form of a legislative proposal and therefore subject to further amendments. See “Regulation”.

There may be limited protections, if any, that will be available to holders of securities subject to the bail-in tool (including the Notes) and to the broader resolution powers of the Relevant Resolution Authority. Accordingly, Holders may have limited or circumscribed rights to challenge any decision of the Relevant Resolution Authority to exercise its bail-in tool.

There remains uncertainty as to how or when the bail-in tool may be exercised and how it would affect the Consumer Group and the Notes. The determination that all or part of the principal amount of the Notes will be subject to loss absorption is likely to be inherently unpredictable and may depend on a number of factors which may be outside of the Issuer's control.

An investment in the Notes may involve a high degree of risk. In purchasing Notes, investors assume the risk that the Issuer may become insolvent or otherwise be unable to make all payments due in respect of the Notes. There are a wide range of factors which individually or together could result in the Issuer becoming unable to make all payments due in respect of the Notes. It is not possible to identify all such factors or to determine which factors are most likely to occur, as the Issuer may not be aware of all relevant factors and certain factors which they currently deem not to be material may become material as a result of the occurrence of events outside the Issuer's control. The Issuer has identified in this Information Memorandum a number of factors which could materially adversely affect its businesses and ability to make payments due under the Notes.

In addition, factors which are material for the purpose of assessing the market risk associated with Notes issued under the Programme are detailed below. The factors discussed below regarding the risks of acquiring or holding any Notes are not exhaustive, and additional risks and uncertainties that are not presently known to the Issuer or that the Issuer currently believes to be immaterial could also have a material impact on the Notes.

Business Overview

Principal Activities of the Issuer

The Issuer's objective is to receive funds from the public in the form of deposits, loans, repos or other similar transactions entailing the obligation to refund them, and to use these funds for its own account to grant loans and credits or to perform similar transactions. In addition, the Issuer is the holding company of a finance group and handles the investments of its subsidiaries.

The Issuer is part of the Banco Santander Group (as described above), the parent entity of which (Banco Santander) had a 100% direct and indirect ownership interest in the share capital of the Issuer as at 31 December 2024. Banco Santander has its registered office at Paseo de Pereda 9-12, Santander.

The Consumer Group's primary activity is related to automobile financing, personal loan and credit card businesses. However, it also works at attracting customer funds. The Consumer Group has 286 branches located throughout Europe (45 of which are in Spain) and engages in finance leasing, financing of third party purchases of consumer goods of any kind, full-service leasing ("renting") and other activities. Additionally, since December 2002, the Issuer has been the head of a European corporate group, consisting mainly of financial institutions, which engages in commercial banking, consumer finance, operating and finance leasing, full-service leasing and other activities in Germany, Italy, Austria, France, the Netherlands, Belgium, Greece, Norway, Finland, Denmark, Sweden, Switzerland, Portugal, United Kingdom, Canada and China. The role of the Issuer as head of the European Consumer Group can be summarised in four key points: (a) driving new agreements with auto and motorcycle manufacturers on an European level; (b) driving the progress towards a more digital and analytical consumer finance model; (c) promoting the implementation of best practices; and (d) watching over the capital efficiency and promoting the measures needed in order to improve it.

The Issuer's strategy consists of establishing agreements with authorised agents (mainly dealers) in order to deliver finance for automobiles and other consumer goods. The Issuer also seeks to generate loyalty affiliations with final customers by directly offering them other products such as credit cards. The Issuer's primary business, however, continues to be the financing of new and used cars.

Enjoying as it does a strong leadership position in the European consumer finance market, and specialising in auto finance, loans for the purchase of durable goods, personal loans and credit cards, the Consumer Group has displayed consistent profitability, reporting an attributable profit of €803.6 million in 2024 (Sources: internal SCF estimates based on information from competitors, local associations, magazines and market knowledge).

After 2023, in which new market registrations in Europe grew by +14% compared to 2022, in 2024 they only grew by +0.7% compared to 2023. Despite this, new business volumes increased, mainly in new cars, by 5% and by 1% in used cars, both year-on-year. The new business is also being actively revalued to compensate for the higher financing costs resulting from the rise in interest rates in recent quarters.

The stock of loans and advances to customers reached €118,985 million, 3% more than in 2023. Portfolios continue to be monitored to prevent the impact of deterioration on activity. In addition, the balance of assets transferred under operating leases reached €4,933 million, increasing by 25.70% compared to the previous year.

On the liability side, customer deposits rose 16.2%, to 56,752.4 million euros. Access to wholesale funding remained strong and diversified during the year, through senior issuances, securitisations and other long-term issues. New operations are being actively revalued to offset higher financing costs.

In 2024 attributable profit amounted to €803.6 million (-20 % with respect to 2023). The interest margin grew by 2.7% compared to the previous year, supported by the active depreciation of loans initiated in previous years and the growth in deposits and loans to clients. Commissions improved 13.3% compared to the previous year due to greater market reach in insurance, with improvements in almost all countries, especially Germany and Italy.

Operating expenses were 0.9% lower than in 2023, reflecting effective control over inflationary pressures and business growth (the renewal of the Stellantis agreement, the acquisition of MCE Bank in 2023, and additional acquisitions completed in 2024). The Efficiency ratio (cost to income) stood at 45.65% (+59 bps).

Loan loss provisions were 51.1% higher than the previous year due to the normalization of the credit quality and a very low comparison base. Cost of credit reaching 0.87% compared to 0.59% in the previous year and an NPL ratio of 2.62% (+47 bps). Coverage stood at 78.78%.

In short, the Consumer Group continued to prove that it can maintain high profitability and streamlined efficiency.

New Business of the Issuer in 2024

The volume of new loans at December 2024 was 46,218 million, up by 1.4% compared with the previous year. Mainly higher volumes due to Cars business which increased €1,190 million.

The units with higher productions in 2024 were Germany (31.5%), Nordics (16.1%), Italy (15.7%), Spain (15.4%) and France (13%).

The automotive business comprises all the businesses related to the financing of new and used vehicles, including operating and finance leases. Residual value risk is an important consideration in these activities; for further information, see “Risk Factors – General risks – Risks relating to the industry of the Consumer Group”.

Consumer financing and the credit cards business reflect the income from consumer products distributed through intermediaries (subscription agents or dealers) not included in the direct finance business. Credit cards represent the business of extending consumer credit by means of credit cards, including the management of the credit cards.

Direct financing comprises the financing of consumer products distributed through the Consumer Group’s own channels, without the use of intermediaries. It includes the marketing of personal loans for small amounts, with a short granting and approval period.

The mortgage financing business includes all activities related to financing backed by property as collateral.

Other businesses include operations that do not fit into any of the above categories.

Customer deposits increased by 16.2% (from €48,844 million in 2023 to €56,752 million in 2024).

As of 31 December 2023, the balance of conditional long-term financing from the European Central Bank TLTRO (Targeted Longer-Term Refinancing Operation) amounted to €5,329 thousand (€18,160 thousand in 2022), all belonging to TLTRO III. These operations fully matured during the 2024 financial year.

The SCF's General Meeting, held on 20 March 2024, agreed to authorize the SCF's Board of Directors to issue multicurrency fixed-income securities up to an amount of €45 billion. In turn, the Board of Directors, at its meeting held on 22 May 2024, delegated these powers to the SCF's Executive Committee. The Executive Committee, at its meeting held on 6 June 2024, resolved to issue a Euro Medium Term Note Programme, replacing the one described above, for a maximum nominal outstanding amount not exceeding €25 billion. This programme was listed on the Irish Stock Exchange on 13 June 2024.

As of 31 December 2024, the outstanding balance of these notes amounts to €13,556 million (€16,019 million in 2023), and their maturity date is between 17 January 2025 and 29 March 2033. The annual interest rate on these securities stands at 0% and 6.080% (0% and 6.080% in 2023).

Non-performing loans ratio

The non-performing loans ratio is an important variable regarding financial institutions’ activity since it gives an indication of the level of risk the entities are exposed to. Spanish Supreme Court ruling regarding interest rates and transparency

The Supreme Court of Spain issued a judgment with particular relevance in credit agreements relating to credit cards as a form of revolving credit and/or deferred payments (judgment 258/2023 of 15 February 2023). The resolution established (i) that credit cards as a form of revolving credit are a specific segment within the credit facility market; (ii) that the Bank of Spain publishes a specific reference interest rate for this product in its Official Gazette of Statistics (Statistical Bulletin), which is to be used to determine the “normal interest on money”; (iii) that in order not to consider the usurious rate, it must not exceed 6.3 points the rate published by the Bank of Spain for that date; (iv) unlike the previous court ruling in this case, which set usurious rates above 26%, it shall be null and void and shall be returned. This new resolution provides specific or accuracy criteria that can allow entities to establish with legal certainty what level or difference it has with respect to the “normal interest of money”. It may lead to the relevant agreement being considered null and void. This Spanish Supreme Court judgment has progressively provided a framework of legal certainty regarding interest rate compliance for revolving credit card accounts.

In addition, on 30 January 2025, the Supreme Court of Spain issued two rulings regarding the transparency of revolving credit cards. These rulings deal with circumstances related to the marketing of revolving credit cards outside traditional financial establishments.

In one of those rulings, the Spanish Supreme Court focused on the requirement of “sufficient notice” for the delivery of pre-contractual information, specifically in relation to the document known as the “European Standardised Information Sheet (ESIS)”. The second ruling addresses how the revolving nature of the credit system should be transparently explained to consumers to ensure that they understand its nature and implications, including details as to its form of expression and location in the document. In particular, the ruling stresses the importance of clearly explaining how the credit replenishment mechanism works and its impact on interest calculation and loan repayment.

Notifications of acquisitions of investments

The notifications of acquisitions of ownership interests which, as the case may be, must be disclosed in the notes to the consolidated financial statements in accordance with Article 155 of the Spanish Limited Liability Companies Law and Article 125 of Legislative Royal Decree 4/2015, of 23 October, was approved the Spanish Consolidated Securities Market Law, are included, as appropriate, in Appendix III.

- (b) In particular, the committee shall propose:
 - (i) The remuneration policy for directors in their capacity as such, preparing the required reasoned report on this remuneration policy.
 - (ii) The individual remuneration of the directors in their capacity as such.
 - (iii) The individual remuneration of the directors for the performance of duties other than those in their capacity as such, and other terms of their contracts.
 - (iv) The remuneration policy applicable to the managing directors and other members of senior management in compliance with the provisions of law.

Propose a corrective action plan when periodic reviews reveal that remuneration policies and procedures are not working as intended.
- (d) Periodically review the remuneration programmes to ensure they are up-to-date, considering their adaptation and performance, ensuring that remuneration is in line with the criteria of moderation and the Issuer's results, culture and risk appetite; and that no incentives are offered to assume risk that exceeds the level tolerated by the Issuer, such that they promote and are compatible with adequate and effective risk management. For these purposes the mechanisms and systems adopted will be reviewed to ensure that remuneration programmes take into account all types of risk and all levels of capital and liquidity, and that remuneration is in line with the Issuer's and the Banco Santander Group's business targets and strategies, corporate culture and long-term interests.

- (e) Ensure the transparency of remuneration and the inclusion of information on directors' remuneration in the annual report, or other reports required by applicable legislation, submitting information to the board as relevant.

- (g) Review possible scenarios in order to verify the effects of possible external and internal events on remuneration policies and practices, and perform, together with the risk supervision, regulation and compliance committee, a subsequent analysis of the criteria used to determine compensation and the ex-ante risk adjustment, taking into consideration how the previously evaluated risks have actually arisen.

Conflict of Interest

None of the members of the board of directors or persons related to them perform, as independent professionals or as employees, activities that involve effective competition, be it present or potential, with the activities of the Consumer Group, or that, in any other way, place the directors in an ongoing conflict with the interests of the Consumer Group.

As stipulated in Article 24 of the regulations of the board of directors, the directors must notify the Board of any direct or indirect conflict of interest that they might have with the Issuer. The board of directors shall be aware of any transactions conducted by the Issuer, directly or indirectly, with directors, significant shareholders or shareholders with board representation, or persons related thereto. These transactions should be authorised by the board of directors on the basis of a favourable report by the nomination and remuneration committee.

In 2024 and 2023, the Issuer's directors did not report to the board of directors or to the General Meeting any direct or indirect conflict of interest that they or persons related to them might have.

Litigation

Save as disclosed in the 2024 Consolidated Financial Statements, there are no prior or current governmental, legal or arbitration proceedings (including any such proceedings which are pending or threatened of which the Issuer is aware) which may have, or have had during the 12 months prior to the date of this Information Memorandum, a significant effect on the financial position or profitability of the Issuer and/or the entire Consumer Group.

CERTAIN INFORMATION IN RESPECT OF THE NOTES

Key Information

The persons involved in the Programme and the capacities in which they act are specified at the end of this Information Memorandum.

The net proceeds of the issue of each issue of Notes will be used for the general funding purposes of the Consumer Group.

Information Concerning the Securities to be Admitted to Trading

Total amount of Notes Admitted to Trading

The aggregate amount of each issue of Notes on the date of issue of such Notes will be set out in the applicable Final Terms.

The maximum aggregate principal amount of Notes which may be outstanding at any one time is EUR 10,000,000,000 (or its equivalent in other currencies). Such amount may be increased from time to time in accordance with the Dealer Agreement.

Type and Class of Notes

Notes will be issued in tranches. Global Notes shall be issued (and interests therein exchanged for Definitive Notes, if applicable) in the following minimum denominations (or integral multiples thereof):

or such other conventionally accepted denominations in those currencies as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer from time to time, subject in each case to compliance with all applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

The international security identification number of each issue of Notes will be specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Legislation under which the Notes and related contractual documentation, and the Deed of Covenant have been created

The status of the Notes, the exercise of the Bail-in Power by the Relevant Resolution Authority, the capacity of the Issuer and the relevant corporate resolutions shall be governed by Spanish law. Any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with the Notes, the terms and conditions the Notes and all related contractual documentation will be governed by, and construed in accordance with, English law.

Form of the Notes

The Notes will be in bearer form. Each issue of Notes will initially be represented by a Global Note and, in the case of a Global Note which is not intended to be issued in new global note (“NGN”) form, as specified in the relevant Final Terms, will be deposited on or around the issue date of the relevant Notes with a depository or common depository for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and/or any other relevant clearing system. Each Global Note which is intended to be issued in NGN form, as specified in the relevant Final Terms, will be deposited on or around the issue date of the relevant Notes with a common safekeeper for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg. Each Global Note may, if so specified in the relevant Final Terms, be exchangeable for Notes in definitive bearer form in the limited circumstances specified in the relevant Global Note.

On 13 June 2006 the ECB announced that Notes in NGN form are in compliance with the “Standards for the use of EU securities settlement systems in ESCB credit operations” of the central banking system for the Euro (the “Eurosystem”), provided that certain other criteria are fulfilled. At the same time the ECB also announced that arrangements for Notes in NGN form will be offered by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg as of 30 June 2006 and that debt securities in global bearer form issued through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg after 31 December 2006 will only be eligible as collateral for Eurosystem operations if the NGN form is used.

Currency of the Notes

Notes may be issued in Euro, Sterling, Swiss Francs, U.S. Dollars, Swedish Kronor, Norwegian Kroner, Danish Kroner and Polish Zloty, and such other currencies as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer(s) from time to time and subject to the necessary regulatory requirements having been satisfied.

Status of the Notes

The payment obligations of the Issuer pursuant to the Notes constitute and at all times shall constitute direct, unconditional, unsubordinated and unsecured obligations (créditos ordinarios) of the Issuer. In accordance with Article 281 of the Insolvency Law or equivalent legal provision which replaces it in the future and Additional Provision 14.2 of Law 11/2015, but subject to any applicable legal and statutory exceptions and subject to any other ranking that may apply as a result of any mandatory provision of law (or otherwise), upon the insolvency (concurso de acreedores) of the Issuer the payment obligations of the Issuer under the Notes in respect of principal (and unless they qualify as subordinated claims (créditos subordinados) under Article 281 of the Insolvency Law or equivalent legal provision which replaces it in the future) will rank (a) pari passu and rateably without any preference among themselves and with any Senior Higher Priority Liabilities and (b) senior to (i) Senior Non-Preferred Liabilities and (ii) any present and future subordinated obligations (créditos subordinados) of the Issuer in accordance with Article 281 of the Insolvency Law.

“Law 11/2015” means Law 11/2015, of 18 June, on recovery and resolution of credit institutions and investment firms, as amended from time to time.

“Senior Higher Priority Liabilities” means any obligations in respect of principal of the Issuer under any Notes and any other unsecured and unsubordinated obligations (créditos ordinarios) of the Issuer, other than the Senior Non-Preferred Liabilities.

“Senior Non-Preferred Liabilities” means any unsubordinated and unsecured senior non-preferred obligations (créditos ordinarios no preferentes) of the Issuer under Additional Provision 14.2 of Law 11/2015, and any other obligations which, by law and/or by their terms, and to the extent permitted by Spanish law, rank pari passu with the Senior Non-Preferred Liabilities.

The claims that qualify as subordinated credits under the limited events regulated by Article 281 of the Insolvency Law include, but are not limited to, any accrued and unpaid interests (including, for Notes sold at a discount, the amortization of the original issue discount from (and including) the date of issue to (but excluding) the date upon which the insolvency proceeding (concurso) of the Issuer commenced). Ordinary credits rank below credits against the insolvency state (créditos contra la masa) and credits with a privilege (créditos privilegiados). Ordinary credits rank above subordinated credits and the rights of shareholders. Under Spanish law, accrual of interests shall be suspended from the date of any declaration of insolvency (other than any interest accruing under secured liabilities up to an amount equal to the value of the asset subject to the security).

Rights attaching to the Notes

Each issue of Notes will be the subject of Final Terms which, for the purposes of that issue only, supplements the terms and conditions set out in the relevant Global Note or, as the case may be, definitive

Notes and must be read in conjunction with the relevant Notes. See “Forms of Notes” and “Form of Final Terms”.

Maturity of the Notes

The Maturity Date applicable to each issue of Notes will be specified in the relevant Final Terms. The Maturity Date of an issue of Notes may not be less than 1 day nor more than 364 days, subject to applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

Optional Redemption for Tax Reasons

The Issuer may redeem Notes (in whole but not in part) if it has or will become obliged to pay additional amounts pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Notes as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the laws or regulations of the Kingdom of Spain or any political subdivision or any authority thereof or therein having power to tax, or any change in the application or interpretation of such laws or regulations (including a holding by a court of competent jurisdiction) which change or amendment becomes effective on or after the issue date of the relevant Notes and such obligation cannot be avoided by the Issuer taking reasonable measures available to it.

Prescription

Claims for payment of principal and interest in respect of the Notes shall become prescribed and void unless made, in the case of principal, within ten years after the Maturity Date (or, as the case may be, the Relevant Date) or, in the case of interest, five years after the relevant Interest Payment Date in each case as specified in the relevant Final Terms.

Yield Basis

Notes may be issued on the basis that they will be interest bearing or they may be issued at a discount (in which case they will not bear interest). The yield basis in respect of Notes (or the discount rate, if applicable) will be set out in the relevant Final Terms.

Authorisations and approvals

The establishment of the Programme and the issuance of Notes pursuant thereto was authorised by resolutions of the shareholders of the Issuer passed on 18 October 2007 and of the Board of Directors of the Issuer passed on 27 May 2010. The update of the Programme and the issuance of Notes pursuant thereto was authorised by resolutions of the shareholder of the Issuer passed on 20 March 2024, the Board of Directors of the Issuer passed on 22 May 2024 and the Executive Committee passed on 26 May 2025. The Issuer has obtained or will obtain from time to time all necessary consents, approvals and authorisations in connection with the issue and performance of the Notes.

Application has been made to Euronext Dublin for Notes issued under the Programme during the period of twelve months after the date of this Information Memorandum to be admitted to the Official List and to trading on the regulated market of Euronext Dublin. Notes may be listed, traded and/or quoted on any other listing authority, stock exchange and/or quotations system, as may be agreed between the Issuer and the relevant Dealer. As at the date of this Information Memorandum, the Programme's short-term public credit rating is as follows:

EUR 10,000,000,000

EURO-COMMERCIAL PAPER PROGRAMME

1. For value received, Santander Consumer Finance, S.A. (the “Issuer”) promises to pay to the bearer of this Global Note on the Maturity Date set out in the Final Terms or on such earlier date as the same may become payable in accordance with paragraph 4 below (the “Relevant Date”), the Nominal Amount or, as the case may be, the Redemption Amount set out in the Final Terms, together with interest thereon, if this is an interest bearing Global Note, at the rate and at the times (if any) specified herein and in the Final Terms. Terms defined in the Final Terms attached hereto but not otherwise defined in this Global Note shall have the same meaning in this Global Note.

All such payments shall be made in accordance with an issue and paying agency agreement (the “Issue and Paying Agency Agreement”) dated 13 June 2025 (as amended and restated or supplemented from time to time) between the Issuer and Citibank, N.A., London Branch as issue agent and as principal paying agent (the “Issue and Paying Agent”), a copy of which is available for inspection at the offices of the Issue and Paying Agent at Citigroup Centre, Canada Square, Canary Wharf, London E14 5LB, England, and subject to and in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth below. All such payments shall be made (upon presentation and surrender (as the case may be) of this Global Note) to the bearer through Euroclear Bank SA/NV and Clearstream Banking S.A. or any other relevant clearing system or, if this Global Note has been exchanged for bearer definitive Notes pursuant to paragraph 11, by transfer to an account denominated in the Specified Currency set out in the Final Terms maintained by the bearer in the principal financial centre in the country of that currency or, in the case of a Global Note denominated in Euro, by Euro cheque drawn on, or by transfer to a Euro account (or any other account to which Euro may be credited or transferred) maintained by the payee with, a bank in the principal financial centre of any member state of the European Union. The Issuer undertakes that, so long as the Notes are listed, traded and/or quoted on any listing authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system, there will at all times be a paying agent with a specified office in such place as may be required by the rules and regulations of the relevant listing authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, presentation and surrender of this Global Note shall be made outside the United States and no amount shall be paid by transfer to an account in the United States, or mailed to an address in the United States. In the case of a Global Note denominated in U.S. Dollars, payments shall be made by transfer to an account denominated in U.S. Dollars in the principal financial centre of any country outside of the United States that the Issuer or Issue and Paying Agent so chooses.

2. If the Final Terms specify that the New Global Note form is applicable, this Global Note shall be a “New Global Note” or “NGN” and the Nominal Amount of Notes represented by this Global Note shall be the aggregate amount from time to time entered in the records of both ICSDs (as defined below). The records of the ICSDs (which expression in this Global Note means the records that each ICSD holds for its customers which reflect the amount of such customers’ interests in the Notes (but excluding any interest in any Notes of one ICSD shown in the records of another ICSD)) shall be conclusive evidence of the Nominal Amount of Notes represented by this Global Note and, for these purposes, a statement issued by an ICSD (which statement shall be made available to the bearer upon request) stating the Nominal Amount of Notes represented by this Global Note at any time shall be conclusive evidence of the records of the ICSD at that time.

If the Final Terms specify that the New Global Note form is not applicable, this Global Note shall be a “Classic Global Note” or “CGN” and the Nominal Amount of Notes represented by this Global Note shall be the Nominal Amount stated in the Final Terms or, if lower, the Nominal Amount most recently entered by or on behalf of the Issuer in the relevant column in the Schedule hereto.

3. All payments in respect of this Global Note by or on behalf of the Issuer shall be made without set-off, counterclaim, fees, liabilities or similar deductions and free and clear of, and without deduction or withholding for or on account of, taxes, levies, duties, assessments or charges of any nature now or hereafter imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by or on behalf of the Kingdom of Spain or any political subdivision thereof or any taxing authority or agency thereof or therein (“Taxes”). If the Issuer or any agent thereof is required by law or regulation to make any deduction or withholding for or on account of Taxes, the Issuer shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law or regulation, pay such additional amounts as shall be necessary in order that the net amounts received by the bearer of this Global Note or the holder or beneficial owner of any interest herein or rights in this Global Note (each, a “Beneficial Owner”) after such deduction or withholding shall equal the amount which would have been receivable hereunder in the absence of such deduction or withholding, except that the Issuer shall not be required to pay any additional amounts in relation to any payment:
- (i) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a Beneficial Owner of a Note who is liable for such taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges in respect of such Note by reason of his having some connection with Spain other than the mere holding of such Note; or
 - (ii) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a holder if the Issuer does not receive the information about the Notes as may be required in order to comply with the applicable Spanish tax reporting obligations; or
 - (iii) in respect of any Note presented for payment more than thirty days after the Maturity Date (or, as the case may be, the Relevant Date) or, if applicable, the relevant Interest Payment Date or (in either case) the date on which the payment hereof is duly provided for, whichever occurs later, except to the extent that the relevant holder would have been entitled to such additional amounts on presenting the same for payment on the expiry of such period of thirty days; or
 - (iv) to, or to a third party on behalf of, individuals resident for tax purposes in The Kingdom of Spain if the Spanish tax authorities determine that payments made to such individuals are not exempt from withholding tax and require a withholding to be made; or
 - (v) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a Spanish-resident legal entity subject to the Spanish Corporate Income Tax if the Spanish tax authorities determine that the Notes do not comply with applicable exemption requirements including those specified in the Reply to a Consultation of the Directorate General for Taxation (Dirección General de Tributos) dated 27 July 2004 and require a withholding to be made.

In addition, additional amounts as referred to in paragraph 3 will not be payable with respect to any Taxes that are imposed in respect of any combination of the items set forth above.

All payments in respect of this Global Note will be subject in all cases to (i) any fiscal or other laws and regulations applicable thereto in the place of payment, but without prejudice to the provisions of this paragraph and (ii) any withholding or deduction required pursuant to an agreement described in Section 1471(b) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the “Code”) or otherwise imposed pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, any regulations or agreements thereunder, any official interpretations thereof, or any law implementing an intergovernmental approach thereto and, accordingly, the Issuer shall not be required to pay any additional amounts under this paragraph.

See “Taxation” for a fuller description of certain tax considerations relating to the Notes.

4. The Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole, but not in part, at any time, on giving not less than 14 days’ notice to the Holders (which notice shall be irrevocable), at the Redemption Amount specified in the Final Terms, together with (if this Note is an interest bearing Note) interest accrued to the date fixed for redemption, if:
 - (a) the Issuer has or will become obliged to pay additional amounts as provided or referred to in paragraph 3 as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the laws or regulations of the Kingdom of Spain or any political subdivision thereof or any authority or agency thereof or therein having power to tax, or any change in the application or interpretation of such laws or regulations (including a holding by a court of competent jurisdiction), which change or amendment becomes effective on or after the Issue Date specified in the Final Terms; and
 - (b) such obligation cannot be avoided by the Issuer taking reasonable measures available to it;

provided, however, that no such notice of redemption shall be given earlier than 14 days prior to the earliest date on which the Issuer would be obliged to pay such additional amounts if a payment in respect of the Notes were then due.

Prior to the publication of any notice of redemption pursuant to this paragraph, the Issuer shall deliver to the Issue and Paying Agent:

- (a) a certificate signed by two authorised signatories of the Issuer stating that the Issuer is entitled to effect such redemption and setting forth a statement of facts showing that the conditions precedent to the right of the Issuer so to redeem have occurred; and
- (b) an opinion of independent legal advisers of recognised standing to the effect that the Issuer has or will become obliged to pay such additional amounts as a result of such change or amendment.

Upon the expiry of any such notice as is referred to in this paragraph, the Issuer shall be bound to redeem the Notes in accordance with this paragraph.

5. The Issuer or any subsidiary of the Issuer may at any time purchase Notes in the open market or otherwise and at any price provided that all unmatured interest coupons (if this Global Note is an interest bearing Global Note) are purchased therewith.
6. All Notes so purchased by the Issuer otherwise than in the ordinary course of business of dealings in securities or as a nominee shall be cancelled and shall not be reissued or resold. All Notes so purchased by any subsidiary of the Issuer may be cancelled, held by such subsidiary or resold.
7. On each occasion on which:
 - (i) Definitive Notes: Notes in definitive form are delivered; or
 - (ii) Cancellation: Notes represented by this Global Note are to be cancelled in accordance with paragraph 6, the Issuer shall procure that:

- (a) if the Final Terms specify that the New Global Note form is not applicable, (i) the aggregate principal amount of such Notes; and (ii) the remaining Nominal Amount of Notes represented by this Global Note (which shall be the previous Nominal Amount hereof less the aggregate of the amount referred to in (i) above) are entered in the Schedule hereto, whereupon the Nominal Amount of Notes represented by this Global Note shall for all purposes be as most recently so entered; and

- (b) if the Final Terms specify that the New Global Note form is applicable, details of the exchange or cancellation shall be entered pro rata in the records of the ICSDs and the Nominal Amount of the Notes entered in the records of the ICSDs and represented by this Global Note shall be reduced by the principal amount so exchanged or cancelled.
8. The payment obligations of the Issuer pursuant to the Notes constitute and at all times shall constitute direct, unconditional, unsubordinated and unsecured obligations (créditos ordinarios) of the Issuer. In accordance with Article 281 of the Insolvency Law or equivalent legal provision which replaces it in the future and Additional Provision 14.2 of Law 11/2015, but subject to any applicable legal and statutory exceptions and subject to any other ranking that may apply as a result of any mandatory provision of law (or otherwise), upon the insolvency (concurso de acreedores) of the Issuer the payment obligations of the Issuer under the Notes in respect of principal (and unless they qualify as subordinated claims (créditos subordinados) under Article 281 of the Insolvency Law or equivalent legal provision which replaces it in the future) will rank (a) pari passu and rateably without any preference among themselves and with any Senior Higher Priority Liabilities and (b) senior to (i) Senior Non-Preferred Liabilities and (ii) any present and future subordinated obligations (créditos subordinados) of the Issuer in accordance with Article 281 of the Insolvency Law.

“Law 11/2015” means Law 11/2015, of 18 June, on recovery and resolution of credit institutions and investment firms, as amended from time to time.

“Senior Higher Priority Liabilities” means any obligations in respect of principal of the Issuer under any Notes and any other unsecured and unsubordinated obligations (créditos ordinarios) of the Issuer, other than the Senior Non-Preferred Liabilities.

“Senior Non-Preferred Liabilities” means any unsubordinated and unsecured senior non-preferred obligations (créditos ordinarios no preferentes) of the Issuer under Additional Provision 14.2 of Law 11/2015, and any other obligations which, by law and/or by their terms, and to the extent permitted by Spanish law, rank pari passu with the Senior Non-Preferred Liabilities.

9. If the Maturity Date (or, as the case may be, the Relevant Date) or, if applicable, the relevant Interest Payment Date, is not a Payment Business Day (as defined herein) payment in respect hereof will not be made and credit or transfer instructions shall not be given until the next following Payment Business Day unless that date falls more than 364 days after the Issue Date, in which case payment shall be made on the immediately preceding Payment Business Day, and the bearer of this Global Note shall not be entitled to any interest or other sums in respect of such postponed payment.

As used in this Global Note:

“Payment Business Day” means any day other than a Saturday or Sunday which is either (i) if the Specified Currency set out in the Final Terms is any currency other than Euro, a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealings in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in the principal financial centre of the country of the Specified Currency set out in the Final Terms or (ii) if the Specified Currency set out in the Final Terms is Euro, a day which is a TARGET Business Day; and

11. This Global Note is issued in respect of an issue of Notes of the Issuer and is exchangeable in whole (but not in part only) for duly executed and authenticated bearer Notes in definitive form (whether before, on or, subject as provided below, after the Maturity Date):

- (a) if Euroclear Bank SA/NV (“Euroclear”) or Clearstream Banking S.A. (“Clearstream, Luxembourg”, together with Euroclear, the international central securities depositaries or “ICSDs”) or any other relevant clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of legal holidays) or announces an intention permanently to cease to do business or does so in fact; or
- (b) if default is made in the payment of any amount payable in respect of this Global Note; or
- (c) the Notes are required to be removed from Euroclear, Clearstream Luxembourg, or any other clearing system and no suitable (in the determination of the Issuer) alternative clearing system is available.

Upon presentation and surrender of this Global Note during normal business hours to the Issuer at the offices of the Issue and Paying Agent (or to any other person or at any other office outside the United States as may be designated in writing by the Issuer to the bearer), the Issue and Paying Agent shall authenticate and deliver, in exchange for this Global Note, bearer definitive notes denominated in the Specified Currency set out in the Final Terms in an aggregate nominal amount equal to the Nominal Amount of this Global Note.

12. If, upon any such default and following such surrender, definitive Notes are not issued in full exchange for this Global Note before 5.00 p.m. (London time) on the thirtieth day after surrender, this Global Note (including the obligation hereunder to issue definitive notes) will become void and the bearer will have no further rights under this Global Note (but without prejudice to the rights which the bearer or any other person may have under a Deed of Covenant dated 13 June 2025, entered into by the Issuer).

"SOFR Arithmetic Mean" means, with respect to an Interest Period, the arithmetic mean of SOFR for each calendar day during such Interest Period, as calculated by the Determination Agent, provided that, SOFR in respect of each calendar day during the period from, and including, the SOFR Cut-Off Date to, but excluding, the next occurring Interest Period End Date will be SOFR on the SOFR Cut-Off Date. For these purposes, SOFR in respect of any calendar day which is not a U.S. Government Securities Business Day shall, subject to the preceding proviso, be deemed to be SOFR in respect of the U.S. Government Securities Business Day immediately preceding such calendar day;

"SOFR Cut-Off Date" means, unless specified as not applicable in the relevant Final Terms, in respect of an Interest Period, the fourth U.S. Government Securities Business Day prior to the next occurring Interest Period End Date for such Interest Period (or such other number of U.S. Government Securities Business Days specified in the relevant Final Terms); and

Notwithstanding paragraphs 15(d)(A) to 15(d)(C) above, if the Determination Agent determines on or prior to the SOFR Determination Time, that a SOFR Transition Event and its related SOFR Replacement Date have occurred with respect to the relevant SOFR Benchmark (as defined below), then the provisions set forth in paragraph 15(d) (D) (SOFR Replacement Provisions) below will apply to all determinations of the Rate of Interest for each Interest Period thereafter.

(D) SOFR Replacement Provisions

If the Determination Agent, failing which the Issuer, determines at any time prior to the SOFR Determination Time on any U.S. Government Securities Business Day that a SOFR Transition Event and the related SOFR Replacement Date have occurred, the Issuer will appoint an agent (the "Replacement Rate Determination Agent") which will determine the SOFR Replacement. The Replacement Rate Determination Agent may be (x) a leading bank, broker-dealer or benchmark agent in the principal financial centre of the Specified Currency as appointed by the Determination Agent, (y) the Issuer, (z) an affiliate of the Issuer or the Determination Agent or (zz) such other entity that the Issuer determines to be competent to carry out such role.

In connection with the determination of the SOFR Replacement, the Replacement Rate Determination Agent will determine appropriate SOFR Replacement Conforming Changes.

Any determination, decision or election that may be made by the Determination Agent or Replacement Rate Determination Agent (as the case may be) pursuant to these provisions, will (in the absence of manifest error) be conclusive and binding on the Issuer, the Determination Agent, the Issue and Paying Agent and the Holders.

Following the designation of a SOFR Replacement, the Issuer may subsequently determine that a SOFR Transition Event and a related SOFR Replacement Date have occurred in respect of such SOFR Replacement, provided that the SOFR Benchmark has already been substituted by the SOFR Replacement and any SOFR Replacement Conforming Changes in connection with such substitution have been applied. In such circumstances, the SOFR Replacement shall be deemed to be the SOFR Benchmark and all relevant definitions shall be construed accordingly.

In connection with the SOFR Replacement provisions above, the following definitions shall apply:

“ISDA Fallback Adjustment” means the spread adjustment (which may be a positive or negative value or zero) that would apply for derivatives transactions referencing the ISDA Definitions to be determined upon the occurrence of an index cessation event with respect to SOFR for the applicable tenor;

“ISDA Fallback Rate” means the rate that would apply for derivatives transactions referencing the ISDA Definitions to be effective upon the occurrence of a SOFR Transition Event with respect to SOFR for the applicable tenor excluding the applicable ISDA Fallback Adjustment;

“Relevant Governmental Body” means the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and/or the NY Federal Reserve or a committee officially endorsed or convened by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and/or the NY Federal Reserve or any successor thereto;

“SOFR Benchmark” means (a) (unless "SOFR Index with Observation Shift" is specified in the relevant Final Terms) SOFR or (b) SOFR Index (each as defined in paragraph 15(d)(C) above);

“SOFR Replacement” means any one (or more) of the SOFR Replacement Alternatives to be determined by the Replacement Rate Determination Agent as of the SOFR Replacement Date if the Issuer, determines that a SOFR Transition Event and its related SOFR Replacement Date have occurred on or prior to the SOFR Determination Time in respect of any determination of the SOFR Benchmark on any U.S. Government Securities Business Day in accordance with:

- (a) the order of priority specified SOFR Replacement Alternatives Priority in the relevant Final Terms; or
- (b) if no such order of priority is specified, in accordance with the priority set forth below:
 - (i) Relevant Governmental Body Replacement;
 - (ii) ISDA Fallback Replacement; and
 - (iii) Industry Replacement, provided that, in each case, if the Replacement Rate Determination Agent is unable to determine the SOFR Replacement in accordance with the first SOFR Replacement Alternative listed, it shall attempt to determine the SOFR Replacement in accordance with each subsequent SOFR Replacement Alternative until a SOFR Replacement is determined. The SOFR Replacement will replace the then-current SOFR Benchmark for the purpose of determining the relevant Rate of Interest in respect of the relevant Interest Period and each subsequent Interest Period, subject to the occurrence of a subsequent SOFR Transition Event and related SOFR Replacement Date;

"SOFR Replacement Alternatives" means:

- (a) the sum of: (i) the alternative rate that has been selected or recommended by the Relevant Governmental Body as the replacement for the then-current SOFR Benchmark for the relevant Interest Period and (ii) the SOFR Replacement Adjustment (the "Relevant Governmental Body Replacement");
- (b) the sum of: (i) the ISDA Fallback Rate and (ii) the SOFR Replacement Adjustment (the "ISDA Fallback Replacement"); or
- (c) the sum of: (i) the alternative rate that has been selected by the Replacement Rate Determination Agent as the replacement for the then-current SOFR Benchmark for the relevant Interest Period giving due consideration to any industry-accepted rate as a replacement for the then-current SOFR Benchmark for U.S. dollar-denominated floating rate securities at such time and (ii) the SOFR Replacement Adjustment (the "Industry Replacement");

"SOFR Replacement Adjustment" means the first alternative set forth in the order below that can be determined by the Replacement Rate Determination Agent as of the applicable SOFR Replacement Date:

- (a) the spread adjustment, or method for calculating or determining such spread adjustment (which may be a positive or negative value or zero) that has been selected or recommended by the Relevant Governmental Body for the applicable Unadjusted SOFR Replacement;
- (b) if the applicable Unadjusted SOFR Replacement is equivalent to the ISDA Fallback Rate, the ISDA Fallback Adjustment; or
- (c) the spread adjustment (which may be a positive or negative value or zero) determined by the Replacement Rate Determination Agent giving due consideration to any industry-accepted spread adjustment, or method for calculating or determining such spread adjustment, for the replacement of the then-current SOFR Benchmark with the applicable Unadjusted SOFR Replacement for U.S. dollar-denominated floating rate securities at such time;

"SOFR Replacement Conforming Changes" means, with respect to any SOFR Replacement, any technical, administrative or operational changes (including, but not limited to, changes to timing and frequency of determining rates with respect to each interest period and making payments of interest, rounding of amounts or tenors, day count fractions, business day convention and other administrative matters) that the Replacement Rate Determination Agent decides may be appropriate to reflect the adoption of such SOFR Replacement in a manner substantially consistent with market practice (or, if the Replacement Rate Determination Agent determines that adoption of any portion of such market practice is not administratively feasible or if the Replacement Rate Determination Agent determines that no market practice for use of the SOFR Replacement exists, in such other manner as the Replacement Rate Determination Agent determines is reasonably necessary, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner); and

"SOFR Replacement Date" means the earliest to occur of the following events with respect to the then-current SOFR Benchmark (including the daily published component used in the calculation thereof):

- (a) in the case of sub-paragraphs (a) or (b) of the definition of "SOFR Transition Event" the later of (i) the date of the public statement or publication of information referenced therein and (ii) the date on which the administrator of the SOFR Benchmark permanently or indefinitely ceases to provide the SOFR Benchmark (or such component); or
- (b) in the case of sub-paragraph (c) of the definition of "SOFR Transition Event" the date of the public statement or publication of information referenced therein; or
- (c) in the case of sub-paragraph (d), the last such consecutive U.S. Government Securities Business Day on which the SOFR Benchmark has not been published, provided that, in the event of any public statements or publications of information as referenced in sub-paragraphs (a) or (b) above, should such event or circumstance referred to in such a public statement or publication occur on a date falling later than three months after the relevant public statement or publication, the SOFR Transition Event shall be deemed to occur on the date falling three months prior to such specified date (and not the date of the relevant public statement or publication).

For the avoidance of doubt, if the event giving rise to the SOFR Replacement Date occurs on the same day as, but earlier than, the SOFR Determination Time in respect of any determination, the SOFR Replacement Date will be deemed to have occurred prior to the SOFR Determination Time for such determination.

"SOFR Transition Event" means the occurrence of any one or more of the following events with respect to the then-current SOFR Benchmark (including the daily published component used in the calculation thereof):

- (a) a public statement or publication of information by or on behalf of the administrator of the SOFR Benchmark (or such component, if relevant) announcing that such administrator has ceased or will cease to provide the SOFR Benchmark (or such component, if relevant), permanently or indefinitely, provided that, at the time of such statement or publication, there is no successor administrator that will continue to provide the SOFR Benchmark (or such component, if relevant);

- (c) a public statement or publication of information by the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of the SOFR Benchmark (or such component, if relevant) announcing that the SOFR Benchmark (or such component, if relevant) is no longer representative, the SOFR Benchmark (or such component, if relevant) has been or will be prohibited from being used or that its use has been or will be subject to restrictions or adverse consequences, either generally or in respect of the Notes; or

 - (y) where “Lock-out” is specified as the Observation Method in the relevant Final Terms, the sum of the SARON reference rate in respect of each calendar day during the relevant Interest Period divided by the number of calendar days in the relevant Interest Period, provided that, for any calendar day of such Interest Period falling in the Lock-out Period for the relevant Interest Period, the SARON reference rate for such calendar day will be deemed to be the SARON reference rate in respect of the Zurich Banking Day immediately preceding the first day of such Lock-out Period. For these purposes, the SARON reference rate in respect of any calendar day which is not a Zurich Banking Day shall, subject to the preceding proviso, be deemed to be the SARON reference rate in respect of the Zurich Banking Day immediately preceding such calendar day.
- (E) Where the Rate of Interest for each Interest Period is calculated in accordance with paragraph 15(f)(B), if the relevant SARON Compounded Index is not published or displayed by the SARON Administrator or other information service by 5.00 p.m. (Zurich time) (or, if later, by the time falling one hour after the customary or scheduled time for publication thereof in accordance with the then-prevailing operational procedures of the SARON Administrator or of such other information service, as the case may be) on the relevant Interest Determination Date, the Rate of Interest shall be calculated for the Interest Period for which the SARON Compounded Index is not available in accordance with paragraph 15(e)(A) above and for these purposes the “Observation Method” shall be deemed to be “Shift”.

- (F) If the SARON reference rate is not published on the Relevant Screen Page (the “SARON Screen Page”) at the Relevant Time on the relevant Zurich Banking Day and a SARON Index Cessation Event and a SARON Index Cessation Effective Date have not both occurred on or prior to the Relevant Time on the relevant Zurich Banking Day, the SARON reference rate for such Zurich Banking Day shall be the rate equal to the Swiss Average Rate Overnight published by the SARON Administrator on the SARON Administrator Website for the last preceding Zurich Banking Day on which the Swiss Average Rate Overnight was published by the SARON Administrator on the SARON Administrator Website.
- (G) If the SARON reference rate is not published on the Relevant Screen Page at the Relevant Time on the relevant Zurich Banking Day and both a SARON Index Cessation Event and a SARON Index Cessation Effective Date have occurred on or prior to the Relevant Time on the relevant Zurich Banking Day, the Reference Rate shall be:
- (i) if there is a SARON Recommended Replacement Rate within one Zurich Banking Day of the SARON Index Cessation Effective Date, the SARON Recommended Replacement Rate for such Zurich Banking Day, giving effect to the SARON Recommended Adjustment Spread, if any, published on such Zurich Banking Day; or
 - (ii) if there is no SARON Recommended Replacement Rate within one Zurich Banking Day of the SARON Index Cessation Effective Date, the policy rate of the Swiss National Bank (the “SNB Policy Rate”) for such Zurich Banking Day, giving effect to the SNB Adjustment Spread, if any.

Any substitution of the SARON reference rate by the SARON Recommended Replacement Rate or the SNB Policy Rate as specified above (the “SARON Replacement Rate”) will remain effective for the remaining term to maturity of the Notes.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this paragraph (G), if (i) the Rate of Interest cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions by the Determination Agent, or (ii) the Issuer determines that the replacement of then-current SARON reference rate by the SARON Replacement Rate or any other amendments to the terms of the Notes necessary to implement such replacement could reasonably result in the Relevant Resolution Authority treating any future Interest Payment Date as the effective maturity of the Notes, rather than the relevant Maturity Date, no SARON Replacement Rate will be adopted by the Determination Agent, and the SARON Replacement Rate for the relevant Interest Period will be equal to the last SARON available on the SARON Screen Page as determined by the Determination Agent. Notwithstanding the above, if the provisions of this paragraph fail to provide a means of determining the Rate of Interest, sub-paragraph (I) below shall apply.

In connection with the SARON reference rate provisions above, the following definitions apply:

- (ii) if the Saron Recommending Body has not recommended such a spread, formula or methodology as described in sub-paragraph (i) above, to be applied to such Saron Recommended Replacement Rate in order to reduce or eliminate, to the extent reasonably practicable under the circumstances, any economic prejudice or benefit (as applicable) to Holders as a result of the replacement of the Swiss Average Rate Overnight with such Saron Recommended Replacement Rate for purposes of determining Saron, which spread will be determined by the Determination Agent, acting in good faith and a commercially reasonable manner, and be consistent with industry-accepted practices for fixed income securities with respect to which such Saron Recommended Replacement Rate has replaced the Swiss Average Rate Overnight as the reference rate for purposes of determining the applicable rate of interest thereon;

“Saron Recommended Replacement Rate” means the rate that has been recommended as the replacement for the Swiss Average Rate Overnight by any working group or committee in Switzerland organised in the same or a similar manner as the National Working Group on Swiss Franc Reference Rates that was founded in 2013 for purposes of, among other things, considering proposals to reform reference interest rates in Switzerland (any such working group or committee, the “SARON Recommending Body”);

- (H) If the relevant Series of Notes become due and payable, the final Interest Determination Date shall, notwithstanding any Interest Determination Date specified in the relevant Final Terms, be deemed to be the date on which such Notes became due and payable and the Rate of Interest on such Notes shall, for so long as any such Notes remains outstanding, be that determined on such date and as if (solely for the purpose of such interest determination) the relevant Interest Period had been shortened accordingly.
- (g) in the case of a Global Note which specifies TONA as the Reference Rate in the Final Terms, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Period will be calculated in accordance with paragraph 15(g)(A), paragraph 15(g)(B), paragraph 15(g)(C) below, subject to the provisions of paragraph 15(g)(E) and paragraph 15(g)(F):
 - (A) Where the Calculation Method is specified in the relevant Final Terms as being “TONA Compounded Daily”, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Period will be the Compounded Daily TONA plus or minus (as indicated in the relevant Final Terms) the Margin (if any), all as determined by the Determination Agent on the Interest Determination Date and the resulting percentage being rounded (if necessary) to the fifth decimal place, with 0.000005 being rounded upwards.
 - (B) Where the Calculation Method is specified in the relevant Final Terms as being “TONA Index Compounded Daily”, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Period will be the Compounded Daily TONA Index plus or minus (as indicated in the relevant Final Terms) the Margin (if any), all as determined by the Determination Agent on the Interest Determination Date and the resulting percentage being rounded (if necessary) to the fifth decimal place, with 0.000005 being rounded upwards.

Such notice will be delivered to the clearing system(s) and/or depositaries in which this Global Note is held at the relevant time or, if this Global Note has been exchanged for bearer definitive Notes pursuant to paragraph 11, will be published in a leading English language daily newspaper published in London (which is expected to be the Financial Times).
- (l) If a Benchmark Event occurs in relation to an Original Reference Rate (other than SOFR) when any Rate of Interest (or any component part thereof) remains to be determined by reference to such Original Reference Rate, then the Issuer shall use its reasonable endeavours to appoint an Independent Adviser, as soon as reasonably practicable, with a view to the Issuer determining a Successor Rate (subject to the terms of this paragraph (l)), failing which an Alternative Rate (in accordance with paragraph (l), and, in either case, an Adjustment Spread if any (in accordance with paragraph (l) and any Benchmark Amendments (in accordance with paragraph (l)).

An Independent Adviser appointed pursuant to this paragraph (l) shall act in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner. In the absence of bad faith or fraud, the Independent Adviser shall have no liability whatsoever to the Issuer, the Issue and Paying Agent, or the Holders for any advice given to the Issuer in connection with any determination made by the Issuer, pursuant to this paragraph (l).

If (a) the Issuer is unable to appoint an Independent Adviser; or (b) the Issuer fails to determine a Successor Rate or, failing which, an Alternative Rate in accordance with this paragraph (l) prior to the relevant Interest Determination Date, as applicable, the Rate of Interest applicable to the next succeeding Interest Period, shall be equal to the Rate of Interest last determined in relation to the Notes in respect of the immediately preceding Interest Period or, where the Benchmark Event occurs before the first Interest Payment Date, the Rate of Interest will be Initial Rate of Interest specified in the Final Terms. For the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph (l) shall apply to the relevant next succeeding Interest Period only and any subsequent Interest Periods are subject to the subsequent operation of, and to adjustment as provided in, this paragraph (l).

If the Issuer, following consultation with the Independent Adviser and acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, determines that:

- (i) there is a Successor Rate, then such Successor Rate shall (subject to adjustment as provided in paragraph (k) subsequently be used in place of the Original Reference Rate to determine the Rate of Interest (or the relevant component part thereof), as applicable, for all future payments of interest on the Notes (subject to the operation of this paragraph (l)); or
- (ii) there is no Successor Rate but that there is an Alternative Rate, then such Alternative Rate shall (subject to adjustment as provided in paragraph (k)) subsequently be used in place of the Original Reference Rate to determine the Rate of Interest (or the relevant component part thereof), as applicable, for all future payments of interest on the Notes (subject to the operation of this paragraph (l)).

The Adjustment Spread (or the formula or methodology for determining the Adjustment Spread), if any, shall be applied to the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be). If the Issuer, following consultation with the Independent Adviser is unable to determine the quantum of, or a formula or methodology for determining, such Adjustment Spread, then the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as applicable) will apply without an Adjustment Spread.

If any Successor Rate, Alternative Rate and in, either case, the applicable Adjustment Spread is determined in accordance with this paragraph (l) and the Issuer, following consultation with the Independent Adviser and acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, determines (i) that amendments to these terms and conditions are necessary to ensure the proper operation of such Successor Rate, Alternative Rate and/or (in either case) the applicable Adjustment Spread (such amendments, the “Benchmark Amendments”) and (ii) the terms of the Benchmark Amendments, then the Issuer shall, subject to giving notice thereof in accordance with paragraph (k), without any requirement for the consent or approval of Holders, vary these terms and conditions to give effect to such Benchmark Amendments with effect from the date specified in such notice.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this paragraph (l), the Determination Agent or any Paying Agent is not obliged to concur with the Issuer or the Independent Adviser in respect of any changes or amendments as contemplated under this paragraph (l) to which, in the sole opinion of the Determination Agent or the relevant Paying Agent, as the case may be, would impose more onerous obligations upon it or expose it to any additional duties, responsibilities or liabilities or reduce or amend the protective provisions afforded to the Determination Agent or the relevant Paying Agent (as applicable) in the Issue and Paying Agency Agreement and/or these terms and conditions.

In connection with any such variation in accordance with this paragraph (I), the Issuer shall comply with the rules of any stock exchange on which the Notes are for the time being listed or admitted to trading.

Any Successor Rate, Alternative Rate, Adjustment Spread and the specific terms of any Benchmark Amendments, determined under this paragraph (I) will be notified promptly by the Issuer to the Determination Agent, the Paying Agents and the Holders. Such notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the effective date of the Benchmark Amendments, if any.

No later than notifying the Holders of the same, the Issuer shall deliver to the Issue and Paying Agent, the Determination Agent and the Paying Agents a certificate signed by two authorised signatories of the Issuer:

- (i) confirming (a) that a Benchmark Event has occurred, (ii) the Successor Rate or, as the case may be, the Alternative Rate, (iii) the applicable Adjustment Spread and (iv) the specific terms of the Benchmark Amendments (if any), in each case as determined in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph (I); and
- (ii) certifying that the Benchmark Amendments (if any) are necessary to ensure the proper operation of such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and (in either case) the applicable Adjustment Spread.

The Issue and Paying Agent shall display such certificate at its offices, for inspection by the Holders at all reasonable times during normal business hours.

Each of the Issue and Paying Agent, the Determination Agent and the Paying Agents shall be entitled to rely on such certificate (without liability to any person) as sufficient evidence thereof. The Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and the Adjustment Spread and the Benchmark Amendments (if any) specified in such certificate will (in the absence of manifest error or bad faith in the determination of the Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and the Adjustment Spread and the Benchmark Amendments (if any) and without prejudice to the Issue and Paying Agent's or the Determination Agent's or the Paying Agents' ability to rely on such certificate as aforesaid) be binding on the Issuer, the Issue and Paying Agent, the Determination Agent, the Paying Agents and the Holders.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this paragraph (I), if following the determination of any Successor Rate, Alternative Rate, Adjustment Spread or Benchmark Amendments (if any), in the Determination Agent's opinion there is any uncertainty between two or more alternative courses of action in making any determination or calculation under this paragraph (I), the Determination Agent shall promptly notify the Issuer thereof and the Issuer shall direct the Determination Agent in writing as to which alternative course of action to adopt. If the Determination Agent is not promptly provided with such direction, or is otherwise unable (other than due to its own gross negligence, willful default or fraud) to make such calculation or determination for any reason, it shall notify the Issuer thereof and the Determination Agent shall be under no obligation to make such calculation or determination and (in the absence of such gross negligence, willful default or fraud) shall not incur any liability for not doing so.

Without prejudice to the obligations of the Issuer under the foregoing paragraphs, the Original Reference Rate and the fallback provisions provided for herein will continue to apply unless and until a Benchmark Event has occurred. Upon the occurrence of a Benchmark Event, this paragraph (I) shall prevail.

As used in this paragraph (I):

- (ii) the Issuer, following consultation with the Independent Adviser determines, is customarily applied to the relevant Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be) in international debt capital markets transactions to produce an industry-accepted replacement rate for the Original Reference Rate; or (if the Issuer determines that no such spread is customarily applied);
- (iii) the Issuer, following consultation with the Independent Adviser and acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, determines, is recognised or acknowledged as being the industry standard for over-the-counter derivative transactions which reference the Original Reference Rate, where such rate has been replaced by the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be); (or if the Issuer determines that no such industry standard is recognised or acknowledged);
- (iv) if no such spread, formula or methodology can be determined in accordance with (i) to (iii) above, the Issuer, in its discretion, following consultation with the Independent Adviser and acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, determines to be appropriate, having regard to the objective, so far as is reasonably practicable in the circumstances and solely for the purposes of this subclause (iv) only, of reducing or eliminating any economic prejudice or benefit (as the case may be) to the Holders.

“Alternative Rate” means an alternative benchmark or screen rate which the Issuer following consultation with the Independent Adviser and acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, determines in accordance with paragraph (1) is customarily applied in the international debt capital markets transactions for the purposes of determining rates of interest (or the relevant component part thereof) in the same Specified Currency as the Notes.

EURO-COMMERCIAL PAPER PROGRAMME

Nominal Amount of this Note:

1. For value received, Santander Consumer Finance, S.A. (the “Issuer”) promises to pay to the bearer of this Note on the Maturity Date set out in the Final Terms, or on such earlier date as the same may become payable in accordance with paragraph 3 below (the “Relevant Date”), the above-mentioned Nominal Amount or, as the case may be, the Redemption Amount set out in the Final Terms, at the rate and at the times (if any) specified herein and in the Final Terms. Terms defined in the Final Terms attached hereto but not otherwise defined in this Note shall have the same meaning in this Note.

All such payments shall be made in accordance with an issue and paying agency agreement (the “Issue and Paying Agency Agreement”) dated 13 June 2025 (as amended and restated or supplemented from time to time) between the Issuer, Citibank, N.A., London Branch as issue agent and as principal paying agent (the “Issue and Paying Agent”), a copy of which is available for inspection at the offices of the Issue and Paying Agent at Citigroup Centre, Canada Square, Canary Wharf, London E14 5LB, United Kingdom, and subject to and in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth below. All such payments shall be made (upon presentation and surrender (as the case may be) of this Note) by transfer to an account denominated in the Specified Currency set out in the Final Terms maintained by the bearer in the principal financial centre in the country of that currency or, if this Note is denominated in Euro, by Euro cheque drawn on, or by transfer to a Euro account (or any other account to which Euro may be credited or transferred) maintained by the payee with, a bank in the principal financial centre of any member state of the European Union. The Issuer undertakes that, so long as the Notes are listed, traded and/or quoted on any listing authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system, there will at all times be a paying agent with a specified office in such place as may be required by the rules and regulations of the relevant listing authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system.

2. All payments in respect of this Note by or on behalf of the Issuer shall be made without set-off, counterclaim, fees, liabilities or similar deductions, and free and clear of, and without deduction or withholding for or on account of, taxes, levies, duties, assessments or charges of any nature now or hereafter imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by or on behalf of the Kingdom of Spain or any political subdivision thereof or any taxing authority or agency thereof or therein (“Taxes”). If the Issuer or any agent thereof is required by law or regulation to make any deduction or withholding for or on account of Taxes, the Issuer shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law or regulation, pay such additional amounts as shall be necessary in order that the net amounts received by the holder of this Note (each, a “Holder”) after such deduction or withholding shall equal the amount which would have been receivable hereunder in the absence of such deduction or withholding, except that the Issuer shall not be required to pay any additional amounts in relation to any payment:
 - (i) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a Holder of a Note who is liable for such taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges in respect of such Note by reason of his having some connection with Spain other than the mere holding of such Note; or

- (ii) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a Holder if the Issuer does not receive the information about the Notes as may be required in order to comply with the applicable Spanish tax reporting obligations; or
- (iii) in respect of any Note presented for payment more than thirty days after the Maturity Date (or, as the case may be, the Relevant Date) or, if applicable, the relevant Interest Payment Date or (in either case) the date on which the payment hereof is duly provided for, whichever occurs later, except to the extent that the relevant Holder would have been entitled to such additional amounts on presenting the same for payment on the expiry of such period of thirty days; or
- (iv) to, or to a third party on behalf of, individuals resident for tax purposes in The Kingdom of Spain if the Spanish tax authorities determine that payments made to such individuals are not exempt from withholding tax and require a withholding to be made; or
- (v) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a Spanish-resident legal entity subject to the Spanish Corporate Income Tax if the Spanish tax authorities determine that the Notes do not comply with applicable exemption requirements including those specified in the Reply to a Consultation of the Directorate General for Taxation (Dirección General de Tributos) dated 27 July 2004 and require a withholding to be made.

In addition, additional amounts as referred to in paragraph 2 will not be payable with respect to any Taxes that are imposed in respect of any combination of the items set forth above.

All payments in respect of this Note will be subject in all cases to (i) any fiscal or other laws and regulations applicable thereto in the place of payment, but without prejudice to the provisions of this paragraph and (ii) any withholding or deduction required pursuant to an agreement described in Section 1471(b) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the “Code”) or otherwise imposed pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, any regulations or agreements thereunder, any official interpretations thereof, or any law implementing an intergovernmental approach thereto and, accordingly, the Issuer shall not be required to pay any additional amounts under this paragraph.

3. This Note may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole, but not in part, at any time, on giving not less than 14 days’ notice to the Holders (which notice shall be irrevocable), at the Redemption Amount specified in the Final Terms, together with (if this Note is an interest bearing Note) interest accrued to the date fixed for redemption, if:
 - (a) the Issuer has or will become obliged to pay additional amounts as provided or referred to in paragraph 2 as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the laws or regulations of the Kingdom of Spain or any political subdivision thereof or any authority or agency thereof or therein having power to tax, or any change in the application or interpretation of such laws or regulations (including a holding by a court of competent jurisdiction), which change or amendment becomes effective on or after the Issue Date specified in the Final Terms; and
 - (b) such obligation cannot be avoided by the Issuer taking reasonable measures available to it;

provided, however, that no such notice of redemption shall be given earlier than 14 days prior to the earliest date on which the Issuer would be obliged to pay such additional amounts if a payment in respect of the Notes were then due.

Prior to the publication of any notice of redemption pursuant to this paragraph, the Issuer shall deliver to the Issue and Paying Agent:

- (a) a certificate signed by two authorised signatories of the Issuer stating that the Issuer is entitled to effect such redemption and setting forth a statement of facts showing that the conditions precedent to the right of the Issuer so to redeem have occurred; and

- (b) an opinion of independent legal advisers of recognised standing to the effect that the Issuer has or will become obliged to pay such additional amounts as a result of such change or amendment.

Upon the expiry of any such notice as is referred to in this paragraph, the Issuer shall be bound to redeem the Notes in accordance with this paragraph.

- 4. The Issuer or any subsidiary of the Issuer may at any time purchase Notes in the open market or otherwise and at any price, provided that all unmatured interest coupons (if this Note is an interest bearing Note) are purchased therewith.
- 5. All Notes so purchased by the Issuer otherwise than in the ordinary course of business of dealings in securities or as a nominee shall be cancelled and shall not be reissued or resold. All Notes so purchased by any subsidiary of the Issuer may be cancelled, held by such subsidiary or resold.
- 6. The payment obligations of the Issuer pursuant to the Notes constitute and at all times shall constitute direct, unconditional, unsubordinated and unsecured obligations (créditos ordinarios) of the Issuer. In accordance with Article 281 of the Insolvency Law or equivalent legal provision which replaces it in the future and Additional Provision 14.2 of Law 11/2015, but subject to any applicable legal and statutory exceptions and subject to any other ranking that may apply as a result of any mandatory provision of law (or otherwise), upon the insolvency (concurso de acreedores) of the Issuer the payment obligations of the Issuer under the Notes in respect of principal (and unless they qualify as subordinated claims (créditos subordinados) under Article 281 of the Insolvency Law or equivalent legal provision which replaces it in the future) will rank (a) pari passu and rateably without any preference among themselves and with any Senior Higher Priority Liabilities and (b) senior to (i) Senior Non-Preferred Liabilities and (ii) any present and future subordinated obligations (créditos subordinados) of the Issuer in accordance with Article 281 of the Insolvency Law.

“Law 11/2015” means Law 11/2015, of 18 June, on recovery and resolution of credit institutions and investment firms, as amended from time to time.

“Senior Higher Priority Liabilities” means any obligations in respect of principal of the Issuer under any Notes and any other unsecured and unsubordinated obligations (créditos ordinarios) of the Issuer, other than the Senior Non-Preferred Liabilities.

“Senior Non-Preferred Liabilities” means any unsubordinated and unsecured senior non-preferred obligations (créditos ordinarios no preferentes) of the Issuer under Additional Provision 14.2 of Law 11/2015, and any other obligations which, by law and/or by their terms, and to the extent permitted by Spanish law, rank pari passu with the Senior Non-Preferred Liabilities.

- 7. If the Maturity Date (or, as the case may be, the Relevant Date) or, if applicable, the relevant Interest Payment Date, is not a Payment Business Day (as defined herein) payment in respect hereof will not be made and credit or transfer instructions shall not be given until the next following Payment Business Day unless that date falls more than 364 days after the Issue Date, in which case payment shall be made on the immediately preceding Payment Business Day, and the bearer of this Note shall not be entitled to any interest or other sums in respect of such postponed payment.

As used herein, “Payment Business Day”, shall mean any day, other than a Saturday or a Sunday, which is either (i) if the Specified Currency set out in the Final Terms is any currency other than Euro, a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealings in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in the principal financial centre of the country of the Specified Currency set out in the Final Terms or (ii) if the Specified Currency set out in the Final Terms is Euro, a day which is a TARGET Business Day; and “T2” means the Trans-European Automated Real-time Gross Settlement Express Transfer payment system which utilises a single shared platform and which was launched on 20 March 2023 or any successor thereto.

“TARGET Business Day” or “TBD” means any day on which T2 is open for the settlement of payments in Euro.

8. This Note is negotiable and, accordingly, title hereto shall pass by delivery and the bearer shall be treated as being absolutely entitled to receive payment upon due presentation hereof (notwithstanding any notation of ownership or other writing thereon or notice of any previous loss or theft thereof).
9. If this is an interest bearing Note, then:
- (a) notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 1 above, if any payment of interest in respect of this Note falling due for payment prior to the Maturity Date remains unpaid on the fifteenth day after falling so due, the amount referred to in paragraph 1 shall be payable on such fifteenth day; and
 - (b) upon each payment of interest (if any) prior to the Maturity Date in respect of this Note, the Schedule hereto shall be duly completed by the Issue and Paying Agent to reflect such payment.
10. If this is a fixed rate interest bearing Note, interest shall be calculated on the above-mentioned Nominal Amount as follows:
- (a) interest shall be payable on the above-mentioned Nominal Amount in respect of each successive Interest Period (as defined below) from (and including) the Issue Date to (but excluding) the Maturity Date (or, as the case may be, to the Relevant Date), in arrears on the relevant Interest Payment Date, on the basis of the Day Count Convention specified in the Final Terms or, if none is specified, on the basis of the actual number of days in such Interest Period and a year of 360 days or, if this Note is denominated in Sterling, 365 days, at the Rate of Interest specified in the Final Terms with the resulting figure being rounded to the nearest amount of the Specified Currency which is available as legal tender in the country or countries (in the case of the Euro) of the Specified Currency (with halves being rounded upwards); and
 - (b) the period beginning on (and including) the Issue Date and ending on (but excluding) the first Interest Payment Date and each successive period beginning on (and including) an Interest Payment Date and ending on (but excluding) the next succeeding Interest Payment Date is an “Interest Period” for the purposes of this paragraph.
11. If this is a floating rate interest bearing Note, interest shall be calculated on the above-mentioned Nominal Amount as follows:
- (a) in the case of a Note which specifies EURIBOR as the Reference Rate in the Final Terms, the Rate of Interest will be the aggregate of EURIBOR and the Margin specified in the Final Terms (if any) above or below EURIBOR. The Rate of Interest determined for any Interest Period by reference to EURIBOR shall be subject to a floor of zero to ensure that the Rate of Interest on any Interest Period for Floating Rate Notes is not negative. Interest shall be payable on the above-mentioned Nominal Amount in respect of each successive Interest Period (as defined below) from (and including) the Issue Date to (but excluding) the Maturity Date (or, as the case may be, to the Relevant Date), in arrears on the relevant Interest Payment Date, on the basis of the Day Count Convention specified in the Final Terms or, if none is specified, on the basis of the actual number of days in such Interest Period and a year of 360 days.

As used in this Note (and unless otherwise specified in the Final Terms), “EURIBOR” shall be equal to EUR EURIBOR Reuters (as defined in the 2006 ISDA Definitions) or EUR-EURIBOR (as defined in the 2021 ISDA Definitions) as at 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time) or as near thereto as practicable on the second TARGET Business Day before the first day of the relevant Interest Period (a Interest Determination Date in respect of EURIBOR), as if the Reset Date (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) were the first day of such Interest Period and the Designated Maturity (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) were the number of months specified in the Final Terms in relation to the Reference Rate.

- (b) in the case of a Note which specifies ISDA Determination in the Final Terms, the Rate of Interest applicable to the Notes for each Interest Period will be the sum of the Margin and the relevant ISDA Rate where “ISDA Rate” in relation to any Interest Period means a rate equal to the Floating Rate (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) that would be determined by the Determination Agent under an interest rate swap transaction if the Determination Agent were acting as Determination Agent for that interest rate swap transaction under the terms of an agreement incorporating the ISDA Definitions (provided that in any circumstances where under the ISDA Definitions the Determination Agent would be required to exercise any discretion, including the ISDA selection of any reference banks and seeking quotations from reference banks, when calculating the relevant ISDA Rate, the relevant determination(s) which require the Determination Agent to exercise its discretion shall instead be made by the Issuer or its designee) and under which:

The Replacement Rate Determination Agent may be (x) a leading bank, broker-dealer or benchmark agent in the principal financial centre of the Specified Currency as appointed by the Determination Agent, (y) the Issuer, (z) an affiliate of the Issuer or the Determination Agent or (zz) such other entity that the Issuer determines to be competent to carry out such role.

In connection with the determination of the SOFR Replacement, the Replacement Rate Determination Agent will determine appropriate SOFR Replacement Conforming Changes.

Any determination, decision or election that may be made by the Determination Agent or Replacement Rate Determination Agent (as the case may be) pursuant to these provisions, will (in the absence of manifest error) be conclusive and binding on the Issuer, the Determination Agent, the Issue and Paying Agent and the Holders.

Following the designation of a SOFR Replacement, the Issuer may subsequently determine that a SOFR Transition Event and a related SOFR Replacement Date have occurred in respect of such SOFR Replacement, provided that the SOFR Benchmark has already been substituted by the SOFR Replacement and any SOFR Replacement Conforming Changes in connection with such substitution have been applied. - (b) if the applicable Unadjusted SOFR Replacement is equivalent to the ISDA Fallback Rate, the ISDA Fallback Adjustment; or
- (c) the spread adjustment (which may be a positive or negative value or zero) determined by the Replacement Rate Determination Agent giving due consideration to any industry-accepted spread adjustment, or method for calculating or determining such spread adjustment, for the replacement of the then-current SOFR Benchmark with the applicable Unadjusted SOFR Replacement for U.S. dollar-denominated floating rate securities at such time;

In connection with any such variation in accordance with this paragraph (i), the Issuer shall comply with the rules of any stock exchange on which the Notes are for the time being listed or admitted to trading.

Any Successor Rate, Alternative Rate, Adjustment Spread and the specific terms of any Benchmark Amendments, determined under this paragraph (i) will be notified promptly by the Issuer to the Determination Agent, the Paying Agents and the Holders. Such notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the effective date of the Benchmark Amendments, if any.

The Issue and Paying Agent shall display such certificate at its offices, for inspection by the Holders at all reasonable times during normal business hours.

Each of the Issue and Paying Agent, the Determination Agent and the Paying Agents shall be entitled to rely on such certificate (without liability to any person) as sufficient evidence thereof. The Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and the Adjustment Spread and the Benchmark Amendments (if any) specified in such certificate will (in the absence of manifest error or bad faith in the determination of the Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and the Adjustment Spread and the Benchmark Amendments (if any) and without prejudice to the Issue and Paying Agent's or the Determination Agent's or the Paying Agents' ability to rely on such certificate as aforesaid) be binding on the Issuer, the Issue and Paying Agent, the Determination Agent, the Paying Agents and the Holders.

If the Determination Agent is not promptly provided with such direction, or is otherwise unable (other than due to its own gross negligence, willful default or fraud) to make such calculation or determination for any reason, it shall notify the Issuer thereof and the Determination Agent shall be under no obligation to make such calculation or determination and (in the absence of such gross negligence, willful default or fraud) shall not incur any liability for not doing so.

REGULATION

The following is a summary of the most relevant aspects of the regulatory framework applicable to the Consumer Group, as well as the main factors that have directly or indirectly affected or are currently affecting its operations in a significant way.

In addition, see “Risk Factors”, which includes the specific and significant factors that the Consumer Group believes could significantly affect its operations.

EU fiscal and banking union

The project of achieving a European banking union was launched in the summer of 2012. Its main goal is to resume progress towards the European single market for financial services by restoring confidence in the European banking sector and ensuring the proper functioning of monetary policy in the eurozone.

The banking union is expected to be achieved through new harmonised banking rules (the single rulebook) and a new institutional framework with stronger systems for both banking supervision and resolution that will be managed at the European level. Its two main pillars are the Single Supervisory Mechanism (the “SSM”) and the Single Resolution Mechanism (the “SRM”).

The SSM (comprised by both the ECB and the national competent authorities) is designed to assist in making the banking sector more transparent, unified and safer.

The SSM represented a significant change in the approach to bank supervision at a European and global level, and resulted in the direct supervision by the ECB of the largest financial institutions, including the Consumer Group, and indirect supervision of around 3,500 financial institutions and is now one of the largest in the world in terms of assets under supervision. In the coming years, the SSM is expected to continue working on the establishment of a new supervisory culture importing best practices from the 19 national competent authorities that are part of the SSM and promoting a level playing field across participating Member States. Several steps have already been taken in this regard such as the publication of the Supervisory Guidelines; the approval of the Regulation (EU) No 468/2014 of the ECB of 16 April 2014, establishing the framework for cooperation within the SSM between the ECB and national competent authorities and with national designated authorities (the “SSM Framework Regulation”); the approval of a Regulation (Regulation (EU) 2016/445 of the European Central Bank of 14 March 2016 on the exercise of options and discretions available in Union law), as well as a set of guidelines on the application of CRR’s national options and discretions, etc. In addition, the SSM represents an extra cost for the financial institutions that have to fund it through the payment of supervisory fees.

The other main pillar of the EU banking union is the SRM, the main purpose of which is to ensure a prompt and coherent resolution of failing banks in the EU at minimum cost for the taxpayers and the real economy. The SRM Regulation (as defined below) establishes uniform rules and a procedure for the resolution of credit institutions and certain investment firms in the framework of the SRM and establishes a Single Resolution Fund (the “SRF”). Under the intergovernmental agreement (IGA) signed by 26 EU member states on 21 May 2014, contributions by banks raised at national level were transferred to the SRF. The Single Resolution Board (“SRB”), which is the central decision-making body of the SRM, started operating on 1 January 2015 and assumed its full resolution powers on 1 January 2016. The SRB is responsible for managing the SRF and its mission is to ensure that credit institutions and other entities under its oversight, which face serious difficulties, are resolved effectively with minimal costs to taxpayers and the real economy. From that date onwards, the SRF is also in place, and is funded by contributions from EU banks in accordance with the methodology approved by the Council of the EU.

The funding obligations of the SRF entered into force on 1 January 2016, and after eight years from that date, the available financial means of the SRF were set to be, in principle, of at least 1% of the amount of covered deposits of all participating banks. The SRB communicated on 15 February 2024 that no regular annual contributions were to be collected in 2024 from the institutions falling in scope of the SRF, as the target level of at least 1% of covered deposits held in the EU Member States participating in the SRM had been met (in line with Directive 2014/59/EU, of May 15, establishing a framework for the recovery and resolution of credit institutions and investment firms (the “BRRD I”), as amended by Directive (EU) 2019/879 of the European Parliament and of the Council of May 20, 2019 (the “BRRD II” and together with BRRD I, the “BRRD”)).

In order to complete such banking union, a single deposit guarantee scheme is still needed which may require a change to the existing European treaties. This is the subject of continued negotiation by European leaders to ensure further progress is made in European fiscal, economic and political integration.

Regulations adopted towards achieving a banking and/or fiscal union in the EU and decisions adopted by the ECB in its capacity as the main supervisory authority of the Consumer Group may have a material impact on its business, financial condition and results of operations.

Moreover, regulations adopted on structural measures to improve the resilience of EU credit institutions may have a material impact on the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of the Consumer Group. These regulations, if adopted, may also cause the Consumer Group to invest significant management attention and resources to make any necessary changes.

Capital, liquidity and funding requirements

Overview

As a Spanish financial institution, the Issuer is subject to the Capital Requirements Regulation (Regulation (EU) No 575/2013 of 26 June, of the European Parliament and of the Council on prudential requirements for credit institutions and investment firms) (“CRR I”) as amended by Regulation (EU) 2019/876 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 May, (the “CRR II” and together with the CRR I, the “CRR”) and the Capital Requirements Directive (Directive 2013/36/EU of 26 June, of the European Parliament on access to credit institution and investment firm activities and on prudential supervision of credit institutions and investment firms) (“CRD IV”) as amended by Directive (EU) 2019/878 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 May, amending the CRD IV with respect to exempted entities, financial holding companies, mixed financial holding companies, remuneration, supervisory measures and powers and capital conservation measures (the “CRD V” and together with the CRD IV, the “CRD”), through which the EU began implementing the Basel III capital reforms from 1 January 2014. While the CRD IV required national transposition, the CRR was directly applicable in all the EU member states. This regulation is complemented by several binding technical standards and guidelines issued by the European Banking Authority (“EBA”), directly applicable in all EU member states, without the need for national implementation measures either. The implementation of the CRD IV into Spanish law has taken place through Royal Decree Law 14/2013, of 29 November, on urgent measures to adapt Spanish law to EU regulations on the subject of supervision and solvency of financial entities, Law 10/2014, of 26 June, on the regulation, supervision and solvency of credit entities (“Law 10/2014”), Royal Decree 84/2015, of 13 February, implementing Law 10/2014, Bank of Spain Circular 2/2014, of 31 January, and Bank of Spain Circular 2/2016, of 2 February.

On 27 June 2019, a comprehensive package of reforms amending CRR, CRD IV, BRRD and Regulation (EU) No 1093/2010 (the “SRM Regulation”) came into force, including: (i) CRD V; (ii) BRRD II; (iii) CRR II; and (iv) Regulation (EU) 2019/877 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 20 May 2019 amending the SRM Regulation as regards the loss-absorbing and recapitalisation capacity of credit institutions and investment firms (“SRM Regulation II”, and, together with CRD V, BRRD II and CRR II, the “EU Banking Reforms”).

CRD V and BRRD II were implemented into Spanish law through Royal Decree-Law 7/2021, of 27 April, amending Law 11/2015 (“RDL 7/2021”) and Law 11/2015, Royal Decree 970/2021, which amended Royal Decree 84/2015, and Circulars 5/2021 and 3/2022 of the Bank of Spain, which amended Circular 2/2016 of the Bank of Spain, and Royal Decree 1041/2021, which amended Royal Decree 1012/2015 and completed the implementation of BRRD II into Spanish Law. Of note, however, is the uncertainty regarding how the EU Banking Reforms will be applied by the relevant authorities.

The EU Banking Reforms cover multiple areas, including the Pillar 2 framework, the leverage ratio, mandatory restrictions on distributions, permission for reducing own funds and eligible liabilities, macroprudential tools, a new category of “non-preferred” senior debt that should only be bailed-in after junior ranking instruments but before other senior liabilities, changes to the definitions of Tier 2 and Additional Tier 1 capital instruments, the MREL framework and the integration of the total loss absorbing capacity (“TLAC”) standard into EU legislation as mentioned above.

With respect to the European Commission's proposal to create a new asset class of “non-preferred” senior debt, on 27 December 2017, Directive 2017/2399 amending Directive 2014/59/EU with respect to the ranking of unsecured debt instruments in insolvency hierarchy was published in the Official Journal of the EU and sets forth a harmonised national insolvency ranking of unsecured debt instruments to facilitate the issuance by credit institutions of senior “non-preferred” instruments. Before that, Royal Decree-Law, 11/2017, of 23 June, approving urgent measures on financial matters created in Spain the new asset class of senior-non preferred debt.

On 27 October 2021, the European Commission published legislative proposals to amend CRR and the CRD IV, as well as a separate legislative proposal to amend CRR and BRRD in the area of resolution. In particular, the main objectives of the European Commission’s legislative proposals are to strengthen the risk-based capital framework, enhance the focus on environmental, social and governance (ESG) risks in the prudential framework, further harmonise supervisory powers and tools and reduce institutions’ administrative costs related to public disclosures and to improve access to institutions’ prudential data. Moreover, these legislative proposals include the following: (i) a directive of the European Parliament and of the Council amending CRD IV with respect to supervisory powers, sanctions, third-country branches, and environmental, social and governance risks and amending BRRD; (ii) a regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council and its annex amending CRR with respect to requirements for credit risk, credit valuation adjustment risk, operational risk, market risk and the output floor; and (iii) a regulation of the European Parliament and of the Council amending CRR and BRRD with respect to the prudential treatment of global systemically important institutions (“G-SIIs”) with a multiple point of entry resolution strategy and a methodology for the indirect subscription of instruments eligible for meeting the minimum requirement for own funds and eligible liabilities (the “CRR III Banking Package” or the so-called “daisy chains” proposal).

The European Parliament and the Council adopted on 19 October 2022 Regulation (EU) 2022/2036 amending CRR and BRRD. On 24 April 2024, the European Parliament voted to approve the amendments to the CRR and CRD IV proposed within the CRR III Banking Package. On 19 June 2024, Regulation (EU) 2024/1623 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 31 May 2024 amending the CRR as regards requirements for credit risk, credit valuation adjustment risk, operational risk, market risk and the output floor (the “CRR III”) and Directive (EU) 2024/1619 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 31 May 2024 amending Directive 2013/36/EU as regards supervisory powers, sanctions, third-country branches, and environmental, social and governance risks (the “CRD VI”) were published in the Official Journal of the European Union. The CRR III is generally applicable from 1 January 2025 (with some exceptions). The CRD VI must be transposed into national law by member states by 10 January 2026, and the way it will be implemented may vary depending on the relevant Member State.

In addition, on 18 April 2023, the European Commission adopted a legislative package proposal to adjust and strengthen the EU’s existing bank crisis management and deposit insurance framework (the “CMDI Proposal”), which had been under development for some time and was accelerated in light of recent bank failures. The package contains further amendments to the BRRD, the SRM Regulation and Directive 2014/49/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council on deposit guarantee schemes, which aim at further preserving financial stability, protecting taxpayers and depositors, and supporting the real economy and its competitiveness. As of the date of this Information Memorandum there is a high degree of uncertainty with regards to the adjustments to the CMDI Proposal and when they will be finally implemented in the EU

Capital Requirements

Credit institutions, such as the Issuer, are required, on a standalone and consolidated basis, to hold a minimum amount of regulatory capital of 8% of risk weighted assets (of which at least 4.5% must be CET1 capital and at least 6% must be Tier 1 Capital). In addition to the minimum regulatory capital requirements, the CRD IV also introduced five capital buffer requirements that must be met with CET1 capital: (1) the capital conservation buffer for unexpected losses, requiring additional CET1 of up to 2.5% of total risk weighted assets; (2) the institution-specific counter-cyclical capital buffer (consisting of the weighted average of the counter-cyclical capital buffer rates that apply in the jurisdictions where the relevant credit exposures are located), which may require as much as additional CET1 capital of 2.5% of total risk weighted assets or higher pursuant to the requirements set by the competent authority; (3) G-SIIs buffer requiring additional CET1 which shall be not less than 1% of risk weighted assets; (4) the other systemically important institutions (“O-SIIs”) buffer, which may be as much as 2% of risk weighted assets; and (5) the CET1 systemic risk buffer to prevent systemic or macro prudential risks of at least 1% of risk weighted assets (to be set by the competent authority). Entities are required to comply with the “combined buffer requirement” (broadly, the combination of the capital conservation buffer, the institution-specific countercyclical buffer and the higher of (depending on the institution) the systemic risk buffer, the G-SIIs buffer and the O-SIIs buffer, in each case as applicable to the institution).

In particular:

- (a) The Bank of Spain has not required the Issuer to maintain the systemic risk buffer.
- (b) The G-SIIs buffer applies to those institutions included in the list of global systemically important banks, which is updated annually by the Financial Stability Board (the “FSB”). The Issuer has not been classified as a G-SII by the FSB nor by the Bank of Spain so, unless otherwise indicated by the FSB or by the Bank of Spain in the future, it will not be required to maintain the G-SII buffer.
- (c) Likewise, the domestic systemically important institutions (“D-SII”) buffer applies to those institutions deemed to be of local systemic importance, domestic systemically important banks; the Issuer has not been considered a D-SII during 2024 and, thus, the Issuer will not be required to maintain a D-SII buffer during 2025 .
- (d) The percentages of the institution-specific countercyclical buffer (“CCB”) are revised each quarter. On 1 October 2024 the Bank of Spain agreed to raise the counter-cyclical buffer applicable to credit exposures in Spain to 1 per cent., in line with the “positive neutral rate” approach, in two stages: (i) from the fourth quarter of 2024, it has been raised to 0.5 % (applicable in the fourth quarter of 2025); and (ii) from the fourth quarter of 2025, it is expected to be raised by 0.5% to be set at 1 per cent. (applicable in the fourth quarter of 2026). On 18 December 2024, the Bank of Spain announced its intention to remain consistent with such strategy.

Moreover, Article 104 of the CRD IV, as implemented in Spain by Article 68 of Law 10/2014 and as amended by RDL 7/2021 and similarly Article 16 of the SSM Regulation also contemplate that in addition to the minimum Pillar 1 capital requirements and any applicable capital buffer, supervisory authorities may impose further Pillar 2 capital requirements to cover other risks, including those risks incurred by the individual institutions due to their activities not considered to be fully captured by the minimum capital requirements under the CRD IV and CRR regime, which should be set according to the specific situation of an institution excluding macroprudential or systemic risks, but including the risks incurred by individual institutions due to their activities (including those reflecting the impact of certain economic and market developments on the risk profile of an individual institution). This may result in the imposition of additional binding capital requirements on the Issuer and/or the Consumer Group pursuant to this Pillar 2 framework. Any failure by the Group to maintain its Pillar 1 minimum regulatory capital ratios and any Pillar 2 additional capital requirements or TLAC/MREL Requirements (as defined below) could result in administrative actions or sanctions (including restrictions on discretionary payments), which, in turn, may have a material adverse impact on its results of operations.

In addition, in accordance with Article 104b of CRD V, as implemented in Spain by Articles 69 and 69 bis of Law 10/2014, the institutions specific "Pillar 2" capital will consist of two parts: the abovementioned "Pillar 2" requirements ("P2R"), which are binding and a breach of which can have direct legal consequences for banks, and "Pillar 2" Guidance ("P2G"). According to Article 43.3.c) of Law 10/2014 banks shall meet at all times the P2G with CET1 capital on top of the level of binding capital (minimum and additional) requirements ("Pillar 1" capital requirements, P2R and the "combined buffer requirements"). If a bank does not meet its P2G, this will not result in automatic action of the supervisor and will not be used to determine the Maximum Distributable Amount (as defined below) trigger, but Article 69.1.e) of Law 10/2014 provides that when an institution repeatedly fails to meet the P2G it will trigger, where appropriate, the imposition of additional own funds requirements. The ECB recommends not to disclose the P2G and the CRD Directive also does not require its disclosure.

The ECB is required to carry out assessments under the CRD IV of the additional Pillar 2 capital requirements at least on an annual basis that may be imposed for each of the European banking institutions subject to SSM and accordingly requirements may change from year to year. Any additional capital requirement that may be imposed on the Consumer Group by the ECB pursuant to these assessments may require the Consumer Group to hold capital levels similar to, or higher than, those required under the full application of the CRD IV. There can be no assurance that the Consumer Group will be able to continue to maintain such capital ratios.

The EBA published on 19 December 2014 its final guidelines for common procedures and methodologies in respect of its SREP, as revised on 18 March 2022 with the aim of implementing the amendments to the CRD V Directive and CRR II and promoting convergence towards best supervisory practices (the “EBA SREP Guidelines”). Included in this were the EBA’s proposed guidelines for a common approach to determining the amount and composition of additional Pillar 2 capital requirements implemented on 1 January 2016. Under these guidelines, national supervisors must set a composition requirement for the Pillar 2 additional capital requirements to cover certain specified risks of at least 56% CET1 capital and at least 75% Tier 1 Capital.

Under article 104(a) of CRD V Directive (implemented into Spanish law by Article 94.6 of Royal Decree 84/2015), EU banks are now allowed to meet P2R with these minimum proportions of CET1 capital and Tier 1 capital.

The EBA SREP Guidelines also contemplate that national supervisors should not set additional capital requirements in respect of risks which are already covered by capital buffer requirements and/or additional macro-prudential requirements; and, accordingly, the above “combined buffer requirement” is in addition to the Pillar 1 and Pillar 2 capital requirements. Therefore capital buffers would be the first layer of capital to be eroded pursuant to the applicable stacking order, as set out in the “Opinion of the EBA on the interaction of Pillar 1, Pillar 2 and combined buffer requirements and restrictions on distributions” published on 16 December 2015. In this regard, under Article 141 of the CRD IV, Member States of the EU must require that an institution that fails to meet the “combined buffer requirement” be prohibited from paying any “Discretionary Payments” (which are defined broadly by the CRD IV as payments relating to CET1, variable remuneration and discretionary pension benefits and distributions relating to Additional Tier 1 capital Notes), until it calculates its applicable restrictions and communicates them to the regulator. Thereafter, any such discretionary payments shall be subject to such restrictions. The restrictions shall be scaled according to the extent of the breach of the “combined buffer requirement” and calculated as a percentage of the profits of the institution since the last distribution of profits or “discretionary payment”. Such calculation shall result in a “Maximum Distributable Amount” in each relevant period. As an example, the scaling is such that in the bottom quartile of the “combined buffer requirement”, no “discretionary distributions” will be permitted to be paid. Articles 43 to 49 of Law 10/2014 and Chapter II of Title II of Royal Decree 84/2015 implement the above provisions in Spain. In particular, Article 48 of Law 10/2014 and Articles 73 and 74 of Royal Decree 84/2014 deal with restrictions on distributions. Furthermore, pursuant to article 16bis of Law 11/2015 and article 48ter of Law 10/2014, the calculation of the Maximum Distributable Amount, as well as consequences of, and pending, such calculation could also take place as a result of the breach of MREL and a breach of the minimum leverage ratio buffer requirement.

CRD V further clarifies that P2R should be positioned in the relevant stacking order of own funds requirements above the Pillar 1 capital requirements and below the “combined buffer requirement” or the leverage ratio buffer requirement, as applicable.

In connection with this, the Issuer was informed by the ECB on 10 December 2024 of its decision regarding prudential minimum capital requirements as of 1 January 2025, following the results of SREP. The 2024 SREP Decision required the Issuer to maintain a CET1 capital ratio of at least 8.54% on a consolidated basis. This 8.54% CET1 capital requirement includes: the minimum Pillar 1 requirement (4.5%); the Pillar 2 requirement (0.84%); the capital conservation buffer (2.5%); and the counter-cyclical buffer (around 0.70%).

As of December 2024, the Issuer’s total capital ratio was 17.17% on a consolidated basis (fully loaded) and the Issuer’s CET1 capital ratio was 12.71% on a consolidated basis (fully loaded) (data calculated without using the IFRS 9 transitional arrangements, since the Issuer incorporated the full day-1 impact on IFRS9 adoption). Although CRR and CRD Directive do not require disclosure of the Pillar 2 guidance, the Market Abuse Regulation (“MAR”) ESMA Guidelines on delay in the disclosure of inside information and interaction with prudential supervision, as amended on 5 January 2022, provide that Pillar 2 guidance may be inside information if, for example, the difference between the Pillar 2 guidance and the institution’s level of capital is not minor and is likely to involve a major reaction by the institution, such as a capital increase; or if the institution’s Pillar 2 guidance is not in line with market expectations. To the extent that Pillar 2 guidance constitutes inside information, it will need to be disclosed pursuant to the obligations applicable to the Bank contained in Regulation (EU) No 596/2014 of April 16, 2014, on market abuse.

In addition to the above, the CRR also contains a binding 3% Tier 1 leverage ratio (“LR”) requirement, and which institutions must meet in addition and separately to their risk-based requirements.

Moreover, Article 92.1a of CRR includes a leverage ratio buffer for G-SIIs to be met with Tier 1 capital and set at 50% of the applicable risk weighted G-SIIs buffer and that is in force since 1 January 2023. Pursuant to Article 141b of the CRD IV and Article 48ter of Law 10/2014, G-SIIs shall be also obliged to determine their Maximum Distributable Amount and restrict Discretionary Payments where they do not meet the leverage ratio buffer requirement under Article 92.1a of CRR.

MREL requirements

Under article 92a of CRR, institutions such as the Issuer that are identified as resolution entities and are G-SII shall satisfy the following requirements for own funds and eligible liabilities: (a) 18% of risk weighted assets, and (b) 6.75% of its leverage ratio exposure (the Pillar 1 TLAC/MREL Requirements for G-SIIs). On top of that, Article 45 of BRRD provides that Member States shall ensure that institutions meet, at all times, a minimum MREL requirement (the “TLAC/MREL Requirements”). Therefore, resolution entities and, potentially, subsidiaries which are credit institutions but not resolution entities themselves could be subject to an institution-specific TLAC/MREL Requirement, which may be higher than the Pillar 1 TLAC/MREL Requirements for G-SIIs.

According to new Article 16.a) of the BRRD, any failure by an institution to meet the “combined buffer requirement” when considered in addition to the applicable minimum TLAC/MREL Requirements is intended to be treated in a similar manner as a failure to meet the “combined buffer requirement” on top of its minimum regulatory capital requirements (i.e. a resolution authority will have the power to impose restrictions or prohibitions on discretionary payments by the Issuer). The referred Article 16.a) of the BRRD includes a potential nine-month grace period whereby the resolution authority will assess on a monthly basis whether to exercise its powers, after such nine-month period the resolution authority is compelled to exercise its power to restrict discretionary payments (subject to certain limited exceptions). These restrictions have been implemented in Spain by means of Article 16bis of Law 11/2015.

In addition, the Issuer received on 7 May 2025 a formal notification from the Bank of Spain of the binding MREL requirement for the Issuer at a subconsolidated level, as determined by the SRB. This MREL requirement has been set at 20.20% of TREA and 5.92% of LRE, that shall be met at all times from the notification date. In addition, it should be noted that CET1 used to meet MREL-TREA cannot be used to meet the CBR (Article 128 CRDV). CBR is the Combined Buffer Requirement (CCB, CCyB and systemic buffers).

The Issuer is part of the resolution group headed by Banco Santander, which is the resolution entity of the resolution group to which the Issuer belongs.

Institutions that are subsidiaries of a resolution entity and that are not themselves resolution entities are required to hold sufficient amounts of internal MREL, being eligible debt instruments within the group that would be issued or subscribed for internally, in a sufficient amount to sustain the resolution strategy. There may therefore also be a requirement for internal MREL to be issued from the Issuer, as the subsidiary of a resolution entity, within the group and up ultimately to Banco Santander, the resolution entity.

Additionally, the Basel Committee is currently in the process of reviewing and issuing recommendations in relation to risk asset weightings which may lead to increased regulatory scrutiny of risk asset weightings in the jurisdictions who are members of the Basel Committee.

Deposit Guarantee Fund ("DGF") and Single Resolution Fund ("SRF")

The Consumer Group belongs to the DGF, which is aimed at guaranteeing the return of guaranteed deposits when the depository institution has been declared bankrupt (concurso de acreedores) or when deposits are not returned, provided an agreement has not been reached to commence a resolution process of the institution up to the limit contemplated in Royal Decree-Law 16/2011, of 14 October 2011, creating the Deposit Guarantee Fund for Credit Institutions. The standard annual contribution to be made by institutions to the fund is determined by the DGF Management Committee, pursuant to the provisions of Bank of Spain Circular 5/2016 of 27 May on the calculation method to ensure that the contributions by member institutions of the Deposit Guarantee Fund are proportional to their risk profile, as amended by Circular 1/2018 of 31 January 2018.

In addition, in March 2014, the European Parliament and the Council reached a political agreement on the creation of the second pillar of the banking union, the SRM. The main objective of the SRM is to ensure that all possible bankruptcies that occur in the future in the banking union are managed efficiently, at a minimum cost to taxpayers and the actual economy. The SRM's scope of activity is identical to that of the SSM, being a central authority.

The regulations governing the banking union are aimed at ensuring that the banks and their shareholders (primarily) and, if required, the bank's creditors (partly), are those that finance resolutions. Nevertheless, another source of finance must also be available, if the contributions by shareholders and bank creditors are insufficient. This is the SRF, administered by the SRB, which is the ultimate entity responsible for deciding whether or not the resolution of the bank should be initiated, while the operating decisions are made in conjunction with the national resolution authorities. The regulations establish that banks must contribute to the SRF for eight years.

The SRB calculates the contributions to be made by each entity to the SRF, in accordance with the provisions of Regulation (EU) 806/2014 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 15 July 2014. The calculation is based on:

- (a) contributions that are calculated in proportion to the individual entity's liabilities, excluding net worth and guaranteed deposits, with respect to the total liabilities minus net worth and guaranteed deposits of all the authorised entities in the participating Member States («annual base contribution»); and
- (b) contributions that are calculated according to the entity's risk profile («risk-adjusted contribution»).

The amount accrued from contributions to DGF and the SRF at 31 December 2024 amounted to 26,133 thousand euros (64,982 thousand euros to 31 December 2023). In 2024 it has been decided that there will be no contribution to the Single Resolution Fund from the Single Resolution Board (SRB).

Non-performing exposures (“NPEs”)

On 15 March 2018, the ECB published its supervisory expectations on prudent levels of provision for non-performing loans (“NPLs”). The document was published as a subsequent addendum (the “Addendum”) to the ECB's guidance on non-performing loans for credit institutions of 20 March 2017, which clarified the ECB's supervisory expectations with regard to the identification, measurement, management and write-off of NPLs. The ECB states that the Addendum sets out what it considers to be prudential provisioning of non-performing exposures, in order to avoid an excessive build-up of non-covered aged NPLs on banks' balance sheets in the future, which would require specific supervisory measures.

In this respect, the ECB states that it will assess any differences between banks' practices and the prudential provisioning expectations laid out in the Addendum at least annually and will link the supervisory expectations in this Addendum to new NPLs classified as such from 1 April 2018 onwards. In addition, banks will therefore be asked to inform the ECB of any differences between their practices and the prudential provisioning expectations, as part of the SREP supervisory dialogue, as from early 2021. This could ultimately result in the ECB requiring banks to apply specific adjustments to their net worth calculations when the accounting treatment applied by the bank is not considered prudent from a supervisory perspective which, in turn, could have an impact on the banks' capital position.

In August 2019, the ECB further revised its supervisory expectations for prudential provisioning of new NPEs taking into account the adoption of the new Regulation (EU) 2019/630, which outlines the Pillar 1 treatment for NPEs, complements existing prudential rules and requires a deduction from own funds when NPEs are not sufficiently covered by provisions or other adjustments.

Loss absorbing powers by the Relevant Resolution Authority

The BRRD (which has been implemented in Spain through Law 11/2015 and Royal Decree 1012/2015) is designed to provide authorities with tools to intervene sufficiently early and quickly in unsound or failing institutions so as to ensure the continuity of the institution's critical financial and economic functions, while minimising the impact of an institution's failure on the economy and financial system.

See “Risk Factors – General risks relating to the Notes – Risks related to early intervention and resolution - Law 11/2015 enables a range of actions to be taken in relation to credit institutions and investment firms considered to be at risk of failing. The taking of any action under Law 11/2015 could materially affect the value of any debt securities” for additional information.

Digital Service Tax in Spain

On 15 October 2020, Spain enacted the Law 4/2020 that introduced a new tax on certain digital services. This law entered into force on 16 January 2021. The Digital Services Tax ("DST") is an indirect tax applicable to the provision of certain digital services when users are located in Spain (online advertising services targeted at users, online intermediary services and data transmissions) at a rate of 3% over gross income. Companies will be subject to the tax if (i) net turnover is over EUR 750 million (globally), and (ii) total revenues from taxable digital services in Spain are over EUR 3 million. The Preamble of the Law states the provisional nature of the DST until an international consensus on the taxation of digital business models is reached.

PSD2

Directive (EU) 2015/2366 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 25 November 2015 on payment services in the internal market (the "PSD2 Directive") has been fully transposed into Spanish law, which took place after the deadline for PSD2 transposition (13 January 2018); notwithstanding the additional transitional period until 31 December 2020 in relation to the requirements on security measures (mainly due to their potential negative impact on electronic commerce) by means of Royal Decree-Law 19/2018 of 23 November 2018 on payment services and other urgent measures in financial matters, Royal Decree 736/2019 of 20 December 2019 on the legal regime for payment services and payment institutions and Order ECE/1263/2019 of 26 December 2019 on transparency of conditions and information requirements applicable to payment services. The PSD2 Directive essentially regulates (a) transparency conditions and (b) the rights and obligations in contracts between payment service providers and users, applying its regime to the objective scope of payment services provided by credit institutions, payment service entities and electronic money institutions. In addition, it provides for a set of precautionary measures (prohibition of surcharges for the use of payment Notes at commercial establishments or online, unconditional right to the return for direct debits in euros, reduction of liability for unauthorised payments), security requirements (protection of consumer financial data and enhanced security requirements for electronic payments).

In particular, the new payment services introduced by PSD2 feature the services of (a) payment initiation; and (b) account information. Both services involve access by third parties (suppliers to third parties) to payment service users' accounts held with credit institutions. This means the opening up of the payment market to these new competitors ("third-party providers"), who can operate directly through the payment service user's account at their credit institution, without having to open an account themselves to operate. This PSD2 Directive regime and the operational and technological efforts made to adapt it, together with the introduction of the so-called "open banking", will have a substantial impact on the business model for payment services offered by credit institutions, by allowing third parties not related to credit institutions to access their infrastructure, for the purposes of obtaining account information and initiating payment services with bank customers/potential new users of third-party payment services, subject to specific limitations under Articles 66, 67 et seq. In essence, this leads to an increase in the regulatory cost of adaptation of credit institutions, a strengthening of their technological systems for operational and integration purposes and an intensification of competition in the payment services sector, represented mainly by non-credit institution providers subject to a less onerous regulatory regime or, directly, not subject to a prudential supervision regime.

General State Budget in Spain

On 28 December 2021, Spain enacted Law 11/2021, of the General State Budget for 2022, which includes, among other measures, the regulation of a minimum effective tax rate introduced in the Spanish Corporate Income Tax Law and the Non-Residents Income Tax Law with effects as of 1 January 2022.

Tax on Interest Margin and Commissions of certain financial entities

On 21 December 2024, Spain enacted Law 7/2024 creating a new Tax on Interest Margin and Commissions of certain financial entities, applicable for three fiscal years beginning 1 January 2024 and which targets the positive margin of interest and commissions obtained in Spain by credit institutions, financial credit establishments, and Spanish branches of foreign credit institutions. The tax features a progressive rate structure ranging from 1% to 7% (the latter applying to taxable bases exceeding €5 billion), with a notable reduction of €100m in the tax base for calculating the taxable amount. The tax liability can be reduced by 25% of the Corporate Income Tax liability for the same fiscal year, with specific proportional rules applying for CIT consolidated groups. Furthermore, a deduction applies when return on assets (ROA) falls below 0.7%, demonstrating the legislator's intention to avoid excessive taxation.

Global Minimum Tax

On 22 December 2022, the European Commission approved Directive 2022/2523 ensuring a minimum effective tax rate for multinational enterprise groups and large domestic groups in the EU. The Directive follows closely the Pillar Two rules of the OECD Inclusive Framework on Base Erosion and Profit Shifting and should have been transposed by the Member States into domestic law throughout 2023, and should have entered into force for fiscal years starting on 1 January 2024. Pillar Two rules apply to multinational groups with a turnover of more than EUR 750 million and entails a minimum tax of 15% calculated on adjusted accounting profit on a jurisdiction-by-jurisdiction basis. On 21 December 2024, the Spanish Official Gazette published Law 7/2024 that transposes the European Directive and approves a domestic top-up tax from 2024. Nonetheless, note the Spanish domestic legislation has introduced permanent and transitional safe harbors (aligned with the Directive) to ease the initial compliance burden. In other relevant countries where the Group is present the regulation is enacted or substantially enacted (mainly in the UK and in EU countries). The impact of this new regulation in 2024 was not relevant, since the effective tax rates calculated under Pillar Two rules in most jurisdictions in which the Consumer Group operates are above 15%. However, the new regulations entail an important administrative burden.

New accounting framework

The Bank of Spain Circular 4/2017, of 27 November 2017, to credit institutions on public and confidential financial reporting rules and standard financial statements ("Circular 4/2017"), which repealed the former Bank of Spain Circular 4/2004 of 22 December 2004, after successive amendments, adapts the accounting system of Spanish credit institutions to the changes resulting from the adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) - IFRS 9 and IFRS 15, applicable as from 1 January 2018, in relation to the accounting criteria applicable to financial instruments and ordinary revenue.

Annex IX of Circular 4/2017 ("Annex IX") develops the general framework for credit risk management in accounting terms, essentially maintaining the amendments introduced by Circular 4/2016, of 27 April 2016 and mainly regulates the policies for the granting, modifying, evaluating, monitoring and controlling of transactions, which include their accounting and the estimation of credit risk loss hedging. In addition, a generally stricter regime is introduced for revaluation, mainly with respect to the general procedures of valuation and monitoring of real estate collateral and the valuation of properties used as collateral for mortgage loans (supplemented by the application of automatic methods to obtain Automated Valuation Model valuations and specific criteria applicable to valuations performed by valuation companies, with strict requirements).

Adaptation to the accounting criteria of IFRS 9 and IFRS 15 since 2018 has had a substantial influence on the accounting plans of credit institutions, mainly due to the effects of the impairment of financial assets, which are subject to new classification criteria and the move from the "incurred losses" model to the "expected credit losses" model, applicable to financial assets measured at amortised cost and to financial assets valued at fair value, with changes in other overall results. This has had a significant impact on credit institutions' provisioning models, leading to accounting adjustments/reduced reserves, in addition to the major regulatory costs that credit institutions had to bear in 2018.

Data privacy and cybersecurity

The Consumer Group receives, maintains, transmits, stores and otherwise processes proprietary, sensitive and confidential data, including public and non-public personal information of its customers, employees, counterparties and other third parties, including, but not limited to, personally identifiable information and personal financial information. The collection, sharing, use, retention, disclosure, protection, transfer and other processing of this information is governed by stringent federal, state, local and foreign laws, rules, regulations, and standards, and the legal and regulatory framework for privacy, data protection and cybersecurity is in considerable flux and evolving rapidly. As data privacy and cybersecurity risks for banking organisations and the broader financial system have significantly increased in recent years, data protection and cybersecurity issues have become the subject of increasing legislative and regulatory focus.

Internationally, virtually every jurisdiction in which the Consumer Group operates has established its own privacy, data protection and cybersecurity legal and regulatory framework with which the Consumer Group must comply. For example, on 25 May 2018, the Regulation (EU) 2016/279 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016, on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data (the “General Data Protection Regulation” or “GDPR”) became directly applicable in all Member States of the EU. To align the Spanish legal regime with the GDPR, Spain has enacted the Organic Law 3/2018, of 5 December, on Data Protection and the safeguarding of digital rights which has repealed the Spanish Organic Law 15/1999, of 13 December, on data protection. Additionally, following the UK’s withdrawal from the EU, the Consumer Group is also subject to the UK General Data Protection Regulation (“UK GDPR”) (i.e., a version of the GDPR as implemented into the UK law).

Although a number of basic existing principles have remained the same, the GDPR and the UK GDPR introduced extensive new obligations on both data controllers and processors, as well as rights for data subjects.

The GDPR and UK GDPR, together with national legislation, regulations and guidelines of the EU Member States governing the processing of personal data, impose strict obligations and restrictions on the ability to collect, use, retain, protect, disclose, transfer and otherwise process personal data. In particular, the GDPR and UK GDPR include obligations and restrictions concerning the security and confidentiality of personal data, such as obtaining consent from the individuals to whom the personal data relates for certain processing activities, using safeguards on transfers of personal data out of the EEA and the UK, respectively, and making notifications with respect to certain security breaches, among other. The GDPR and UK GDPR also impose significant fines and penalties for non-compliance of up to the higher of 4 per cent. of annual worldwide turnover or €20 million (or £17.5 million under the UK GDPR), and, for other specified infringements, fines and penalties of up to the higher of 2 per cent. of annual worldwide turnover or €10 million (or £8.7 million under UK GDPR). European data protection authorities have already imposed fines for GDPR violations up to, in some cases, hundreds of millions of euros. While the UK GDPR currently imposes substantially the same obligations as the GDPR, the UK GDPR will not automatically incorporate changes to the GDPR going forward (which would need to be specifically incorporated by the UK government). Moreover, the UK government has publicly announced plans to reform the UK GDPR in ways that, if formalised, are likely to deviate from the GDPR, all of which creates a risk of divergent parallel regimes and related uncertainty, along with the potential for increased compliance costs and risks for affected businesses.

The implementation of the GDPR, UK GDPR and other data protection regimes has required substantial amendments to the procedures and policies of the Consumer Group. The changes have impacted, and could further adversely impact, its business by increasing its operational and compliance costs. The Consumer Group expects the number of jurisdictions adopting their own data privacy and cybersecurity laws to increase, which will likely require the Consumer Group to devote additional significant operational resources for its compliance efforts and incur additional significant expenses. This legal environment is also likely to increase its exposure to risk of claims that the Consumer Group has not complied with all applicable privacy, data protection and cybersecurity laws, rules, regulations and standards.

Recent legal developments in the EEA, including recent rulings from the CJEU and from various EU Member State data protection authorities, have created complexity and uncertainty regarding transfers of personal data from the EEA to the United States and other so-called third countries outside the EEA. While the Consumer Group has taken steps to mitigate its impact, such as implementing the European Commission’s standard contractual clauses (“SCCs”) the efficacy and longevity of these mechanisms remain uncertain. Although the UK currently has an adequacy decision from the European Commission, such that SCCs are not required for the transfer of personal data from the EEA to the UK, that decision will sunset on 27 June 2025 although it has now been proposed to extend the adequacy decision until 27 December 2025, pending approval by the European Data Protection Board and it may be revoked in the future by the European Commission if the UK data protection regime is reformed in ways that deviate substantially from the GDPR. Adding further complexity for international data transfers, in March 2022, the UK adopted its own International Data Transfer Agreement for transfers of personal data out of the UK to so-called third countries, as well as an international data transfer addendum that can be used with the SCCs for the same purpose. Moreover, on 10 July 2023, the European Commission adopted an adequacy decision concluding that the US ensures an adequate level of protection for personal data transferred from the EEA to the US under the EU-U.S. Data Privacy Framework (followed on 12 October 2023, with the adoption of an adequacy decision in the UK for the UK-US Data Bridge). However, the adequacy decision does not foreclose, and is likely to face, future legal challenges and the ongoing legal uncertainty may increase the Consumer Group’s costs and its ability to efficiently process personal data from the EEA or the UK. In addition to the ongoing legal uncertainty with respect to data transfers from the EEA or the UK, additional costs may need to be incurred in order to implement necessary safeguards to comply with the GDPR and the UK GDPR and potential new rules and restrictions on the flow of data across borders could increase the cost and complexity of conducting business in some markets. If the Consumer Group's policies and practices or those of its vendors are, or are perceived to be, insufficient, or if the Consumer Group's users have concerns regarding the transfer of data from the EEA or the UK to the US, the Consumer Group could be subject to enforcement actions or investigations by individual EU or UK data protection authorities or lawsuits by private parties.

Additionally, the EU adopted Regulation (EU) 2022/2554, or the Digital Operational Resilience Act ("DORA"), in November 2022, which will be effective from 17 January 2025. DORA, which will apply as lex specialis for the financial sector regarding cybersecurity, aims to achieve a common level of digital operational resilience as well as consolidate and upgrade existing Information Communication Technologies ("ICT") risk requirements that had been addressed separately in different regulations and directives, such as Directive (EU) 2022/2555 (otherwise known as the NIS 2 Directive). DORA establishes a set of uniform requirements for network and information systems security structured in five pillars: (i) ICT risk management and governance, (ii) ICT-related incident management, classification and reporting, (iii) digital operational resilience testing, (iv) management of third-party ICT risk, and (v) information and intelligence sharing.

While the Consumer Group has taken steps designed to mitigate the impact of risks and uncertainties in connection with applicable privacy, data protection and cybersecurity laws, rules, regulations and standards by implementing supplementary measures designed in accordance therewith, the efficacy and longevity of any steps the Consumer Group may take to mitigate their impact remain uncertain due to the fast-moving legal and regulatory environment

Privacy, data protection and cybersecurity laws, rules, regulations and standards continue to evolve and may result in ever-increasing public scrutiny and escalating levels of enforcement and sanctions. The Consumer Group may become subject to new legislation or regulations concerning privacy, data protection or cybersecurity, which could require to incur significant additional costs and expenses in an effort to comply. The Consumer Group could also be adversely affected if new legislation, regulations or standards are adopted or if existing legislation or regulations are modified or interpreted such that the Consumer Group is required to alter its systems or require changes to its business practices, processes or privacy policies. If cybersecurity, data privacy, data protection, data transfer or data retention laws, rules or regulations are implemented, interpreted or applied in a manner inconsistent with the Consumer Group's current practices or policies, or if it fails to comply (or is perceived to have failed to comply) with applicable laws, rules and regulations relating to data privacy and cybersecurity, the Consumer Group may be subject to substantial fines, civil or criminal penalties, costly litigation (including class actions), claims, proceedings, judgments, awards, penalties, sanctions, regulatory enforcement actions, government investigations or inquiries, or other adverse impacts, or be ordered to change its business practices, policies or systems in a manner that adversely impacts the Consumer Group's operating results, any of which could have a material adverse effect on its business.

Artificial Intelligence ("AI")

The Consumer Group utilises and is continuing to explore further uses of AI in connection with its business, products and services. Particularly, the Consumer Group is using AI for transaction monitoring and sanctions screening, improving customer experience and automating processes to reduce operational risk, among others. However, regulation of AI is rapidly evolving worldwide as legislators and regulators are increasingly focused on these powerful emerging technologies. The technologies underlying AI and its uses are subject to a variety of laws and regulations, including intellectual property, privacy, data protection, cybersecurity, consumer protection, competition, and equal opportunity laws, and are expected to be subject to increased regulation and new laws or new applications of existing laws and regulations. AI is the subject of ongoing review by various US governmental and regulatory agencies, and various US states and other foreign jurisdictions are applying, or are considering applying, their platform moderation, cybersecurity, and data protection laws and regulations to AI or are considering legal and regulatory frameworks for AI.

For example, in Europe, the EU's Artificial Intelligence Act (the "AI Act") entered into force on 1 August 2024. The AI Act establishes, among other things a risk-based governance framework for regulating AI systems operating in the EU market. This framework would categorize AI systems based on the risks associated with such AI systems' intended purposes as creating "unacceptable", "high", "limited" or “minimal” risks. There is a risk that the Consumer Group’s current or future AI-powered software or applications may be categorized as certain risk categories that may obligate the Consumer Group to comply with the applicable requirements of the AI Act, which may impose additional costs on the Consumer Group, increase its risk of liability, or adversely affect its business. For example, “high” risk AI systems are required, among other things, to implement and maintain certain risk and quality management systems, conduct certain conformity and risk assessments, use appropriate data governance and management practices, including in development and training, and meet certain standards related to testing, technical robustness, transparency, human oversight, and cybersecurity. Even if the Consumer Group’s current AI-powered software or applications are not categorised as “high” risk AI systems, it may be subject to additional transparency and other obligations for “limited” or “minimal” risk AI systems. The AI Act sets forth certain penalties, including fines of up to the greater of €35 million or 7 per cent. of worldwide annual turnover for the prior year for violations related to offering prohibited AI systems or data governance, fines of up to the greater of €15 million or 3 per cent. of worldwide annual turnover for the prior year for violations related to the requirements for “high” risk AI systems, and fines of up to the greater of €7.5 million or 1.5 per cent. of worldwide annual turnover for the prior year for violations related to supplying incorrect, incomplete or misleading information to EU and member state authorities. This regulatory framework is expected to have a material impact on the way AI is regulated in the EU (and, potentially, globally), together with developing guidance and decisions in this area.

The Consumer Group may not be able to anticipate how to respond to these rapidly evolving laws and regulations, and it may need to expend resources to adjust the Consumer Group’s offerings in certain jurisdictions if the legal and regulatory frameworks are inconsistent across jurisdictions. Furthermore, because AI technology itself is highly complex and rapidly developing, it is not possible to predict all of the legal or regulatory risks that may arise relating to the use of AI. If laws and regulations relating to AI are implemented, interpreted or applied in a manner inconsistent with the Consumer Group’s current practices or policies, such laws and regulations may adversely affect the Consumer Group’s use of AI and its ability to provide and to improve its services, require additional compliance measures and changes to its operations and processes, result in increased compliance costs and potential increases in civil claims against the Consumer Group, any of which could adversely affect its operating results, financial condition and prospects.

TAXATION

The following is a general description of certain tax considerations. The information provided below does not purport to be a complete summary of tax law and practice currently applicable and is subject to any changes in law and the interpretation and application thereof, which could be made with retroactive effect. The following summary does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all the tax considerations that may be relevant to a decision to acquire, hold or dispose of the Notes, and does not purport to deal with the tax consequences applicable to all categories of investors, some of whom (such as dealers in securities) may be subject to special rules. In particular, this tax section does not address the Spanish tax consequences applicable to “look-through” entities (such as trusts or estates) that may be subject to the tax regime applicable to such non-Spanish entities under the Spanish Non-Resident Income Tax (“NRIT”) rules and regulations, to individuals who acquire the Notes by reason of employment or to pension funds or collective investment in transferrable securities (UCITS). Prospective investors who are in any doubt as to their position should consult with their own professional advisers.

This summary is based on Spanish tax law, along with any administrative pronouncements, judicial decisions, all as of the date hereof, changes to any of which may affect the tax consequences described herein, possibly with retroactive effect.

In addition, investors should note that the appointment by an investor in Notes, or any person through which an investor holds Notes, of a custodian, collection agent or similar person in relation to such Notes in any jurisdiction may have tax or withholding tax implications. Investors should consult their own tax advisors in relation to the tax consequences for them of any such appointment.

The proposed financial transactions tax (“FTT” or “Financial Transaction Tax”)

On 14 February 2013, the European Commission published a proposal (the “Commission's proposal”) for a Directive for a common Financial Transactions Tax in Belgium, Germany, Estonia, Greece, Spain, France, Italy, Austria, Portugal, Slovenia and Slovakia (the “Participating Member States”). However, Estonia has since stated that it will not participate.

The Commission's proposal has very broad scope and could, if introduced, apply to certain dealings in Notes (including secondary market transactions) in certain circumstances. The issuance and subscription of Notes should, however, be exempt.

Under the Commission's proposal, Financial Transactions Tax could apply in certain circumstances to persons both within and outside of the participating Member States. Generally, it would apply to certain dealings in the Notes where at least one party is a financial institution, and at least one party is established in a Participating Member State. A financial institution may be, or be deemed to be, “established” in a Participating Member State in a broad range of circumstances, including (a) by transacting with a person established in a Participating Member State or (b) where the financial instrument which is subject to the dealings is issued in a Participating Member State.

However, the Financial Transactions Tax proposal remains subject to negotiation between Participating Member States. It may therefore be altered prior to any implementation, the timing of which, remains unclear. Additional EU Member States may decide to participate.

Prospective holders of Notes are advised to seek their own professional advice in relation to the Financial Transactions Tax.

Spanish FTT

Law 5/2020 of 15 October, on the FTT (Ley del Impuesto sobre las Transacciones Financieras) entered into force on 16 January 2021.

The Spanish FTT applies on specific acquisitions of listed shares (including transfer or conversion) issued by Spanish companies with a market capitalisation of more than €1 billion, regardless of the jurisdiction of residence of the parties involved in the transaction, at a tax rate of 0.2%. In principle, the Spanish FTT does not affect transactions involving bonds or debt or similar instruments, such as preferred securities or derivatives.

The list of the Spanish companies with a market capitalisation exceeding €1 billion at 1 December of each year will be published on the Spanish tax authorities' website before 31 December each year. For the purposes of transactions closed during 2025, the Spanish tax authorities issued a list of entities whose market capitalization exceeded €1 billion as of 1 December 2024 that will fall within the scope of the Spanish FTT.

Prospective holders of Notes are advised to seek their own professional advice in relation to the Financial Transactions Tax.

Taxation in Spain

1. Introduction

This information has been prepared in accordance with the following Spanish tax legislation in force at the date of this Information Memorandum:

- (a) of general application, Additional Provision One of Law 10/2014, of 26 June, on regulation, supervision and solvency of credit entities and Royal Decree 1065/2007, of 27 July, as amended, approving the General Regulations of the tax inspection and management procedures and developing the common rules of the procedures to apply taxes, as amended by Royal Decree 1145/2011, of 29 July, and Royal Decree-Law 20/2011, of 30 December, on urgent measures on budget, tax and finance matters for the correction of the public deficit;

- (c) for legal entities resident for tax purposes in Spain which are subject to the Corporate Income Tax ("CIT"), Law 27/2014, of 27 November, of the CIT Law, and Royal Decree 634/2015, of 10 July, promulgating the CIT Regulations; and
- (d) for individuals and entities who are not resident for tax purposes in Spain which are subject to the Non-Resident Income Tax ("NRIT"), Royal Legislative Decree 5/2004, of 5 March, promulgating the Consolidated Text of the NRIT Law as amended by Law 26/2014, of 27 November, Royal Decree 1776/2004, of 30 July, promulgating the NRIT Regulations, along with Law 29/1987, of 18 December, on the Inheritance and Gift Tax, and Law 38/2022, of 27 December, for the establishment of temporary levies on energy and on financial credit institutions and introducing a temporary solidarity tax on large fortunes, as amended.

Whatever the nature and residence of the Beneficial Owner (as defined in the Notes), the acquisition and transfer of the Notes will be exempt from indirect taxes in Spain, in particular, exempt from Transfer Tax and Stamp Duty, in accordance with the Consolidated Text of such tax promulgated by Royal Legislative Decree 1/1993, of 24 September, and exempt from Value Added Tax, in accordance with Law 37/1992, of 28 December, regulating such tax.

2. Individuals with Tax Residency in Spain

(a) Personal Income Tax (Impuesto sobre la Renta de las Personas Físicas)

Both interest payments periodically received and income derived from the transfer, redemption or repayment of the Notes obtained by individuals who are resident in Spain constitute a return on investment obtained from the transfer of a person's own capital to third parties in accordance with the provisions of Section 25 of the PIT Law, and therefore must be included in the investor's PIT savings taxable base pursuant to the provisions of the aforementioned law, and taxed according to the then-applicable rate. The savings taxable base will be taxed at the rate of 19% for taxable income up to €6,000.00, 21% for taxable income between €6,000.01 and €50,000.00, 23% for taxable income between €50,000.01 and €200,000.00, 27% for taxable income between €200,000.01 and €300,000, and 30% for taxable income in excess of €300,000.

Income from the transfer of the Notes shall generally be computed as the difference between the amounts obtained in the transfer, redemption or reimbursement of the Notes and their acquisition or subscription value. Costs and expenses effectively borne on the acquisition and/or disposal of the Notes shall be taken into account, insofar as adequately evidenced, in calculating the income.

Negative income derived from the transfer of the Notes, in the event that the Beneficial Owner had acquired other homogeneous securities within the two months prior or subsequent to such transfer or exchange, shall be included in his or her PIT base as and when the remaining homogeneous securities are transferred.

When calculating the net income, expenses related to the management and deposit of the Notes will be deductible, excluding those pertaining to discretionary or individual portfolio management.

According to Section 44.5 of Royal Decree 1065/2007, of 27 July, as amended, and in the opinion of the Issuer, the Issuer will pay interest without withholding to individual Beneficial Owners who are resident for tax purposes in Spain provided that the information about the Notes required by Exhibit 1 is submitted, notwithstanding the information obligations of the Issuer under general provisions of Spanish tax legislation, by virtue of which identification of Spanish investors may be provided to the Spanish tax authorities. In addition, income obtained upon transfer, redemption or exchange of the Notes may also be paid without withholding.

However, in the case of Notes held by Spanish resident individuals and deposited with a Spanish resident entity acting as depositary or custodian, payments of interest under the Notes may be subject to withholding tax at the current rate of 19% which would be made by the depositary or custodian.

Withheld amounts may be credited against individuals' final PIT liability.

(b) Net Wealth Tax (Impuesto sobre el Patrimonio) and Solidarity Tax (Impuesto Temporal de Solidaridad de las Grandes Fortunas)

Individuals with tax residency in Spain would be subject to Net Wealth Tax to the extent that their net worth exceeds a certain limit. This limit has been set at EUR 700,000 which may vary in each of the autonomous communities. Therefore, they should take into account the value of the Notes which they hold as at 31 December in each year, the applicable rates ranging between 0.2% and 3.5%. The autonomous communities may have different provisions on this respect.

In addition to the above, the so-called "Solidarity Tax" was approved in December 2022, which is a direct wealth tax that, in general terms, applies, under certain conditions, to those residents in an autonomous region where the Wealth Tax is partial or fully exempt. The amount payable for this tax could be reduced by the amount paid for Wealth Tax.

The "Solidarity Tax" was initially a two-year direct wealth tax, but Royal Decree-Law 8/2023, of December 27, which adopts measures to address the economic and social consequences arising from the conflicts in Ukraine and the Middle East, as well as to alleviate the effects of the drought, extended it indefinitely, until the review of wealth taxation within the context of the reform of the regional financing system takes place.

The rates of the "Solidarity Tax" are:

Taxable base up to (Euros)	Tax due (Euros)	Rest of taxable base (Euros)	Rate
0.00	0.00	3,000,000.00	0%

3,000,000.00	0.00	2,347,998.03	1.7%
5,347,998.03	39,915.97	5,347,998.03	2.1%
10,695,996.06	152,223.93	Any excess	3.5%

Note that the regulation lays down a minimum exempt amount of €700,000 which means that its effective impact, in general, will occur when the net wealth, not tax exempt, is greater than €3,700,000.

Prospective investors are advised to seek their own professional advice in this regard.

(c) Inheritance and Gift Tax (Impuesto sobre Sucesiones y Donaciones)

Individuals resident in Spain for tax purposes who acquire ownership or other rights over any Notes by inheritance, gift or legacy will be subject to the Spanish Inheritance and Gift Tax in accordance with the applicable Spanish regional and State rules. The applicable tax rates currently range between 7.65% and 34%. Relevant factors applied (such as previous net wealth, family relationship among transferor and transferee or applicable tax laws approved by autonomous communities) do determine the final effective tax rate that currently may range between 0% and 81.6%.

3. Legal Entities with Tax Residency in Spain

(a) Corporate Income Tax (Impuesto sobre Sociedades)

Both interest received periodically and income derived from the transfer, redemption or repayment of the Notes are subject to CIT in accordance with the rules for this tax. The current general tax rate of 25%, however, does not apply to all corporate income tax payers and, for instance, does not apply to banking institutions, which would be subject to a tax rate of 30%.

In accordance with Section 44.5 of Royal Decree 1065/2007, of 27 July as amended, and in the opinion of the Issuer, there is no obligation to withhold on income derived from the redemption and repayment of the Notes and interest payable to Spanish CIT taxpayers (which for the sake of clarity, include Spanish tax resident investment funds and Spanish tax resident pension funds). Consequently, the Issuer will not withhold tax on interest payments to Spanish CIT taxpayers provided that the information about the Notes required by Exhibit 1 is submitted, notwithstanding the information obligations of the Issuer under general provisions of Spanish tax legislation, by virtue of which identification of Spanish investors may be provided to the Spanish tax authorities.

However, in the case of Notes held by a Spanish resident entity and deposited with a Spanish resident entity acting as depositary or custodian, payments of interest under the Notes may be subject to withholding tax at the current rate of 19%, withholding that would be made by the depositary or custodian, if the Notes do not comply with exemption requirements specified in the Reply to the Consultation of the Directorate General for Taxation (Dirección General de Tributos) dated 27 July 2004 and require a withholding to be made therefore, the exemption of withholding as regards income obtained by Spanish resident corporate investors from financial assets listed on an official OECD market, contained in Section 61(s) of the CIT regulations, is not applicable.

Withheld amounts may be credited against Beneficial Owners' final CIT liability.

(b) Net Wealth Tax (Impuesto sobre el Patrimonio) and Solidarity Tax (Impuesto Temporal de Solidaridad de las Grandes Fortunas)

Legal entities resident in Spain for tax purposes are neither subject to Wealth Tax, nor to Solidarity Tax.

(c) Inheritance and Gift Tax (Impuesto sobre Sucesiones y Donaciones)

Legal entities resident in Spain for tax purposes which acquire ownership or other rights over the Notes by inheritance, gift or legacy are not subject to the Spanish Inheritance and Gift Tax but must include the market value of the Notes in their taxable income for Spanish CIT purposes.

4. Individuals and Legal Entities with no Tax Residency in Spain

(a) Non-Resident Income Tax (Impuesto sobre la Renta de no Residentes)

(i) Non-Spanish resident investors acting through a permanent establishment in Spain

Ownership of the Notes by investors who are not resident for tax purposes in Spain will not in itself create the existence of a permanent establishment in Spain.

If the Notes form part of the assets of a permanent establishment in Spain of a person or legal entity who is not resident in Spain for tax purposes, the tax rules applicable to income deriving from such Notes are, generally, the same as those previously set out for Spanish CIT taxpayers.

See “Taxation in Spain—Legal Entities with Tax Residency in Spain—Corporate Income Tax (Impuesto sobre Sociedades)”.

(ii) With no permanent establishment in Spain

Both interest payments received periodically and income derived from the transfer, redemption or repayment of the Notes, obtained by individuals or entities who are not resident in Spain for tax purposes and who do not act, with respect to the Notes, through a permanent establishment in Spain, are exempt from NRIT.

In order for the exemption to apply, it is necessary to comply with certain information obligations relating to the Notes, in the manner detailed under “—Information about the Notes in Connection with Payments” as laid down in section 44 of Royal Decree 1065/2007, as amended (“Section 44”). If these information obligations are not complied with in the manner indicated, the Issuer will withhold 19% and the Issuer will not pay additional amounts.

Beneficial Owners not resident in Spain for tax purposes and entitled to exemption from NRIT but where the Issuer does not timely receive the information about the Notes in accordance with the procedure described in detail under “—Information about the Notes in Connection with Payments” would have to apply directly to the Spanish tax authorities for any refund to which they may be entitled, according to the procedures set forth in the Spanish Non Resident Income Tax Law.

(b) Net Wealth Tax (Impuesto sobre el Patrimonio) and Solidarity Tax (Impuesto Temporal de Solidaridad de las Grandes Fortunas)

Non-Spanish resident individuals whose properties and rights located in Spain, or that can be exercised within the Spanish territory exceed €700,000 would be subject to Wealth Tax, the applicable rates ranging between 0.2% and 3.5%.

Individuals resident in a country with which Spain has entered into a double tax treaty in relation to Net Wealth Tax would generally not be subject to such tax.

In addition to the above, the so-called “Solidarity Tax” was approved in December 2022, which is a direct wealth tax that, in general terms, applies, under certain conditions, to those residents in an autonomous region where the Wealth Tax is partial or fully exempt. The amount payable for this tax could be reduced by the amount paid for Wealth Tax.

The “Solidarity Tax” was initially a two-year direct wealth tax, but Royal Decree-Law 8/2023, of December 27, which adopts measures to address the economic and social consequences arising from the conflicts in Ukraine and the Middle East, as well as to alleviate the effects of the drought, extended it indefinitely, until the review of wealth taxation within the context of the reform of the regional financing system takes place.

The rates of the “Solidarity Tax” are:

Taxable base up to (Euros)	Tax due (Euros)	Rest of taxable base (Euros)	Rate
0.00	0.00	3,000,000.00	0%
3,000,000.00	0.00	2,347,998.03	1.7%
5,347,998.03	39,915.97	5,347,998.03	2.1%
10,695,996.06	152,223.93	Any excess	3.5%

Note that the regulation lays down a minimum exempt amount of €700,000 which means that its effective impact, in general, will occur when the net wealth, not tax exempt, is greater than €3,700,000.

Prospective investors are advised to seek their own professional advice in this regard.

Non-Spanish resident legal entities are neither subject to Net Wealth Tax, nor to Solidarity Tax.

(c) Inheritance and Gift Tax (Impuesto sobre Sucesiones y Donaciones)

Individuals not resident in Spain for tax purposes who acquire ownership or other rights over Notes by inheritance gift or legacy, will be subject to the Spanish Inheritance and Gift Tax in accordance with the applicable Spanish regional and state rules, unless they reside in a country for tax purposes with which Spain has entered into a double tax treaty in relation to Inheritance and Gift Tax. In such case, the provisions of the relevant double tax treaty will apply.

If the provisions of the foregoing paragraph do not apply, such individuals will be subject to inheritance and gift tax in accordance with Spanish legislation. As such, prospective investors should consult their tax advisers.

However, the deceased, heir or the donee that are not resident in Spain, depending on the specific situation, the applicable rules will be those corresponding to the relevant autonomous regions according to the law.

Non-Spanish resident legal entities which acquire ownership or other rights over the Notes by inheritance gift or legacy are not subject to the Spanish Inheritance and Gift Tax. Such acquisitions will be subject to NRIT (as described above), except as provided in any applicable double tax treaty entered into by Spain. In general, double tax treaties provide for the taxation of this type of income in the country of tax residence of the Holder.

5. Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (“FATCA”)

Pursuant to certain provisions of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, commonly known as FATCA, a “foreign financial institution” may be required to withhold on certain payments it makes (“foreign pass thru payments”) to persons that fail to meet certain certification, reporting, or related requirements. The Issuer may be a foreign financial institution for these purposes. A number of jurisdictions (including the jurisdiction of the Issuer) have entered into, or have agreed in substance to, intergovernmental agreements with the United States to implement FATCA (“IGAs”), which modify the way in which FATCA applies in their jurisdictions.

Certain aspects of the application of the FATCA provisions and IGAs to instruments such as the Notes, including whether withholding would ever be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as the Notes, are uncertain and may be subject to change. Even if withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as the Notes, such withholding would not apply to foreign passthru payments before the date that is two years after the publication of the final regulations defining “foreign passthru payment” and Notes that have a fixed term and are not treated as equity for U.S. federal income tax purposes, issued on or prior to the date that is six (6) months after the date on which final regulations defining “foreign passthru payments” are filed with the U.S. Federal Register generally would be “grandfathered” for purposes of FATCA withholding on foreign passthru payments unless materially modified after such date. In the event any withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on the Notes, no person will be required to pay additional amounts as a result of the withholding. Prospective purchasers should consult their own tax advisors regarding how these rules may apply to their investment in the Notes.

6. Tax Rules for Notes not Listed on Organised Market in an OECD Country

6.1 Withholding on Account of PIT, CIT and NRIT

If the Notes are not listed on a multilateral trading facility, regulated market or any other organised market in an OECD country on any Payment Date, payments to Beneficial Owners in respect of the Notes will be subject to withholding tax at the current rate of 19% except in the case of Beneficial Owners which are: (a) resident in a Member State of the European Union other than Spain or in a member state of the EEA (other than Spain) which has entered into an effective exchange of tax information agreement with Spain, and obtain the interest income either directly or through a permanent establishment located in another Member State of the European Union or in a member state of the EEA (other than Spain) which has entered into an effective exchange of tax information agreement with Spain, provided that such Beneficial Owners (i) do not obtain the interest income on the Notes through a permanent establishment in Spain and (ii) are not resident of, or are not located in, nor obtain income through, a non-cooperative jurisdiction (as defined by the Law 36/2006, of 29 November, on prevention measures and actions against tax fraud, as amended through Law 11/2021, of 9 July, as amended and as currently set out in Spanish Order HFP/115/2023, of 9 February) or (b) resident for tax purposes of a country which has entered into a convention for the avoidance of double taxation with Spain which provides for an exemption from Spanish tax or a reduced withholding tax rate with respect to interest payable to any Beneficial Owners or (c) Spanish financial entities which comply with the requirements established in Article 61.c) or Spanish securitization funds which comply with the requirements established in Article 61.k) of CIT Regulations or non-Spanish financial entities acting through a Spanish branch as referred to in the second paragraph of Article 8.1 of the NRIT Regulations; and in both (a) and (b) cases, the Beneficial Owner provides the Issuer with a valid and in-force certificate of tax residency duly issued by the tax authorities of its country of residency, and in (b) case, such tax residence certificate must be issued within the meaning of the relevant double tax treaty, before any payment is made or due (whichever occurs first). For these purposes, the certificate of tax residency shall be issued within one year as of the date of payment or if it refers to a specific period, it will only be valid for that period.

6.2 Net Wealth Tax (Impuesto sobre el Patrimonio) and Solidarity Tax (Impuesto Temporal de Solidaridad de las Grandes Fortunas)

See “Taxation-Taxation in Spain-Individuals with Tax Residency in Spain — Net Wealth Tax (Impuesto sobre el Patrimonio)” and “Solidarity Tax (Impuesto Temporal de Solidaridad de las Grandes Fortunas)” and “Taxation- Taxation in Spain – Individuals and legal entities with no tax residency in Spain – Net Wealth Tax (Impuesto sobre el Patrimonio)” and “Solidarity Tax (Impuesto Temporal de Solidaridad de las Grandes Fortunas)”.

7. Information about the Notes in connection with Payments

As described above, interest and other income paid with respect to the Notes will not be subject to Spanish withholding tax unless the procedures for delivering to the Issuer the information described in Exhibit 1 of this Information Memorandum are not complied with.

The information obligations to be complied with in order to apply the exemption are those laid down in Section 44 of Royal Decree 1065/2007, as amended (“Section 44”).

In accordance with Section 44 paragraph 5, the following information with respect to the Notes must be submitted to the Issuer before the close of business on the Business Day (as defined in the terms and conditions of the Notes) immediately preceding the date on which any payment of interest, principal or of any amounts in respect of the early redemption of the Notes (each, a “Payment Date”) is due, the Issuer must receive from the Issue and Paying Agent the following information about the Notes:

- (a) the identification of the Notes with respect to which the relevant payment is made;
- (b) the date on which the relevant payment is made;
- (c) the total amount of the relevant payment;
- (d) the amount of the relevant payment paid to each entity that manages a clearing and settlement system for securities situated outside of Spain.

In particular, the Issue and Paying Agent must certify the information above about the Notes by means of a certificate, the form of which is attached as Exhibit 1 of this Information Memorandum.

In light of the above, the Issuer and the Issue and Paying Agent have arranged certain procedures to facilitate the collection of information concerning the Notes by the close of business on the Business Day immediately preceding each relevant Payment Date. If, despite these procedures, the relevant information is not received by the Issuer on each Payment Date, the Issuer will instruct the Issue and Paying Agent to withhold tax at the then-applicable rate (as at the date of this Information Memorandum 19%) from any payment in respect of the relevant Notes. The Issuer will not pay any additional amounts with respect to any such withholding.

If, before the tenth day of the month following the month in which interest is paid, the Issue and Paying Agent provides such information, the Issuer will instruct the Issue and Paying Agent to immediately transfer the relevant withholding tax (currently, 19%) deducted in respect of the relevant payment pursuant to the above by way of reimbursement of the amounts withheld on the relevant payment date and completion of the corresponding payment in respect of payments under the Notes. If the Issue and Paying Agent fails or for any reason is unable to provide such information to the Issuer by the tenth day of the month following the month in which interest is paid, the Issue and Paying Agent shall immediately return (but in any event no later than the tenth day of the month immediately following the relevant payment) to the Issuer any remaining amount of the withholding tax (currently, 19%) deducted in respect of the relevant payment, and investors will have to apply directly to the Spanish tax authorities for any refund to which they may be entitled.

Prospective Beneficial Owners should note that none of the Issuer or the Dealers accepts any responsibility relating to the procedures established for the collection of information concerning the Notes. Accordingly, none the Issuer or the Dealers will be liable for any damage or loss suffered by any Beneficial Owner who would otherwise be entitled to an exemption from Spanish withholding tax but whose income payments are nonetheless paid net of Spanish withholding tax because these procedures prove ineffective. Moreover, the Issuer will not pay any additional amounts with respect to any such withholding. See “Risk Factors - Risks in relation to the Notes - Taxation”.

Set out below is Exhibit 1. Sections in English have been translated from the original Spanish and such translations constitute direct and accurate translations of the Spanish language text. In the event of any discrepancy between the Spanish language version of the certificate contained in Exhibit 1 and the corresponding English translation, the Spanish tax authorities will give effect to the Spanish language version of the relevant certificate only.

Any foreign language text included in this Information Memorandum is for convenience purposes only and does not form part of this Information Memorandum.
